SLAPS NEWSBOY AND IS FINED

ENGAGED AT PAPER VENDER'S PERSISTENCY, H. HONARE CHASTISES HIM AND JUDGE HOGUE ADDS FINAL CHAPTER BY FINING ANGRY CITIZEN $10.

Little Felix Alexander tried to sell Henry Honare a newspaper this morning and he became angry because the newsboy was persistent and slapped him. Otto H. Hogue, judge, witnessed the assault and arrested Honare on a charge of assault and battery.

The Newsboy's association took up the prosecution of Honare, and Otto Praeg, president of the association, addressed Judge Hogue in regard to men slapping and hitting newsboys. Honare took the witness stand and attempted to justify his actions, but Judge Hogue thought that a fine of $10 was sufficient, which Honare paid.

THREATENS DEATH IF SHE WILL NOT ELOPE

Last night Gaspero Stiano, an Italian, residing at 665 Fifth street, called at the residence of Mrs. Conatto Candielio, his next-door neighbor, and gave her until 8 o'clock this morning to decide whether or not she would leave her husband.

At 7 o'clock this morning Stiano called and Mrs. Candielio told him she loved her husband and would not leave him. Then Stiano drew a revolver and declared that he would kill her and her husband. The woman slammed the door in his face and, running through the house, escaped down Fourth street.

Officer Hirsch met Mrs. Candielio running down the street, but she was so excited that it was some time before she could tell her story. When Hirsch heard of Stiano's conduct he went to Mrs. Candielio's home and saw Stiano walking up and down in front of the house. At the sight of the officer Stiano fled to the hills and, although the officer followed, he soon lost sight of his man in the dense brush. This morning Mrs. Candielio called at the police station and a complaint charging the man with the crime of threatening to kill was issued.

Mrs. Candielio stated this morning that at one time before her marriage she and Stiano were engaged. The engagement was broken off and she married Candielio. Several times the rejected lover had asked her to leave her husband for him, but she refused.
