Count Edwards, the "dare devil" trick bloycle rider, who created a sensation here during the recent carnival by his reckless act of shooting down a steep incline on his bicycle and making a jump of 30 feet through space at the bottom, had beth arms broken Saturday at Seattle. In dropping down the incline during a performance, his wheel swerved and he was carried over the edge of the slope and fell 20 feet to the hard ground below. His hands were fastened to the handle bars with rubber bands and he could not free them in time to save himself. He is considered lucky to have escaped with his life. He still insists that he will continue his performance as soon as he recovers.

To relieve the overcrowded condition of the Mount Tabor schools a temporary school house in the north end of the district will be erected, according to H. B. Adams of the board of directors. The district has insufficient money on hand with which to build a large substantial building and all that can be done at the present time is to erect a building of three or four rooms. In case no attempt is made toward annexation to the city of Portland for some years to come, it is the intention of the citizens to erect a large school building. The septic tank for sewerage as recommended by Dr. Hutchinson has not been introduced for the reason that there is an insufficiency of water.

Superintendent W. T. Gardner of the Boys' and Girls' Aid society has returned from the east, where he went as a delegate to the national conference of charities and correction held at Portland, Me. It is through the efforts of Mr. Gardner and his colleagues, Dr. E. B. Miller, Mrs. B. H. Trumbull and Mrs. Mears that the next annual gathering of the society will be held in this city. During his sojourn in the east Mr. Gardner visited many institutions to make himself familiar with the methods employed in dealing with children in schools of correction and charity.

The Mount Tabor Improvement asso-ciation will hold a meeting this evening at the hall at Tabor heights for the purpose of hearing reports from the water committee on the sewerage problem and other matters of interest to that section.

The improvement of Union avenue between Belmont street and Hawthorne avenue and the replanking of Union avenue will open two closed streets in Stephens' addition: The work on both improvements is progressing rapidly.

Grand Matron Della Huston and Worthy Assistant Patron G. M. Hyland will be tendered a reception by Martha Washington chapter of the Order of Eastern Star at the Burkhard this even-

H. H. Gilfry, legislative clerk of the United States senate, has arrived in the city with his wife to spend the summer. Mr. Gilfry is an Oregonian by birth, but has lived in Washington for 27 years.

Manager Ed. L. Drew of the Thirdavenue theatre, Seattle, is in the city, looking oven the beauties of Portland and visiting his business partner, Manager W. M. Russell, of Cordray's theatre. He is accompanied by R. E. French (Handsome Dick). Only a few years ago "Dick" French was leading man at Cordray's and had more admirers than any actor that ever trod the boards in Portland. "Dick" can act yet, but he won't. Mr. French is now Manager Russell's representative in Seattle, where he has built for himself a fine home.

AT THE ABCADE.

The engagement of the Royal Italian band at the Arcade theater begins today. This famous organization of skilled musicians will play daily at the matinee performances commencing at 2 p. m. Two selections will be given every day. The greatest Roman ring artists in the west, the Davies duo, will be the headliners, although Curtain and Blossom, the rag-time reveilers, may wrest away the laurel. Sam Hood, the clever funmaker, is on the bill. So are Lynne and Lechard in a comedy dancing act; Kafe Coyle and many others. The bioscope will show a vivid picture of the sinking of a Russian gunboat in Chemulpo harbor by the Japanese.

This week beginning today at the Star, in addition to the full regular program the Royal Italian band will play two selections at every matinee performance, commencing at 3 p. m. Lovers of fine music will grasp the op-portunity to sit in comfort and hear these artists play. On the regular bill which opened this afternoon for the coming week are Seymour and May, comedian and soubrette, who do some spectacular work in the funmaking line. A genuine novelty is the turn of pretty Alice Bryant, who is booked for an acrobatic monologue.

Giving People Better Opportunities Than They Ever Had to Secure Good Pianos.

This Time They Are Used Ones But They Are Bigger Values Than Will Be Offered Again

A little use does not impair a plane in the least, and good instruments that have been thoroughly overhauled and repaired, are almost, if not quite, as satisfactory as new ones. They are certainly much more desirable than the ordinary, common, cheap plane when it is new, and greatly superior to that kind of instrument after it has seen even a little use. A thorough rubbing and polishing makes them as handsome and attractive as they ever were, but our

"MASCOTTE" AT SHIELDS.

Producer Zinn's revised version of that old comic opera, "La Mascotte," will be presented for the first time at Shields" Park tonight. "Mascotte a la Newberg" retains all the charms of music, grace and comedy of the old piece and adds much in the way of new and popular song hita. Beccial dances and groupings have been arranged and the scenery, costumes and electrical effects are all new. It's cool there.

The bill is: Hoyt and MeDonald, in a high-class singing comedy sketch; Teggle and Daniels in a comedy, singular to be sufficient to be sufficie
