

THOUSANDS WILL VISIT PORTLAND

Railroad Men Say That 20,000 Eastern People Who Will Attend Fraternal Conventions in San Francisco Will Pass Through City.

It is estimated by local railroad officials that between 40 and 70 per cent of the 20,000 visitors who will attend the Knights Templar and Odd Fellows' conventions in San Francisco during the month of September will pass through Portland. Already arrangements have been made for nine through trains from the east to pass through this city over the Northern Pacific.

with their families, are also planning to make a trip through the north and see Portland and other northwest cities. "We have already arranged for nine special trains of visitors to pass through Portland en route to San Francisco," said A. D. Charlton, assistant general passenger agent of the Northern Pacific of this city. "It is also assured that a large number of those who reach San Francisco by southern lines will return through Portland in their return. Nearly all who pass through here will stop for a time, for every one wants to see this northwest country and especially Portland and Oregon."

LAST COLLINGE SUIT DISMISSED

So far as pending legal actions are concerned "Dr." J. E. Collinge, whose meteoric career in Portland brought him into the limelight of notoriety two years ago, may return to the city. It is probable, however, that it would be unsafe for the self-styled disciple of occultism to darken the Portland landscape, as many people would be prepared to give him a too vigorous reception.

was made; then he disappeared, and where he is at this day no man in Portland knows. Collinge came to this city in 1902. He claimed to have a panacea for all diseases to which human flesh is heir and lectured to audiences at the Marquam Grand, the attendance being so great that the "standing room only" sign was hung out. Then he delivered a number of lectures at the Taylor street Methodist church. He was coming money when an exposure of his methods came.

SAYS GRAVEL PITS ARE DANGEROUS

Charles C. Brown expects to accomplish through the medium of the circuit court what the city fathers failed to do by ordinance. He secured a temporary order yesterday afternoon, restraining William Lind from digging a gravel pit on property abutting his own land in Highland Park addition. It is alleged that the pit constitutes a menace to the life and limb of Brown's family and the general public, and that the blasting carried on in excavating it is not only dangerous, but disturbs the peace and quiet of the neighborhood by day and by night.

IDLE MILLS ARE AGAIN WORKING

A dispatch from Tacoma gives color to the more or less frequent statements that lumber trade prospects for Sound mills that have been lying idle for a period are starting up again, and that more inquiries are being received. There also is an increased demand for shingles, and the shiplifts promise to be larger to eastern points. It is reported that the stocks generally are low in the yards, especially in the east. For the past three months the Sound mills have been running idle for a period and more inquiries are being received. There also is an increased demand for shingles, and the shiplifts promise to be larger to eastern points.

C. C. BROWN WILL ENDEAVOR TO STOP GRAVEL DIGGERS, THROUGH COUNCIL ORDINANCE

GOOD FIND OF ALABAMA ORE

Birmingham, Ala., July 29.—A discovery of a large deposit of gray or magnetic ore near Sydmore, Ala. has caused considerable interest in industrial circles here, inasmuch as it develops the fact that there is ore in abundance in other places besides on the mountains in the immediate Birmingham district or on Lookout Mountain. The ore runs 40 to 45 per cent metallic iron with other elements about the same as the red ore in the Birmingham district, except that the ore has fluxing element equivalent to 6 per cent of carbonate lime. There are probably 10,000,000 tons, if not more, in a six-foot seam which has been tapped.

HAMMOND INTENDS TO PLEAD GUILTY

BEARMOUTH TRAIN ROBBER RETURNS TO MONTANA WILLINGLY—TAKES SHERIFF TO SPOT WHERE BOOTY IS CONCEALED—SCHEME TO ESCAPE.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Spokane, Wash., July 29.—George F. Hammond, the Montana cowboy who was arrested in this city July 13 on a charge of participating in the Northern Pacific train robbery at Bearmouth, Mont., on the night of June 16, has made a full and complete confession of the crime, and has been taken to Helena to await trial. Hammond's confession, which he made in the presence of Sheriff Doust, a Northern Pacific detective, and the superintendent of the division on which the holdup occurred, is in it detailing the events leading up to the crime, the crime itself, and the escape of himself and his partner across the mountains from Montana into this state. He also relates the actions of the train crew at the time of the robbery, and describes several quarrels which occurred between himself and his partner, resulting at last in their making arrangements to escape, and agreeing to go to their respective ways alone.

Since he began making his confession Hammond has taken Sheriff Doust out of the city on two different occasions to places where he had hidden portions of the booty. He also relates the holdup. At one place near Couer d'Alene was found 257 diamonds, valued at about $1,500. At another place he had hidden about 1170, mostly in silver. These, with 195 pieces of jewelry in his possession at the time of his capture, is all the officers have found. In the holdup the robbers secured $1,900 in money and 900 diamonds valued at $3,500.

MOTHER ARRESTED AS AN ACCOMPLICE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Seattle Wash., July 29.—Johna Sveithese went to the police yesterday to see Anton Wehbe, accused of the murder of her son, and was arrested as an accomplice to the crime. Johna Sveithese, a young coal miner living near Black, had informed her mother that she had a hatchet on his own doorstep Sunday night, and lay weeping in his own blood an hour before his mother would lay her hands upon him. She revealed the whole story to the police. Her mother, who was the woman who tremored, seemed to expect it when Wehbe, his hands and clothing dripping with blood, carried her the news.
