GAMBLERS TO OPEN AT GEORGETOWN

ARGYLE WAS BOUND OVER TO THE SUPERIOR COURT MAY BE PUT IN OPERATION SUBURB OF PICIALS WILL NOT INTERPERE.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Seattle, Wash., July 29.—Gamblers cont to open games at Georgetown as on as the racing season at The Meadws ceases. This was the plan formulated before Dave Argyle, one of the est known gamblers on the coast, was ound over to the superior court formalling and must now stand trial, but ambling and must now stand trial, but thile this may have a bearing on the ituation the fraternity does not think will seriously interfere with the ar-agements. The action in binding rgyle over to face a jury was so un-xpected as to be a surprise to almost Argyle and three other men were ar Argyle and three other men were rested for conducting games at Georgetown at the instance of the Seattle Civic union, urged to ection, it was apparent at the time, by the racing men at The Meadows. The track and pooling places are near Georgetown, and the poolsellers demanded that gambling at leorgetown cease while the racing eason continued. Warrants for the arest of several gamblers were made out and the places were raided, with such stentatious preparation that only one ian was found in all the gambling ouses. The other three were taken The three aside from Argyle red preliminary hearing and will stand trial.

It is planned to start again at Georgetown slowly with the smaller games and poolselling, then work up to the wheels and all the big paraphernalia. Georgetown town officials are anxious to build sidewalks and make public improvements with the gambling proceeds, and they will not interfere in any way with the gamesters. At Ballard gambling is running in full swing under protection from the town and county authorities, but so far the gamblers authorities, but so far the gamblers have not had the temerity to spin their wheels in Scattle itself.

SPOKANE MAY BUILD TWO BIG RESERVOIRS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Spokane, Wash., July 28.—Action has been taken favoring the construction of a 15,000,000 gallon reservoir near Ninth avenue and Division street, and the construction of a 1,000,000 gallon reservoir or storage tank in Lingerwood estimated that such a reserv luding site, will cost only a little er $150,000. On the other hand, the onstruction of new powerhouse exten-tions and a new force main will cost yer $205,000. The reservoir plan will ecure a reduction of insurance rates, while the alternative force main proposition will not.

The reservoir as now planned contemplates a pressure of 80 pounds at the corner of Howard and Riverside. When the pressure rises above that the reservoir will be filled by the pumps; when it falls below, the water from the reservoir running back down again will restore the 50 pounds' pressure at the point needed.

CAN YOU GUESS OR HETIMATE THE POPULAR VOTE FOR PRESIDENT?

If you make the nearest guess you can secure a prize, one of 5,000, valued at $2,500 to $5 each. The guess will cost you no Every 25 cents you remit to The Journal, covering subscriptions to the Dally, Sunday, Semi-weekly or Weekly will entitle you to one guess.
