

COAST SHIPMENTS SAVED THE DAY

Foreign Exports of Lumber During July Were Few but Rapidly Increasing Coast Trade Brings the Total Up to Large Figure.

While the lumber exports for the month of July will be light as compared with those of preceding months, the shipments sent coastwise are sufficient to bring the total up to a good general average. During the past 30 days there have been 7,895,508 feet of lumber shipped to San Francisco and San Pedro, almost 1,000,000 feet in excess of last month's business down the coast.

So far there have been only two lumber carriers clear for foreign ports, but the American steamship Pielades is practically loaded and it is understood that she will be ready to sail in ample time for her cargo to be loaded to this month's transactions at the custom house. She will take out in the neighborhood of 2,000,000 feet. It is said that the British steamship Tottenham, which will carry close to 3,500,000 feet, will not be loaded in time to sail before the first week in August. Had she cleared this month the exports would have almost equaled those of the preceding month.

Not a grain ship has cleared, but as this is the dull season for that line of business the matter causes no surprise. But the British ship Rajore is under charter and has taken a part of her cargo, so there is one clearance in sight for next month. Two other grain vessels are lying in port waiting for charters.

The Export Trade.

July 2, the schooner William Bowden cleared for Tsingtau with 211,412 feet of lumber and a quantity of piling valued at $10,089.

July 28, the oriental liner Aragonia cleared for Hong Kong and way ports with 50,800 barrels of flour valued at $203,200 and a quantity of other freight, making the total value of the cargo $294,489.

WALK 260 MILES FOR RECREATION

G. A. Melboeuf, chief clerk in the freight department of the Southern Pacific, and H. A. Anzer, until recently an instructor in the Hill Military academy, are spending their vacation in a novel way. They are taking a three week's vacation and intend to walk a distance of 260 miles in that time.

Besides walking that distance they will spend several days at various resorts along the way. They started on the trip last Friday. They were equipped with walking sticks, heavy boots and other articles that will assist them in the pedestrian experiment. They were minus any superfluous equipment.

The travelers left the city at 7:30 o'clock Friday night. They reached Tillamook, a distance of 90 miles, at 9 o'clock Monday afternoon. From Tillamook they proceeded towards Seaside, a distance of 50 miles, and expect to reach that place Friday. They will spend a week at the beach.

WINS FOOT RACE WITH ANGRY BRUIN

O. F. WALLACE TAKES A SHOT AT A HUGE AND HUNGRY BEAR THAT ONLY EXCITES THE BEAST—A RAPID RETREAT TO COVER THAT ENDED IN A FATAL SHOT.

While out on his vacation last week, O. F. Wallace, elevator conductor at the custom house, killed a large cinnamon bear which almost got the best of him. Mr. Wallace has just returned home and brought the pelt of his bearship with him, which he is exhibiting as a trophy of an exciting experience.

"It was up on the east fork of the Lewis river," said Mr. Wallace last evening, "where the encounter took place. I was walking along a rugged path in the mountains, carrying a Winchester under my arm, when the bear emerged from a clump of bushes not more than a rod from me. He was a ferocious-looking brute, and I imagined that he was preparing to attack me. I raised my gun as quickly as I could and fired without taking very accurate aim.

"Evidently the only effect the shot had on him was to raise his anger. With a savage grunt the animal charged toward me, and I did a little piece of fancy side-stepping down the hill on my own account. Finally I dodged behind a large boulder and decided to try my luck with the gun once more. This time my aim was better and I sent a bullet clear through his neck.

"The bear dropped in his tracks and I congratulated myself that it was all off with him. I walked up to where he lay and prodded him in the ribs with the end of the gun. Imagine my surprise when he jumped up and made a lunge at me. But he was badly wounded and soon fell exhausted. The next time I approached cautiously and shot him through the heart. He weighed about 750 pounds.

Mr. Wallace put in part of his time prospecting. He has a mining claim at the head of Washington river, which he believes can be developed into a good piece of property. The ore is low-grade quartz.

FORTUNE TELLERS NEGLECT LICENSES

Deputy City Auditor Joe Hutchinson, who is connected with the city tax collector's office, is preparing to make war on the army of clairvoyants, fortune tellers, palmists and mediums and others of their class who are doing business in this city, but who are not manifesting any inclination to take out the necessary licenses.

As soon as he has collected a complete list of those doing business he says he is going to arm himself with warrants and wait upon these people. If they manifest any inclination to resist paying the license of $15 a quarter they will be arrested and taken before the police judge.

There are about 25 still uncollected licenses which come under this class.
