

THE OREGON DAILY JOURNAL

Published every evening (except Sunday) and every Sunday morning at The Journal Building, Fifth and Yamhill streets, Portland, Oregon.

OPENING THE DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN.

THE Democratic national campaign in Oregon was opened last evening in first-class style. The speaker of the evening was Franklin K. Lane, for whom the people of Portland have a great fondness...

DISAPPEARANCE OF GREAT SALT LAKE.

DISAPPEARANCE OF THE waters of the Great Salt Lake has recently caused noticeable comment, though it has long been the belief of scientists who have considered the matter that this lake would eventually disappear from the map...

POLES RIFE FOR REBELLION.

John Vandercook, in Chicago Journal. When I was in Warsaw recently I had a three-hour talk with one of the most intelligent Poles in that city. With the utmost frankness he discussed the shortcomings of the Russian government...

For this his paper was suppressed. Since then the government censors themselves have written nearly all the political articles and those on international subjects, and ordered them to be printed as the newspaper's own expressions of opinion...

THE CALL OF THE COUNTRY WIND.

Over the scorching roofs of tin, Down through the blistered street, The country wind sweeps gently in, To this throbbing desert of heat...

AN AROUSED PUBLIC CONSCIENCE.

IT IS NOT so very long ago that a representative of those who were working for better government in this city, was told by the organ of the "ring" in this city to "shut up," and was advised in language more strenuous than polite...

WORK OF THE DEVELOPMENT LEAGUE.

THE Development association, hundreds strong, will meet in Portland next week. What for? To devise ways and means for building up or developing Oregon, as the expressions are. How? By getting more people, the right kind of people...

Small-Change

Cortelyou is still looking for Fairbanks. Parker is surely Jeffersonian; he is red-headed. After all, some men old in years are quite young yet.

Neither Astoria, Baker City nor Salem claims to be the biggest town in the state yet. Holy rollers find it suitable apotheosis in Murderer Norman Williams. It is feared that as an exposé T. W. Lawson will not quite size up to Ida Tarbell.

It is a good thing for a city, county, state or nation to have officials who keep their promises and do their duty. Can a belligerent nation decide and declare what is contraband, and all the rest of the world have nothing to say?

THE FAST YOUTH'S SUGGESTION.

The story about how Charles Schwab, the ex-president of the steel trust, took $2,000,000 in cash out of his own pocket and handed it to friends of his who had been bitten by the bug in the affairs of the United Shipbuilding company...

July 30th.—We went early in the morning 1 1/2 miles, and camped on the south side of the river. The land here consists of a plain above the high water level, the soil of which is fertile and covered with a grass from five to eight feet high...

NEW SAYINGS OF JESUS

By Rev. Charles A. Eaton of Euclid Avenue Baptist Church, Cleveland, Ohio. A recent writer, quoting the words of John Stuart Mill, that the world cannot be too often reminded that there once lived a man named Socrates...

Oregon Sidelights

Amity is to have a bank. Long Creek has a Bible school. Gypsies are numerous in Coburg. The peach crop will be large in Washington county. Borax deposits have been found in Harney county.

The town or locality of Oregon not represented at the Development League meeting next week will be behind the times. Hundreds of the best people of Oregon are coming to Portland next week to attend the meeting of the Development association.

THE PHILIPPINE PROBLEM

From Harper's Weekly. It is not difficult for the present secretary of war to show that, at the time when our treaty of peace with Spain was negotiated, there was really nothing for us to do but to take over the sovereignty of the Philippines.

Advice to the Lovelorn

Dear Miss Fairfax: While on a visit I chanced to make the acquaintance of a young girl who in a spirit of fun placed my ring upon her finger...
