

PORTLAND, OREGON, SUNDAY MORNING, JULY 31, 1904.

GRAND ALTERATION AND EXPANSION SALE

AND BIG AUGUST FAIR

A Stupendous Mighty Clearance Sale Opens Here Tomorrow!

Everything in This Establishment Still More Strongly Reduced—Contract Goods alone excepted

The Great Dislodgment Sales Outdone! Their Values Surpassed! Their Bargains Outnumbered!

The edict has gone forth—alterations start at once. Departments are to be dismantled without delay, and removals are at hand. Come or send, select personally or order any merchandise you or your family may want, for present use or future needs. 'Twill pay you to look ahead now. A full two months or more for wear of seasonable summer stuffs, and years for use of staples, that are included in this sweeping surburst of bargains! Believe us when we positively assert THAT THE VERY CLIMAX OF BARGAIN-GIVING IS REACHED! NEVER before—not the past month, not in the past year—NO! NEVER!—has such a fulgent VALUE FEST been offered to the people as will be during the next ensuing 27 business days at this big, RELIABLE STORE. We're driven to the sacrifice of hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of splendid down to date merchandise of the wanted now sort. Radical alterations are at hand—the new Annex is near completion—stocks must be moved out. Mail or telephone orders filled at the absurdly low prices quoted. Orders now are to rid the counters, floors and shelves of the goods—and HERE GOES!

"Hourly Sales" and All-Week "Big Fair" Clearance Sales Start the Bargain Ball a Rolling Tomorrow!

HUMANITARIANISM AND MODERN BUSINESS ETHICS APPRECIATED

We take great pleasure in acknowledging the receipt of the following letter from the Retail Clerks' union, a representative body of salespeople of whom Portland may well feel proud. The local body, comprising the Retail Clerks' union No. 294, is made up of extremely bright, level-headed, conservative young business men and women, who never "slip over" or run amuck with extremist ideas. They are made of the stuff that builds cities and builds them well—cities founded on reasons with energy as a corner stone. We deeply appreciate the following and shall ever endeavor as a firm to make smooth the path over which employe and employer must walk together—hand-in-hand—to the goal of success.

Olds, Wortman & King

Portland, Oregon, July 22, 1904.

At a regular meeting of Retail Clerks' union No. 294, held on the evening of July 19, 1904, the following resolution was unanimously adopted by rising vote:

Whereas, The firm of Olds, Wortman & King, having voluntarily announced their intention to close their place of business at 1 o'clock on Saturday, during the month of August; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the sincere thanks of this union be extended to them, for their liberal treatment of their employe, and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the minutes of the union, and a copy sent to the firm of Olds, Wortman & King.

J. E. WENNER, Recording Secretary. F. D. MOORE, President.

4 Hours of Rara Avis Hammock Bargains

Better select that Hammock now. If you've denied yourself the solace of a lazy lay-off in a big swinging hammock, swung in the cool shade of a spreading tree, or a sequestered nook on the porch, during the hot days of July, you'd better part company with $2.65 tomorrow and become the owner of a $3.50 Hammock. Sweating August days are ahead—Hammocks are comfort breeders—better buy an incubator tomorrow—don't you think?

SHIRT WAIST NEWS UNEXPECTED AND STARTLING! 1500 DAINTY SUMMER

Shirt Waists

VALUES TO $4.50—AT A CHOICE FOR 2 HOURS ONLY—9 to 11 A. M. MONDAY, for 69c

Second Floor—Salons of Dress.

A PRICE THAT DOES NOT REPAY THE LABOR OF MAKING.

You remember the sensational sale of handsome Shirt Waists last Monday? Well, this will not only surpass it in magnitude of values, scope of limitless variety and matchless, dainty beauty of the waists included, but also in the preparations made for the enormous throngs sure to be here tomorrow for the waists. The immense lot of marvelous values is the very last of a prominent manufacturer's stock, which he held longer than he should, hoping to get somewhere near the cost out of them, anyway. As it was our buyer, now in New York, dropped in on him at a moment when he was desperate, made an offer for the lot, and the waists are here at less than cost of even the making. Did you ever hear of such marvelous bargains? You'll say "No!" when you see the beauties here on Monday. Daintily pretty in their freshness and beauty. In the lot are

$4.50 Waists for 69c

The waists are of lawns, dimities, fancy madras, chevilles and percales in whites and dainty colors. The trimming effects include all the latest in lace and embroidery, tucks, plaits and novelty button effects. Every waist is new and very latest and swellest Summer Shirt Waists known to fashionland. The values included are $1.00, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00, $2.50, $2.75, $3.00, $3.50 and a few at $4.00 and $4.50; all in one grand lot for the greatest sale ever known in Portland, at a choice for two hours only, at.....69c
