TOWN TOPICS

TODAY'S ANUSEMENTS.

The Chamber of Commerce Bulletin, which recently passed into the management of David N. Mosessohn, has appeared in its August number, one of the neatest and most interesting publications of its kind ever published in the city. It contains a leading editorial on the Oregon Development league that is worthy of perusal by every one who is interested in the future of the state. Among the special articles are one on "The Mercantile Marine," by J. Ernest Laidlaw, and the "Oregon Ranges," by C. J. Millis. Both are instructive and interesting. Typographically the publication is perfect, and it is well illustrated.

Mt. Tabor camp No. 316, W. O. W., will give an entertainment at the half of Multnorpah camp. East Alder and East Sixth streets, next Saturday evening for the benefit of C. E. Lillpot, who is lying ill at Portland Sanatorium. The nick man came here from Sedro-Wooley, Wash. He is almost completely paralyzed and can barely move his head, having been at the sanatorium for 10 months. He has a wife and four children. County Clerk Frank S. Fields, a member of Mt. Tabor camp, is on the committee of arrangements.

SEASON OPENS AT GOVERNMENT CAMP AND PIRST PARTY TO MAKE THE TRIP REPORTS A CLEAR PATH TO THE HIGHEST

It is pleasant news for lovers of mountain climbing to know that the season at Government camp, Mount Hood, is open. The first ascent of this year from the south side of this snow-capped peak was made Friday, July 22, under the guidance of O. C. Yocum, who has conducted over 1,000 persons to the summit without an accident.

The party to make this first ascent camped at timber line the previous night and set out at 4 a. m., reaching Crater Rock at 8:45 a'clock. Here four members of the party who had already grown weary of the journey remained, satisfied with the magnificent view to the south which this point affords. Seven others with Mr. Yocum and his assistant, J. F. Kamph, reached the top by a long detour to the west to the head of the great crevasse across the arrete. To the register kept beneath the cairn of rocks the following names were inscribed: Mrs. J. P. Morgan, Miss Esther Gill, Miss C. R. Trowbridge, Prof. S. N. Downs, Chester Downs, A. Wisborg and Ralph Gill.

Owing to the fact that a piercing cold wind was blowing, the splendid panerama extending in every direction did not delay the climbers long on the summit. Except for the clouds which hung over the Willamette valley, the prospect was unobscured. By 6 o'clock the last straggler had reached Government camp again.

camp again.

Those who made the climb say that the ascent does not require much more than average vigor and endurance, and can be made at a moderate cost.

OPIUM SMOKING IS COSTLY HABIT

Two Chinese, Ah Chiek and Wong Kay, were found guilty of frequenting opium dens by a jury in Justice Seton's court yesterday afternoon and were fined $50 each, with the alternative of servins 25 days in the county jail. They had no money and will go on the rockpile tomorrow morning.

Another Chinese, Lai Tay, was surrendered into custody by his bondsmen and pleaded guilty. Only one case remains to be disposed of on account of the raids made by Sheriff Word and deputies. It awaits the arrival of Attorney Charles F, Lord, representing the defendant.

The Ashland Chautauqua was also very successful. No better places for these assemblies could have been selected than Gladstone and Ashland. Milton might be a good point for an Inland Empire assembly.

POOL ROOM WILL TEST ORDINANCE

CHIEF HUNT HAVE CONTRARY VIEWS-NEW ORDINANCE IS RIGID AND WILL IF ENFORCED STOP ALL BACE BETTING.

A battle royal will probably begin errow between the city of Portland on the one side and the Warwick club. owned by Colonel Applegate, on the war for Portland and J. N. Fleshner the club. The pool room, situated at 131 Fourth street, started yesterday and last night Manager Fleshner de-clared his intention to test the city ordinance prohibiting his business. Chief Hunt stated he will lodge complaints against the club tomorrow.

A surprise will be sprung that will create a decided sensation in Portland when the case comes to trial, for there is a very brief, but positively startling section in Ordinance 44,049, recently passed by the city council and now in effect, that covers every possible feature of the pool room business and empowers the court to fine any one who violates it as much as $500 and to send him to jali not to exceed 90 days. him to jall not to exceed 90 days.

White was shot by his wife who accused him of persistent attentions to Jennie Hamilton. She pursued him through saloons of the north end and early in the evening was beaten by him. She overtook him in front of the residence of her sister, Mrs. Eli Davis, 328 Pine street.

There were a few heated words, and the man brushing the woman aside, started down the street. She sprang forward and seizing him by the arm fired into his back with a revolver which she drew from her breast. He was removed to Mrs. Davis' residence, then to St. Vincent's hospital, where he is now confined.
