

DETAIL ACCOUNT OF MITCHELL LOSS

Prominent Citizen of the Flood-Swept Town Gives Exactly the Damage Done—Does Not Believe Aid Was Needed.

Grateful for the cash relief fund sent them from the city, several well known residents of Mitchell, Or., have written to R. L. Sabin and I. N. Fleischer...

Knowing him to be a cool-headed and successful business man, the members of the committee at once got into telephone communication with H. A. Waterman of Mitchell and learned from him the sum needed.

"I feel that under the circumstances I can do no less than give you frankly my views in the flood matter. I wish to say, however, that I am expressing personal views on the matter and to have it fully understood that while I have the satisfaction of feeling that I have the approval of most of our best citizens, most of the sufferers from disaster, still I have been very severely criticised by others.

"I have taken the position that we had no need for outside assistance beyond the relief of a few cases of destitution among those who had their all swept away by the flood, and the relief of which would require comparatively a small amount of funds. I took this position after going personally over the ground above and below the town for some little distance, inquiring into existing conditions and giving the whole matter careful consideration.

"In regard to the removal of the debris of the flood: The creek on which we are situated has a very rapid fall, the canyon through which it flows is generally narrow, and the swiftness and force of the waters carried most of this far below us.

"Mrs. S. A. Ross—Dwelling and contents wiped out. "Mrs. M. E. Bethune—Drowned in flood. Her former home with its contents was destroyed.

"A. F. McNary—Damage to ranch and meadows. Mr. McNary stated that he considered his losses light. "Arthur Wineberger—Granary and household provisions swept away, barn and house removed from foundations, practically destroyed, fences gone, meadows seriously damaged, some loss of hay.

ANOTHER ADDED TO LIST OF MISSING

A. B. Wylie, aged 23 years, representing a Toledo, Co. firm, has been missing from the Hotel Portland since July 10. Thorough search of the city by Detectives Day and Weiner has failed to throw any light on the strange case, and it is feared the young man has met with foul play.

PROTEST AGAINST "BOOKIES" SCHEME

MULTIMONAR FAIR ASSOCIATION DEMANDS THAT SYNDICATE BOOKING IS TO BE USED AT COMING RACES AND LOUD COMPLAINT IS MADE.

Keen indignation prevails among the stockholders of the Multimonal County Fair association over what is looked on as a reliable report to the effect that the management has entered into a contract to permit the syndicate booking system to be employed at Irvington during the coming meet.

"If a syndicate booking system is agreed on or even contemplated," said E. H. Adams, secretary of the association, "the only person likely to know about it is A. R. Diamond, the president. I have heard nothing of such a plan, and am satisfied it is not true. Some bungler has been getting in his work, it appears to me."

WILL BE INTERESTING RACE. A race that will attract considerable attention among the horsemen in this city was planned last evening between B. T. Scott of Portland and Sidney Liebes of San Francisco.

TRIBUTE FOR GLORY OF CAUSE ANOTHER RAID IN CHINATOWN

SHERIFF WORD ARRESTS IN MATHE OF OPIUM DEN THEN BOUNDS UP CHINESE GAMBLER—COURT JAIL HAS MANY NEW OCCUPANTS.

He is treasurer of the local army and as loyal a soldier as ever wore the red and blue or told the story of his faith to a doubting, sinful crowd.

She is sergeant-major of the local force and for a long time has tramped bravely behind the banner that waves in every city on the globe.

God of War Fields. But the martial glamor of the god of war has grown quite dim, and in its stead has come the captivating wiles of the little god of love.

Twelve little girls will march at the head of a procession immediately after the coronation processions through some of the principal streets of the city.

It is a peculiar vow which each will take when they reach the altar. And after it is over no rice will be thrown upon the wedded pair—no anything, in fact, is to be done.

PARKER IS OPPOSED TO MORMONISM

(Continued from Page One.) carry Idaho will be also sure; good chance in Colorado and Wyoming, because of mining disturbances and in Washington because former Senator Turner will be the nominee for governor, and further because the same local conditions that have kept the Republican belief that this union will enable us to better please and serve God, and more earnestly and successfully to fight and work in the Salvation Army."

Both Vanerkeken and a promised bride are well known in army circles in this city. She is 23 and he is two years her senior. When scarcely more than an infant she was thrown upon the world and sought shelter from its cruel stings behind the great red banner.

"Now the people have determined upon action. Unable to find relief or even securing listening ears on the Republican side, the taxpayers almost as a whole have turned to the Democrats."

Mr. Dubois says he finds the country as a whole ready to give the Democracy its hearty support. He has no fear of the voters of next November.

Taggart at Esopus. (Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal.) Esopus, N. Y., July 30.—Thomas Taggart, national chairman, made a visit to Esopus last night, reaching Judge Parker's home at 9:25 and leaving soon after for his western home.

When Mr. Taggart got off the train at Esopus he was met by reporters, to whom he was quite freely. There seemed to be no reason to doubt this when he got into the carriage that was to take him to Rosemont.

On returning to Esopus station and after Judge Parker had left him, he would not be drawn into any sort of conversation about the executive committee or its prospective officers, other than to say he had not yet decided upon the members who will constitute that body.

He came in response to a telegram from Judge Parker today, because Judge Parker wanted to have another talk with his manager before he got out of the state.

On returning to Esopus station and after Judge Parker had left him, he would not be drawn into any sort of conversation about the executive committee or its prospective officers, other than to say he had not yet decided upon the members who will constitute that body.

He may also be said that Judge Parker at three or four speeches from now until election time and these will be delivered from his porch at Rosemont.

BISHOP & CO. WILL QUIT PORTLAND

Bishop & Co., of Portland, Or., and Los Angeles, Cal., the largest manufacturer of food products in the United States, has decided to consolidate its Pacific coast houses into one concern at Los Angeles.

The closing of the Portland house does not mean that we are retiring from the Oregon trade," says the manager. "Our business will be continued here by traveling men who will cover the territory."

POLITICIANS PAY THE EATON SHORTAGE (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Seattle, July 30.—The Eaton shortage of $1,985 was made good yesterday by Potter Charles Sullivan, manager of the Piles senatorial campaign and who has been selected as dictator of county politics through to election. He acted ostensibly as Eaton's attorney, but was not allowed to carry the bag of cash from the Republican committee's headquarters or to receive the receipt.

Mr. French will superintend the construction. Eaton, who had a contract with the county commissioners by which he was to get half of all estates after receiving $2,000 warrants as his share of the real property, and declared he would never return it. The newspapers exposed the entire scheme and the Republican politicians declined to make good for self-protection, as the entire state ticket was endangered.

FIORI AGAINST COON STILL BEING WAGED (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Seattle, Wash., July 30.—Chairman E. B. Palmer of the Republican state central committee, has wired B. S. Silver of Bellingham that he will have the general support of the Republican organization if he is elected by the Democrats next week for lieutenant-governor.

ROBERT BEGINS TRAINING. (Journal Special Service.) New York, July 29.—James J. Corbett has already begun light work in preparation for his proposed six-round battle with Jack O'Brien. The former heavyweight champion has ideal training quarters at his summer home at Bayville, where he has fitted up all necessary appliances for a well equipped gymnasium. With a water tank on Little Neck bay, which enables him to take a cold plunge after his long journey over the roads, Corbett anticipates no trouble in getting in tip top shape.
