

"I KNOW NO SIN" APOSTLE CREEFIELD

"Joshua" of the Holy Rollers Says He Is Entirely Purified—Is Bound Over to the Grand Jury Without Trial.

"I am now Joshua, high priest, and at some future time will become Elijah, the restorer," said Edmund Creefield this morning...

Creefield walked with a firm step this morning and stood erect without assistance before Judge Hogue. When he was asked if he realized the serious nature of the charge facing him...

"I know no sin," Creefield said before his arraignment. "That work I will accomplish as God directs. I cannot know what my lot will be, but whatever comes to me, that will I construe as God's will."

fall me; I know now that I was crucified there and my spirit, body and mind were purified, and I know no sin. I was there prepared for my future work, which I know is to restore Israel to Jerusalem.

"That will I say if sent to the penitentiary for life. Why, that God wills it so, of course. I shall wait patiently his commands, and do whatsoever he says. I am ready to lay down my life for Him. Regarding the charges people make, I say they are false. I have been pure in all my teachings. The reason my followers are insane, as people say, is because they are being sanctified for Jesus' sake. But they are not crazy—they are bound up in the spirit of God for a purpose. People who are in darkness cannot comprehend the things of the light of the spirit; that is impossible."

During the proceedings this morning, E. E. Starr, with his wife, sat and listened to all that was said. Mr. Starr says his wife still believes some portions of the Holy Roller teachings, but that she is now living with him and is not a fanatic. He says it would be all Creefield's life is worth to again go to Corvallis.

BEATRICE WOMACH DANA INVOLVED

DAUGHTER OF "MOTHER WOODS," ALASKAN STAMPEDEER, ADDS ANOTHER CHAPTER TO NOTORIOUS WHICH HAS ATTACHED ITSELF TO HER FATAL BEAUTY.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) New York, Aug. 4.—A shooting mystery which since Saturday morning has baffled the police of this city is at last near the point of disclosure. The identity of a man who was found lying in Central park with a gaping wound in his breast has been established as E. L. Dana, a well to do bank clerk of this city.

The shooting took place on the ramble near East Seventy-sixth street. When he was picked up he was unconscious. Later in the hospital he said: "If I die, it was better to die than to live, why, then, I will make everything clear."

Later, in a note to his wife, Mrs. Beatrice Womach Dignan-Dana, he told her that he had been shot. Since then all efforts of the police to induce the young woman to tell what she knows of the crime have been absolutely void of results.
