

WARDEN'S WARNING SAVES MANY LIVES

Gives Timely Notice to Campers on Clackamas—Flames Are Confined So Far to the Dead Timber

Loss of many lives has probably been prevented by Warden Thomas, fire warden, who has succeeded in driving out the campers in the Clackamas valley where a forest fire had been raging since Wednesday night. The fire started in the dead timber about five miles south-east of Firwood. It is estimated that several hundred campers are in the woods in Clackamas county, and since the narrow escape of Frank Schlegel, a Portland attorney, who arrived here yesterday, much concern has been felt for the fate of the campers and others who live in cabins in the woods. The campers go in with their outfits by riding on stages that run semi-occasionally through that section, and they have no way of getting out unless the warden comes after them. The fire warden has been busy since the fire first started early this week, and it is thought he has warned every one in the woods. A large body of the campers are now bivouacked on Cedar creek, at a safe distance from the flames. Francis McCabe, whose cabin is the nearest to the fire, came out today. He reports that there are about 150 acres of dead timber burning, and that the fire this morning seems to be increasing in ferocity. It has not yet spread to the green timber.

Forest Camps Burned

A forest fire destroyed the buildings in McKinnon's logging camp, near Rainier, yesterday and reports from there received this morning state that the fire is still burning in the timber back of the Rice place below Rainier. At one time yesterday afternoon the fire was believed to be under control, but the wind changed and the blaze still continued down the river. A very considerable timber has been burned over that is suitable for piling and poles. A back fire was made at the rear of the cottages on the hill above Rice's door factory yesterday to prevent any possible danger of the buildings catching on fire. The Plue door factory is situated near Rainier.

Mr. Rosendale's Story

According to Otto M. Rosendale, the well known mining engineer of this city, the forest fire now raging in Montana will finally prove the most disastrous in the state's history and if all the settlers and prospectors escape death he will consider their deliverance almost miraculous.

SAYS GAMBLING ATE UP ALIMONY

James Halton was before President Judge George in the circuit court today charged with contempt for failure to obey an order directing him to pay an attorney's fee into court in the suit for divorce instituted by Agnes Halton. "I blew $400 in gambling," he said when Attorney C. M. Idelman asked him what he had done with his money. "You must have had a load on," commented Idelman. "Well, I have a right to, haven't I?" indignantly asked Halton, who is old and gray-haired. "You have got drunk and blown money in, too, haven't you?" "No, I haven't," snapped the lawyer.

IS PARDONED BUT WON'T LEAVE JAIL

When J. S. McClellens was informed by Under-Sheriff Morden that he had been pardoned by Governor Chamberlain and might have his liberty at any time, he was engaged with another prisoner at the county jail in placing a new floor in the reception room to be used by County Judge Webster in examining persons charged with insanity. "Well, I have a right to, haven't I?" indignantly asked McClellens, "there is a decent governor for you, all right. But if you don't mind, I would like to stay and make sure this floor is all right. Judge Webster is a good fellow, and I would like to see that the floor is put in the right way."

WORKMEN WITHDRAW DEPOSITS FROM DROVERS' BANK BECAUSE UNIONISTS ARE PAID THREE—DONNELLY TRYING TO PREVENT DELIVERY OF MEAT.

Chicago, Aug. 5.—The return of President Donnelly about definite plans to stop the delivery of meat from a number of cold storage warehouses. Discussing his trip to the western packing centers, Donnelly says that the enthusiasm of the strikers is everywhere unbounded and that the western towns are completely tied up as in Chicago. Practically no work is being done, he says, and the meat trust is surely being undermined by the independents.

A run was started on the Drovers' bank in the stock yards this morning by the strikers, who withdrew their deposits because of the alleged use of the institution by the packers to pay strikebreakers in cash instead of time checks. On the other hand, the packers rest serene, claiming that the strike is about broken and in a week all the men will be back for their old places.

MEAT RETURN TO WORK.

Commission Men Believe Backbone of the Strike is Broken.

St. Joseph, Mo., Aug. 5.—More than 400 union men, according to the packers, returned to work this morning. The situation remains quiet. Commission men, however, believe that the backbone of the strike is broken. It is said that the packers state they have enough men to carry on their business, and predictions are made that when the trouble ends there will be many strikers that will be unable to secure their old places.

OMAHA SITUATION QUIET.

Strikers Express Hopes That Struggle Will Soon End.

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 5.—The strikers are beginning to express the hope that the struggle will soon end and are watching Chicago for news of a settlement. The situation remains quiet. Although evidently anxious that an adjustment of difficulties should be made, there are many strikers who express themselves as determined to fight to the bitter end. The packers regard the outlook as favorable for an early break in the ranks of the strikers.

From the Baltimore American. Floorwalker—Mrs. Pricem tells me you grossly insulted her a moment ago. How did it happen? Salsaidy—Why, she was standing here fingering one thing after another, and having me pull down 40 other things off the shelves, while a man stood in the background and looked at his watch every two seconds. I knew that he was in a hurry, and that Mrs. Pricem wasn't. So I said: "Madam, you please excuse me for a moment; I see a gentleman here who wants to buy something." And Mrs. Pricem got huffy and went out.

ELEVEN COUNTIES FILE REPORTS

MANY STATEMENTS SHOW MARKED DECREASE IN THE NUMBER OF PERSONS BETWEEN AGES OF 4 AND 20 AS COMPARED WITH PREVIOUS YEAR.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Salem, Or., Aug. 5.—The county school superintendents of eleven more counties have been heard from and the reports are being filed with the Superintendent of Public Instruction J. H. Ackerman. The reports were mostly from the far away counties, and show a great contrast with those previously heard from in that many of them show a decrease in the number of persons in the county between the ages of four and 20 years, as compared with the reports of last year, and the decrease in the amount of money expended is correspondingly large, while in many of the counties the number of teachers employed is considerably less than last year. Several counties are still to be heard from. Clatsop county—The number of persons of school age is now 4,414, an increase of 4,267 last year. Curry county—A large decrease is shown in the children of school age, the number having been last year 785, while this year only 730 are present. Thirty teachers were employed, whereas only 22 fol lowed this occupation last year. The amount of money disbursed was $5,070.29, leaving $955.30 on hand. Teachers are paid average salaries of $45 and $40 respectively. Lincoln county—Superintendent George Sathers reports 1,167 people of school age in Lincoln county, an increase of 47 for the year. The average salaries paid teachers was only $32.24 for males and $28.95 for females, a small decrease over last year. Sherman county—The report of Supt. W. H. Hagadone shows the number of persons of school age to be 1,370, an increase of 27 since last report. Fifty-six teachers are employed, while last year the number was only 45. # FLEET OF SHIPS LOADS LUMBER

AUGUST PROMISES TO BE RECORD MONTH FOR LUMBER SHIPMENTS AS 15 VESSELS WILL TAKE OUT ABOUT 14,000,000 FEET FROM LOCAL MILLS.

So far as lumber shipments are concerned August promises to be the banner month in the history of the port. Two large steamers, the Pisces and the Tottenham have just cleared for the orient with cargoes aggregating 6,000,000 feet of lumber. In addition to these, there is an unusually large fleet of schooners in port under charter and all of them will be ready to receive before the expiration of the month. Those now loading will take out enough lumber to swell the amount of the exports in this line for the month up to more than 14,000,000 feet, and other vessels are coming. The following is a list of the schooners and barkentines now loading, and the amount of cargoes which they will carry:

Mabel Gale	500,000
Lahaina	1,200,000
Inca	1,300,000
Bangor	400,000
Olga	500,000
Allee McDonald	450,000
Commerce	800,000
Virginia	750,000
James Johnson	1,200,000
Churchill	800,000
Total	9,920,000

The Churchill is at Astoria, but is expected to arrive at Portland in a day or two to load lumber. The carrying capacity with which each is accredited is based upon the cargoes which they have previously taken out. Of the fleet, six of the vessels are loading at the mills above the bridges. The Mabel Gale, the Lahaina and the Inca are at the Inman-Poulsen mill, while the Bangor, the Olga and the Allee McDonald are at the Portland. The Commerce is at the Eastern & Western mill, and the Virginia will be fitted out at the North Pacific. As soon as she discharges her cargo of sulphur the James Johnson will begin loading at the Inman-Poulsen mill, and the Churchill will receive her shipment at the same place. In addition to this large fleet there are three drouthers taking on lumber cargoes at Tongue's point, down the Columbia. They are the Eola, the Jennie Stella and the Sequoia, which will take out in the neighborhood of 3,000,000 feet more.

PANCAKES DIDN'T SUIT; DRINKS ACID

Denver, Colo., Aug. 5.—Because her husband criticized the pancakes she had prepared for his breakfast, Hattie Steffen, a bride of three weeks, committed suicide this morning. Since their marriage their honeymoon had apparently been one of uninterrupted bliss. At the breakfast table this morning the young husband, with the evident intention of teasing his wife, made a joking remark about the "Pancakes mother used to make" which seemed to annoy her. She burst into tears and left the dining room going to their sleeping apartment, where she drank carbolic acid, and when her husband appeared a few moments later she was beyond medical aid. The husband is prostrated over the occurrence and threatens to end his own life.

DEMOCRATS PLAN COUNTY CAMPAIGN

MULTNOMAH COUNTY BEGINS ITS REGULAR SERIES OF MEETINGS WITH ENTERTAINMENT WAS HELD AT ITS MEMBERSHIP IN A MONTH.

With a membership of nearly 200, and with every member pledged to the hearty support of the party's presidential ticket, the Multnomah Democratic club is preparing to make itself a stirring factor in the campaign in this county. At the meeting of the club held last evening in Foresters' hall, the enthusiasm of those present was unrestrained and the frequent mention of the Democratic nominee for president was always the signal for vociferous applause. The meeting was noteworthy for the disposition to forget the factional differences which have divided Democrats of this county in the past, and for the earnest purpose to bring out the full party vote in November, despite the heavy Republican majority which Oregon usually polls. Numerous addresses were made and there were many confident predictions of victory in November. Among those who spoke were District Attorney John Manning, H. W. Parker, Pat Powers, Alex Sweek and others. During the remainder of the campaign the club will hold meetings on the first and third Thursdays of every month at 8 o'clock p. m. in Foresters' hall, in the Hibernian building, at Sixth and Washington streets. Since its organization a little more than a month ago the membership of the club has trebled.
