

THE OREGON DAILY JOURNAL AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER PUBLISHED BY JOURNAL PUBLISHING CO. JNO. F. CARROLL

Small Change Goods is good enough. After talk comes work. It's a good time to put up blackberries.

Oregon Sidelights Brick clay has been found near Bend. The new Long Creek Sunday school is prospering.

WILL PRIVATE OR PUBLIC INTERESTS CONTROL?

THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT owns sixty-nine-seventieths of the stock of the Panama Railway company. Owning this amount of stock it has three directors out of a board of 13.

usually borne out what was originally given forth under authority. It is very different in the matter of the Russian war news. The generals who make up these reports, if indeed they do make them up, are experts in concealing facts.

SEEKING HOMES IN PORTLAND.

ONE of the significant signs of Portland's pre-eminence in this region, and at the same time an evidence of its solid growth, is the steady and increasing drift into this city of wealthy or well-to-do men from all over the Pacific northwest.

BETTER THE SAW THAN FIRE.

GAIN the forest fires. In spite of laws, and warnings, and official supervision and watchfulness, they will break out, especially after such a long period of dry weather, and there is no way, nor ever will be any way, to prevent them, except to put a barb wire fence all about them and then station guards every few rods along that, or else cut the forests down.

WAR REPORTS.

THE REPORTS of the British officers from South Africa were characterized by brutal frankness. They made no attempt to excuse or palliate, but gave the facts as they saw them in all their rawness.

WHAT LOCAL OPTIONISTS PROPOSE.

They will not try to force the Law Against Public Opinion. Dr. G. L. Tufts in La Grande observed, "The sentiment in Baker City was that we would not go to the country people who are in the majority."

SWINGING ON THE GATE.

I can see a picture painted. I can smell the drying hay. Where the busy mowers rattle through the hay summer's day; I can see the hungry plowboy wading through the mud of the winter's day.

THE TIBETAN EXPEDITION.

August 5.—We set out early and by means of our oars made 20 1/2 miles, though the river was crowded with sand bars. On both sides the prairies extend along the river, the banks being covered with great quantities of grapes.

A YOUNG WOMAN'S LOGIC.

The Criticized Judge Parker's Position In a Caustic Letter. Rochester (N. Y.) Special to Chicago Tribune.

THE REPROBATE CARTOON.

From the Pendleton East Oregonian. Pictures are more potent than words. The cartoon has almost supplanted the editorial on the great metropolitan dailies.

THE TIBETAN EXPEDITION.

Eliza R. Scidmore in Chicago Tribune. If one cannot go to Tibet he can arrive at an idea of what a Tibetan temple service is like by attending one of the daily services at the lama temple in Seattle.
