WO EXCITING RACES AT IRVINGTON-BROWNS WIN FROM ANGELS-BOXING-RACING

J. A. HORAN

LOO LOOS PRESENT BROWNS WITH GAME

AFTER MAVING THE GAME APPAR-ENTLY CINCHED, THE ANGELS GET SINFUL AND, THEOUGH HIT-TING AND MISPLAYS, THE PORT-LANDERS WIN OUT.

and Spics.

From the manner in which those Brownies started off yesterday, not a half dozen of the five or six hundred fans present thought they would have a ook in at the game. They gave one of the worst fielding exhibitions in that twful first inning that has fallen to the lot of the unfortunate but extremely loyal local fans to witness in many a day. Bernard, the speedy centerfielder, who distinguished himself later in the day by making a phenomenal catch, led off by working Ira Hastings for a pass, which was followed by a succession of bunts, which, with the exception on Beck's part, were handled in the strangest fashion. Hurley and Castro were the principal offenders, and their bungles were responsible for the Seraphs ringing up four tallias without the assistance of a single hit. Again in the third inning another tally was donated unfortunate but extremely third inning another taily was donated to the visitors when, on Castro's fumble, Chase's hit, and Steelman's muff of Drennen's throw, allowed Cravath to

Up to the sixth inning both pitchers had been stingy in allowing hits, only two being secured on each side. In the sixth the Brownies connected with Mr. Charles Baum and aided by some bad fielding on the part of the Loo Loos, negotiated five runs. Spencer led off with a single to center and took second while Bernard was trying to pick up the ball. Hurley waited and received a pass. Drennen beat out a hit to Toman, and the sacks were loaded. Beck walloped a long fly, which was neatly caught by Ross, and Spencer scored with Hurley advanced to third and Drennen to second. Castro banged one toward right, which Ross, and Spencer scored with Hurley advanced to third and Drennen to second. Castro banged one toward right, which Chase knocked down and threw badly to the plate, Hurley and Drennen scoring and Castro taking second. Thielman, Nadeau and Steelman each singled, and Castro and Thielman registered. Nadeau was caught on an attempted steal, and Hastings went out at first. Total, five runs and a tie score.

Dolly Gray went on the hill in the seventh, and Harry Spencer picked out a nice one which he planted in right garden for one base. Hurley, sacrificed and Drennen singled to right, scoring Spencer. Beck hit to Flood, who threw wild to Toman, and Drennen took third. Beck and Drennen then cleverly executed a double steal, the latter scoring and Erve perching on second. Castro walked and Beck was caught on an attempt to steal third. Thielman drove out his third safe hit of the day and Castro scored. This ended the scoring for the day and Dugdale's bunch came away with a game that had apparently been lost.

MEN QUIT BUSINESS

(Journal Special Service.)
Seattle, Wash., Aug. 18.—Failure of the Multnomah Fair association of Portland to furnish the pool rooms of Georgetown with its racing results, it has caused the bookmakers to close up shop and come to this city. The only reason assigned for the action of the Portland racing men is that the Georgetown bookies were offering better price with a game that had apparently been lost.

Dugdale's absence from the grounds during the early part of the game gave rise to the rumor that he was taken suddenly ill. About the seventh inning, however, "Cupid" put in his appearance and settled his corpulency in the old seat.

The same teams line up this afterneon. Rusty Hall will pitch for the Angels and Ham Iberg will probably oppose him. The score follows:

AB.R. H. PO. A. E.

When President Diamond was asked regarding the refusal of the Multnomah Fair association to furnish racing news to the Georgetown poolrooms he said:

HORSES MAKE FINE

TULLETT'S ON EL PILOTO EXEL BITIONS OF DARING SKILL AND GENERALSKIP — ST. PHILIPPINA WAS A DISAPPOINTMENT.

Yesterday's racing at Irvington track was the finest exhibition of running ever seen in this city, and those who had the recall Kelly's perfect ride on Bummer, and Tullett's head victory on El Piloto, with considerable pleasure. Kelly rode Bummer in the fifth race, the other connders being Cerro Sants, Instructor, Gateway, Bud Wade and Blue Eyes. In-structor was the star favorite and car-ried a ton of money, opening at 3 to 5 structor was the star favorite and carried a ton of money, opening at 3 to 5 and closing at 1 to 2. The wise ones figured that Instructor couldn't fall to finish first, but they figured without Kelly. Bummer and Cerro Santa were 3-to-1 shot, and got fair backing. When the barrier was sprung Santa get off with a terrific rush in the lead, with Bud Wade on his heels, and Instructor third, Bummer taking up the rear. At the half Kelly moved his mount up to third position, but couldn't get out of the bunch, and as the horses swung into the stretch the crowd was aware that the stretch the crowd was aware that a beautiful finish was to be made. In the stretch instructor got out in front. Star won in 2:09%.

the stretch Instructor got out in front, but only for a second, as Cerro Santa disadvantage, however and, nearing the wire, edged closer to the rail, and here is where Kelly showed his generalship. Bummer was a head behind Santa and everybody thought that Kelly was out of it, but in front of the judge's stand Kelly loosened the reins and Bummer's head shot out like a flash and made him a winer by a nose, while but a nose a winner by a nose, while but a nose separated Cerro Sahta from Instructor. The finish was ideal and moved the crowd to terrific applause. Kelly came in for a rousing ovation as he rode back to the stand. His ride was the back to the stand. His ride was the prettiest ever witnessed at Irvington track, and that is saying a great deal. In the Multnomah handicap, seven furlongs, there was another pretty race, although many are still under the impression that Nonie is a better horse than El Piloto. Only four horses started—Misty's Fride. Lady Kent, Nonie and El Piloto. Nonie was the choice of the talent and was heavily laden with coin of the reaim, and got away second in a fairly good start. El Piloto got away in the lead, but dropped back to third at the quarter and maintained third position until the end of the stretch, when Tullett urged him along at a great clip. The second secon

TRACEY FINISHED BY RUFE TURNER

(Journal Special Service.)
Seattle, Wash., Aug. 18.—Rufe Turner
Stockton.—Enlifornia. knocked out ownsy Tracey of Portland in the tenth ound of one of the fasted mills ever siled off in this city.
Both men nut up splendid exhibitions.

pulled off in this city.

Both men put up splendid exhibitions, and as Tracey had apparently wore himaelf out trying to get at his colored opponent's body, he would hardly have lasted many more rounds. The Portland man displayed the most cleverness in the earlier rounds and owing to the fastmess of both some of the spectators had despaired of such an exciting finish. Tracey opened the final round with a rush, and repeatedly rushed his opponent to the ropes and kept after him hammer and tongs. Tracey missed a swing for Turner's head, and while temporarily unbalanced. Turner was his opening and landed a terrific right to Tracey's jaw, and the Portland, men went down with a crash. Tracey realized that he was out of it and signaled his second. Martin Denny, to throw up the sponge, which was done. Tracey suffered a severe cut on the lip which bled profusely and bothered him some during the latter part of the fight.

In a rattling preliminary which went six rounds, Kid Krant of Seattle and Jack Sullivan of Portland fought to a draw.

The body had a most unusual appearance. It was as large as a coraman, or, are it is termed on the earth, a horse. Around the body there was a strange vibration or motion of air. This motion of the air seemed to be entirely beneath the bedy, and Prof. Swoggleman thinks that it could not have been a meteor, unless it was just beginning its journey and had not attained the general characteristics of an aerolite.

HASTINGS PITCHED A BRILLIANT GAME

While many were rejoicing over Portland's victory yesterday and talking about the variety of errors, a good many overlooked the fact that Portland's chance of success after that bad first inning depended upon Hastings' steadiness. There is little encouragement for a stranger, or anybody else, when he is pitching a superb game to have his pitching a superb game, to have his team mates present the opposing nine with five runs. Hastings' work yester-day deserves commendation. His ef-fectiveness was evident throughout, his fielding was perfect, and his two-bagger in the eighth was very pretty. In the rush of criticism and gossip of victory, such a worthy performer should not be forgotten.

DIAMOND GLISTENINGS

Ira, Hastings pitched a splendid game yesterday and would have blanked the Seraphs had he received good support. Erve Beck played a beautiful game at third, and was practically the only Portlander who did not go up in the air in that first inning.

The meet covered thirty-six hours in three skitings. Spokane players were: Mr. Post, L. Roy Slater, Frank H. Graves and John H. Briggs.

FORMER SEATTLE MAN AN ELOPER

(Journal Special Service.)

Davisville, Cal., Aug. 18.—A few days ago the wife of Andrew Tufts was a society leader in this town. Now she has gone as the companion of a clerk who was in her husband's store — a young man named Jack Wilson. She deserted three beautiful children, a fine home and loving husband.

Tufts keeps a large store, is wealthy and his wife was a leader in the town. A year ago a new face appeared in Davisville. The stranger was a young man of engaging manners, who gave a vague account of himself. He came from Seattle and introduced himself as Jack Wilson. A report now has it that Wilson had made something of a specialty along Lothario lines in Seattle and other places, and that to clude betrayed husbands he had on other occasions left town between two days. Tufts engaged the man as a clerk, the clerk won the heart of Tufts' wife and now they have gone away together. The deserted husband is now searching for his wife.
