Aug. 22.—The British government may have been deceived into granting a provisional pardon for Mrs. Maybrick. Such is the peculiar situa-tion as brought out by facts which have just come to light. It is even believed that her hast to come to America may be due to the knowledge that such de-ception was practiced, and fear that she mights be detained pending a further re-view of the case. In fither case she would be re-arrested and returned to prisoh. The answer of D. W. Armstrong to the

This action, it is said, Mrs. Maybrick's friends used as a means of persuading the British government to release her on a ticket of leave. Baroness Von Roques brought suit several years ago, allosing Armstrong had persuaded her to part for $10,000 with lands which he subse-quently sold for millions. Mrs. Maybrick was said to have an in-terest in the property. The answer of Armstrong maintains she had no interest in the lands and the British government seems to have fallen into a trap ar-ranged by the friends of Mrs. May-brick.
