

NOT HOLY ROLLER BUT HOLY TERROR

MAN EXAMINED AS TO SANITY SAYS GOD REMIDES IN PORTLAND AND HE IS HIS SPECIAL AGENT—DOES NOT ADMIRE CHURCH.

Clapping his hands and raising them in an attitude of supplication, Pedro De Fries, aged 71 years, begged County Judge Webster and Dr. Giesey not to permit him to be sent to the asylum for the insane at Salem. He was examined this morning on the charge of insanity, the ground being that he had frightened a number of children at Mount Tabor. To all appearances the old man is perfectly sane. He declared that he had no recollection of committing the deeds with which he is charged.

"Only let me go this time, dear doctor," he moaned. "I won't even look at anybody out there again. I want you to remember my poor old mother and father."

He was sent back to his cell and no determination reached as to what shall be done with him. He was informed that his offense is serious and deserves mature consideration. The acts complained of have been committed a number of times.

When Frans Johnson was brought into the room he started to talk with his tongue hanging out of his mouth. Sharply reprimanded by Dr. Giesey, he drew in his tongue and spoke fairly intelligibly. In a few minutes he began to talk in the Swedish language.

"Talk English; we don't understand Swedish," said the physician. "Why don't you learn it?" asked Johnson.

He was asked where he came from and answered "from God." He explained that God is living at present in Portland. Frans was adjudged insane and ordered committed to the asylum. He was arrested while preaching to the telephone poles. On being asked if he was a Holy Roller he said:

"No, I am a holy terror." Mrs. McGee, the old woman who has preached on the streets of the city for several years, was found sane enough to be permitted her liberty. She took a club, she said, while acting as the Lord's agent, and chased persons who she asserts had broken her fence.

FINE AT MOUNT HOOD.

Conditions Perfect at Cloud Cap Inn at Present Time.

Mrs. S. Langille, keeper of Cloud Cap Inn, writes that the weather is very fine at that popular resort. Visitors to the mining congress could take no more delightful outing than that to Cloud Cap Inn, or to the summit of the mountain. Particulars about the trip of C. W. Binger, city ticket agent, O. MAJOR RYAN MAY LOSE HIS PLACE

IS CALLED TO WASHINGTON TO EXPLAIN HIS RECENT ARREST AND OTHER CHARGES—INSPECTOR BARBOUR MAKES THE COMPLAINT.

Major T. C. Ryan, ranking next in authority to Immigration Inspector Barbour, under whom he has been working, has been called to Washington by Commissioner-General Sargent and it is said will be discharged from the service. His dismissal is due to unpleasant incidents with which his name has been connected recently. Wednesday night he got into an altercation with a woman and drew a revolver. He was arrested on the charge of carrying a concealed weapon and thrown into the city jail.

Being a federal officer, he is permitted to carry a revolver and was discharged from custody. Shortly before the arrest he received a wire from Commissioner-General Sargent to report at the department headquarters at Washington immediately for a conference. The telegram stated that his fare would be paid. He missed the train he intended taking on account of being imprisoned.

When he was released from custody last evening he took the train for Washington. Inspector Barbour is ill and cannot be seen relative to the facts, but a federal official admitted that Mr. Barbour had requested the recall of his lieutenant and that his dismissal from the service is regarded as a certainty.

COIN "SWEATERS" ARE TROUBLING POLICE

The "sweating" process, worked by criminals to extract dust from the surface of gold coins, is in vogue again in Portland. An investigation has been set on foot by the police and federal officials.

The attention of the authorities was called to the operations by a $20 gold piece, received by the police for bail, which was accepted, in the rush and hurry of the day's business, but when presented to the receiving teller of the Almsworth bank by Municipal Clerk Fred Olson yesterday afternoon it was refused and had to be returned to the police. It was fully $3 short of its original weight, and there was hardly a distinct line of reading on it, so badly had it been "sweated."

The "sweating" process is used to a considerable extent by Chinese, the officials say. Several means are employed to extract the gold, but the most common one used is to place the coins in a sack and rub them violently. From a few $5 or $10 pieces several dollars' worth of dust may be gotten, netting a rich return for the small amount of work.

Another process used by the more expert is to use special tools to scrape the coins.

Thomas Laude reported to the police this morning that he was robbed of $90 during the night while out drinking. He thought a woman took his money, but was not sure. Neither was he sure whether he lost all of the sum stated.

HOLD CONFERENCE IN MAYOR'S OFFICE

REPRESENTATIVES OF STRIKING BUTCHERS PRESENT STATEMENT TO ALDERMANIC COMMITTEE—PACKERS SIDE OF TROUBLE TO BE HEARD.

(Journal Special Service.) Chicago, Aug. 26.—A conference of the aldermanic committee and representatives of the striking butchers was held in the mayor's office today. The strikers had previously met and prepared a statement of their case for presentation to the committee, by which they will endeavor to secure another meeting of the strikers and packers with the hope of effecting a settlement. The strikers told the committee of the conditions existing at the yards previous to the strike when the men were working only two or three days a week and making only $6 or $7 and were unable to support their families, and finally struck because a reduction in wages was threatened.

When they returned after the first strike, the packers were so manifestly unfair in discriminating against the union leaders that the men felt compelled to strike again. The labor leaders desire to see a settlement. After the conference the mediation committee sent for a committee of the packers, who will this afternoon state their side of the controversy.

The federal government is represented in the two conferences by Ethelbert Stewart of the department of commerce and labor. National Organizer John Fitzpatrick of the Butchers' union said today: "If both sides are brought together this strike can be ended in five minutes."

GOLD DISCOVERED ON YAKATAGA BEACH

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Seattle, Aug. 26.—A new gold discovery has been made on Yakataga beach near Seward, on the gulf of Alaska, that is creating genuine excitement. Pokes amounting to $10,000 were struck yesterday on the steamship Excelsior from Valdez and points to the westward. The beach is longer than that of Nome, and a rush has started toward the point where the gold has been found in such quantities. Work can be carried on there much longer in the summer than at Nome, because it is many degrees farther south. Several hundred miners will winter at the new diggings.

The discovery has caused great surprise because it was not expected to find free gold out on the beach as at Nome. Oil seepages have made their way to the surface near Seward, according to latest reports. Seward is the place from which the Alaska Central railway is building across to the Tanana and Dawson. Discoveries of quartz gold have been made there in the last few days.

ASKED A TRIFLING LOAN OF $100,000

(Journal Special Service.) New York, Aug. 26.—Within four months after her marriage to Capt. Glen Collins of the Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders, Nathalie Schenk, one of the most charming debutantes of last season at Newport, finds that her husband is a bankrupt and is out of the British army. Collins is separated from him and it is reported that she is seeking a divorce. They were married at the Hotel Del Monte, Cal., in the spring.

Collins sailed as a very wealthy military officer. Just after the marriage he insured the lives of himself and his wife for $50,000 each and tried to raise money on the policies, but failed. The couple visited Reginald Vanderbilt and Captain Collins asked a loan of $100,000, which he did not get. He issued many bad checks and was forced to resign from the British army because of his debts.

NEGROES FIGHT FOR PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT

(Journal Special Service.) Clarksville, Tenn., Aug. 26.—Clowns who were giving a burlesque imitation of President Roosevelt here last night narrowly missed causing a riot. Two negroes in the crowd became offended and took the matter up. Hot words led to blows and a negro named Theodore Marten was badly beaten by a clown.

Two clowns and two negroes were placed under arrest. Many negroes pursued the prisoners, saying they would not see so good a friend of the black men as President Roosevelt caricatured.

GO 5,000 MILES FOR TRIAL FOR $7 THEFT

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, Aug. 26.—Edwin Rose will be taken 5,000 miles at the expense of the government to stand trial for the theft of a Panama hat valued at $7. He arrived here last night in charge of United States Marshal W. R. Flynn from Wilmington, Del., and was locked in the city prison until he can be taken to Honolulu for trial.

Rose is 19 years of age, and a Hawaiian. He is accused of stealing a Panama hat in the islands. When arrested he offered to return the hat and pay for it.

SPANISH BRIGANDS PILLAGE MONASTERY

(Journal Special Service.) Madrid, Aug. 26.—A band of Catalonian brigands attacked the famous monastery at Montserrat, and binding the monks, they pillaged the monastery. He and escaped with a large quantity of booty. Gendarmes pursued them and a fierce combat followed.

Seven brigands were killed and the others fled to the mountain fastnesses where they are being closely hunted by the soldiery. The affair created a state of excitement never before exceeded by similar incursions of the bandits.

SLOT MACHINE IS RETURNED TO HIM

SALOONKEEPER GETS BACK HIS DEVICE BECAUSE CHIEF OF POLICE HUNT IS NOT WELL FORIZED ON THE LAW—WAS FILLED WITH BEER CHECKS AND SLUGS.

The police seized a nickel-in-the-slot machine in a front street saloon last night filled with beer checks and slugs, but no nickels. Because the saloonkeeper called up Chief Hunt and advised him to return the device, as no violation of law had been committed, the chief did so. He evidently did not know of a section of the Oregon code which provides for punishment for even having such machines in one's possession.

The code reads as follows: "Section 155.—Any person or persons who shall conduct, maintain, or operate, either as owner or owners, proprietor or proprietors, lessee or lessees, employ or employes, agent or agents, or who shall play or use any nickel-in-the-slot machine or other device of like character wherein there enters any element of chance, whether the same be played for money, checks, credit, or other thing of representative of value, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor."

The statute provides a fine of from $10 to $100 for a violation of the law. It also provides that in all prosecutions under the act for conducting or operating any such machine or device, proof of the possession of such machine or device or permitting the same to remain in any public place, owned or controlled by the person so prosecuted, convenient for use, shall be prima facie evidence against such person.
