

PORTLAND, OREGON, SUNDAY MORNING, AUGUST 28, 1904.

Wool, Worthman & Tins The "Different Store" Portland's Quality Shop Wool, Worthman & Tins

SOLE OREGON AGENTS FOR THE WORLD FAMOUS BONNET ET CIE'S SILKS HOME OF THE "QUICK MEAL" COOKING RANGE—THIRD FLOOR NEWEST AND LARGEST STOCK OF CARPETS IN OREGON—FOURTH FLOOR

THERE'S GLORIOUS "WELCOME" NEWS THIS SABBATH MORN!

We don't like to "talk shop" on Sunday; but, really, we've the best news to tell you today you'll find on any page of this voluminous issue of your Sunday paper. Firstly, we're going to spring a happy surprise that will please thousands of plethoric purses that have been waiting to open at the touch of a magic spring by a master hand. We had to do something to celebrate the homecoming of our buyers from New York, where they've done work such as no other corps of buyers on the Pacific Coast can boast. Tirelessly have they worked, and the fruits of their expert labors are here and pouring in daily, ripe for your picking. The fall stocks surpass anything ever shown by any Western house; they show the utmost skill and care in selection. The prices we own them at show shrewdness and the mighty power of unlimited capital in buying. By all these you profit, and tomorrow the faithful buyers arrive. The whole store breathes WELCOME! Again: For the next two days this great ROSE-CONVENTION ROSE CITY is going to play host to "THE GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH." Good! Who doesn't love a circus? Anything from the caravan of yesterday to the colossal tented amphitheatres of today, with all their glittering, dazzling pageantry. Thousands of visitors will be in town. We've received hundreds of letters from the surrounding hamlets and towns saying so, and saying also: "WHY DON'T YOU CONTINUE YOUR CLEARANCE SALES THE BALANCE OF THE MONTH—UNTIL WEDNESDAY NIGHT—AND GIVE US A CHANCE AT THE REDUCTIONS? WE'RE COMING IN TO THE CIRCUS." All right, good neighbors—"Barkis is willin'," and the Messrs. Ringling can congratulate themselves that we will help to draw thousands of people to Portland the next three days by CONTINUING THE CLEARANCE SALES UNTIL WEDNESDAY AT CLOSING TIME, WITH EVERY ARTICLE IN THE HOUSE RADICALLY REDUCED (Contract goods alone excepted.) CLEARANCE SALE PRICES CONTINUE MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY ONLY, and hundreds of extra-special bargains will spice the delectable three days' feast of values! Everybody welcome! VISITORS WELCOME! TOURISTS WELCOME! TOWNSPEOPLE WELCOME! A GRAND WELCOME TO OUR RETURNED BUYERS! EVERYBODY WELCOME! The entire store exhales a "WELCOME." Come and get the Welcome feel.

Sensational Sale of New Fall Silks Continues ANNEX—FIRST FLOOR

We've had hundreds of requests by letter, 'phone and in person, from home-folk and those living at a distance to CONTINUE THAT SURPASSING SALE OF AUTUMN SILKS inaugurated last Friday for three days more. The response to the announcement of the sale was spontaneous, and patrons bought eagerly, lavishly. The news spread, and the second day's sale, though 'twas a five-hour day, was greater than the first. The silks were their own best advertisement. But the quantity is large and will stand another bargain onslaught. These are the greatest silk bargains ever exploited by any Portland house—and all the silks are new.

Continuation of Advance Showings of Fall Garments Women's New Fall Suits Here

Tailored styles for fall have been coming in for two weeks or more; but they've been going out so fast the new arrivals could hardly keep up, so we haven't talked much of them in the Store News. But AN AUTHORITY EXHIBITION of the absolutely correct styles is on display in the great Second Floor Apparel Salons, in every material suited for fall wear that bears the sanction of fashion. By actual knowledge we may truthfully state that our ASSORTMENTS ARE LARGER THAN ANY OTHER THREE LOCAL STORES COMBINED, and actually the only expose in the city exploiting the styles that bear the stamp of approval by fashion leaders of note in the great eastern style centers. Styles here are exclusive, but cost no more than the common sort as carried by Cheap John corner-grocery suit shops. Coat Suits and Vest Suits—the keynote of the showing through every advance style is here—correct as they are new. One sees at a glance that the train on the tailored suit is no longer the thing—straight-around skirts are the rule, just escape the ground. In fact, even the Paris-made evening gowns are made with scarce a train, so one may see quickly that the change is decidedly in favor of the skirt that skims the ground.

Sensational Sale of Women's Suits Monday $12.50 to $18.50 SUITS AT $6.98

The Most Attracting Values in Women's Suits ever offered in Portland. Every suit in the offering is desirable for present and autumn wear or another summer's use. All of the suits are of recent make, hardly from the maker's hands yet six weeks. In the materials are the popular mannish mixtures, Chevots, Tweeds, Homespun, Etamines and Serges; plain black and popular grays, blues and browns, with a splendid line of mixtures, make up the color line. Values included embrace everything up from $12.50 to $18.50 in regular price, mostly of the $15.00 to $18.50 sort. You may select Monday only at the absurdly-low price of $6.98
