Society Turning Cityward From Mountain and Sea

The various clubs which were so prosperous last year are preparing for reorganization or a renewal of work. The calendar committee has been working on its program and will have a final meeting early in September preparatory to the opening club meeting in October.

There is much enthusiasm over the reopening of the theatre season. The Columbia and Baker theatres lead with their stock company roles next week.

The Mining congress has been the cause of some social activity during the week. The boat ride to Oregon City given by Mrs. Mann was among the smaller affairs. The reception Wednesday evening was very well attended. Mrs. J. H. Richards of Boise, Ida., one of the delegates, was entertained at an afternoon tea by Mrs. David Ogden.

The regatta at astoria has been the center of social interest this week. Among the Portland people attending were Mrs. P. J. Mann. Mrs. W. J. Hofman, Mrs. Samuel B. Archer.

The races at Irvington park have continued to draw crowds this week.

was the society event of the season at Astoria. Many visitors were present from various parts of the state and Portland was well represented. The festivities extended over Friday beginfestivities extended over Friday beginning Wednesday. The coronation of Mrs. Houston as Queen Helen I Wednesday morning was a beautiful ceremony. The grand ball in the evening presented a gay scene of fashlon. Queen Helen and her attendantsin a garden of roses received the guests. The committee, composed of Mrs. Wilkinson, Mrs. Fulton and Mrs. Prael, Admiral Campbell and his staff, General Fulton and his staff, Captain Cottman and the officers of the Wyoming, were among the and his staff, General Fulton and his staff, Captain Cottman and the officers of the Wyoming, were among the guests. On Thursday Captain Cottman received the queen and her party and a few invited guests on board the Wyoming. Then Admiral Campbell entertained the queen and her party and Captain Cottman on board the Balley Gatzert. Band music added to the general enjoyment and refreshments were served. Thursday evening the festivities were brought to a climax by the reception given by Mrs. W. O. Wilkinson, a leader of the smart set of Astoria. Queen Helen I was the guest of honor. Mrs. Wilkinson's elegant home was tastefully decorated for thde occasion and presented a charming picture of light and beauty. The evening was passed with dancing. Lunch was served. This event closed the social part of the regratta, though athletic events continued through Friday.

The ladies' auxiliary of the Ancient Order of Hibernians opened its social season Thursday evening with a hop as the Union hall, Second and Stark streets. About 200 were in attendance.

Mr. Otto Eggerts and Miss Helen Schmaiz were married at their own home, 323 Weidler street, at 6 o'clock last Sunday evening. Rev. Christian Buechler performed the ceremony. The commission of the ceremony was performed in the front room, where the bridal parts a background of green with three baskets of sweet peas suspended overhead. Miss Katherine Henneman, the bride's cousin, was her maid of honor and Mr. Albert Eggerts was the groomsman. The wedding march was played by Miss Clara Fleshman. About 50 ymiss Clara Fleshman. Society is preparing itself for the opening of the winter season. With the first of September camps are broken up and the summer boarders straggle back from the beach and the mountains. Late comers all wear a healthy red and brown color that tells plainer than words the story of the summer's occupation.

The various clubs which were so prosperous last year are preparing for resummer.

chairman of the Relief Corps committee.

The Portasia club has issued novel invitations in the form of a legal injunction and summons, ordering its members to attend a trolley party and dance at Canemah park on the evening of September 7, and advising them that they will fall at their peril. It is issued in due form on legal cap paper by the court of Portasia club in the case of Portasia club, plaintiff, vs. John Doe (whose other or true name is indorsed upon the back of this instrument), defendant. Said defendant is enjoined to refrain absolutely on that evening from sleeping or remaining idle at home or elsewhere, from attending any other dance or party, lecture, theatre, band concert, church fair, supper, social, lodge or other meeting, making any social business or other call, or playing at cards, dice, or any other game or amusement whatsoever, and so on through a whole paragraph of things he shall not do on said evening, adding, "and other act or thing likely or liable to interfere with your attendance at the said party on the said evening." And after including every possible loophope, the defendant is warned that he will fail at his peril. An exhaustive list of lawyers' fees is added for convenient reference and the seal of the court is attached.

JUST FOR A FEW DAYS

An Eight Weeks' Home Treatment for $5.00

Ladies or gentlemen shall have just what they need for any affliction for that little sum of money. If blackheads, treatment for blackheads; if wrinkles, treatment for wrinkles, if freckles, treatment for freckles, etc. At the conclusion of these eight weeks each patron will be fully qualified to care for her own or his own face, as the case may be, equal to most of the dermatologists. Investigate this great offer. Many of the profession would charge $75 for what we give for $5.
