PARLOR CLOCKS

"The Human Soul Exists," is the sub-ject of a lecture by Rev. C. Hall Cook, Ph. D., of London, this evening at Arti-sans' hall, Abington building, at 8 o'clock. Dr. Cook is a member of the society for psychical research of Lon-don and has performed all his experi-ments under the strictest test condi-tions. His lecture will be illustrated by stereopticon views. He undertakes to prove the existence of the soul by strictly scientific methods. Photographs that have been taken when subjects were in communication with spirits are shown, with the spirits pictured as if material Dr. Cook claims that he himself has two that he took when alone, showing his mother and a friend.

Preparations are being made through-out the county for the opening of the school year on September 12. In all but three or four districts the scholars will assemble with their books to begin the winter's work. Nearly all the districts have aiready secured teachers. During the vacation many of the school houses have been renovated throughout, many have received new coats of paint and new furniture has been installed while others have been enlarged to meet the increase in the number of pupils.
