

FAST GOING AT IRVINGTON TRACK

FOUR FAVORITES WITH FIRST MONEY, WHILE ALL THE RACES WERE WELL RUN—JENKINS WINS THE HUNT CLUB FAIR—LINTON BARRED FROM TURF.

The third week's racing at Irvington track ended yesterday, and tomorrow the two weeks' extra racing will begin. The success that has attended the present meet has so encouraged the members of the Multnomah Fair association that they feel that a five weeks' meeting every year will be a regular occurrence in this city. The meeting so far has been a success from every standpoint. The bookmakers claiming that they are away behind the game, but many of the talent dispute their claim.

Yesterday's going was very good, the feature of the contest being the gentlemen's riding race, which was won by Mr. Jenkins on Barnato. There was considerable speculation on the race. The real wild "gasabos" picked Marengo for a clinch, the odds opening at 1 to 2 and closing at 9 to 20. Why Marengo was such a short price cannot be explained other than that the dopsters were hoping themselves, and ran crazy over the prospect of winning. Marengo of course, is a mile horse and not a four furlong performer. The bookies offered 1 1/2 to 2 on the field against Marengo and there were many takers. Zedac and Barnato were overlooked in the betting. The start took considerable time, as the riders couldn't get their mounts in any kind of form for the barrier. When the ribbon flew, Jim Budd showed in front, but was soon passed by Jenkins on Barnato. Jenkins was going like the wind and tails were flying in all directions. Lazarus urged Marengo, but his horse refused to come up to Barnato, and with a full length to spare, Barnato crossed the line a winner, with Marengo second and Zedac showing. While Lazarus rode a pretty race, the horse was not satisfied and handicapped him considerably. Jenkins rode a perfect race and got the glad hand as he returned to the judge's stand. Howard finished last.

The third race was a bad one for Jockey Linton, the result of which cost Linton the privilege of riding for life. Linton was up on Bell Reed and his horse was picked as a sure winner, but the jockey pulled Bell Reed hard, and the grandstand nearly croaked. Bell would have won easily were it not for Linton's work, and as soon as the race was finished Linton was called up and told that for his bad performance he was forever barred from the turf in this country. Sallie Goodwin captured the race by a length. There was a heavy play on Reed, so Linton's work spoiled the talent's chance for an easy cashing.

Eldred was the royal oats in the first race and looked so good that the price dropped from 5 to 1 to 9 to 10 at the post. Eldred was never a favorite in the Homage, the 1 to 3 favorite in the second race, was another sure thing and the bookies were hit rather hard on the event. Herbert rode Rose of the Hills, a 5 to 1 shot, and won the Homage, the 1 to 3 favorite in the second race, was another sure thing and the bookies were hit rather hard on the event. Herbert rode Rose of the Hills, a 5 to 1 shot, and won the Homage, the 1 to 3 favorite in the second race, was another sure thing and the bookies were hit rather hard on the event.

Forest King, although poorly started, ran a beautiful race and won by one and one-third lengths. Misty's Pride, although picked for a place or show horse, was never reckoned in the fifth race, but he demonstrated that he could run a race. He won the stretch couldn't keep his mount up with Homage, and the latter barely nosed in.

All during next week, excepting Saturday, women will be admitted to the grand stand for 25 cents each. Summary: First race—Five and one-half furlongs, selling—Eldred, 107 (Albermarle), 9 to 10; Black Cloud, 104 (Herbert), 5 to 1; second; Military, 104 (Fitzpatrick), 5 to 2, third. Time, 1:09 3/4. Second race—One mile, selling—Homage, 119 (Holbrook), 1 to 2, won; Rose of the Hills, 114 (Herbert), 5 to 1, second; Tonopah, 121 (Tullett), 12 to 1, third. Time, 1:44 1/4.

Third race—Five furlongs, selling—Sallie Goodwin, 112 (P. Kelly), 4 to 2, won; Bell Reed, 112 (P. Kelly), 11 to 5, second; Karabel, 105 (Fitzpatrick), 6 to 1, third. Time, 1:02 3/4. Fourth race—One mile, Exposition handicap—Forest King, 118 (J. Butler), 8 to 1, won; North West, 91 (T. Butler), 8 to 1, second; Dora I., 92 (T. Clark), 7 to 2, third. Time, 1:42 3/4.

Fifth race—Seven furlongs, selling—Misty's Pride, 102 (G. Gravel), 5 to 1, won; Red Tip, 112 (P. Kelly), 11 to 5, second; Nonie, 110 (Herbert), 5 to 2, third. Time, 1:27. Sixth race—One mile, selling—Chub, 102 (O. Chandler), 7 to 2, won; Zedac, 102 (Ermahuer), 10 to 1, second; El Piloto, 102 (Tullett), even, third. Time, 1:42. Seventh race—Four furlongs, gentlemen riders—Barnato, 152 (Mr. Jenkins), 6 to 1, won; Marengo, 150 (Mr. Lazarus), 9 to 1, second; Cadoc, 150 (Mr. Chase), 11 to 5, third. Time, 0:53 1/2.

NOTES OF THE MEET. Jockey Linton was promptly ruled off the track yesterday for a very raw piece of work. This is Linton's second offense. In Whatum, Wash., three years ago Linton was ruled off by Judge Leighton for pulling Sallie Goodwin. Linton got his just deserts. Powell rode Forest King perfectly in the fourth event and won easily by almost ten lengths. Forest King could carry the Chamber of Commerce building and still beat the bunch that faced him in that race.

The bookies were played hard yesterday in four races, all favorites winning. Beginning tomorrow the ladies will be admitted for 25 cents each on Saturdays when the regular price will be charged.

Mr. Jenkins rode a pretty race on Barnato in the gentlemen's event. Lazarus got a poor start and couldn't catch Barnato. Were the distance greater Marengo would have had a good chance.

As soon as Jockey Linton reached the paddock after his disgraceful ride on Belle Reed, two Multnomah men took charge of him and escorted him to the gate and warned him never to return. How quickly a young man can fall from grace.

KEEN INTEREST IN LACROSSE CONTEST

This afternoon, at Hawthorne park, on the east side, the people of Portland will have an opportunity to witness a star match of lacrosse between the crack teams of Victoria, B. C., and this city. Both teams met at Astoria on Friday and played a draw game, the score being 2 to 2, and from the reports received the game was the fastest and most brilliant ever played at Astoria.

NEW FIGHTING CLUB MAKES GOOD OFFER

A new fighting club has loomed up and its first efforts are being made toward arranging a match between Jack O'Brien and Tommy Ryan, to decide the middleweight title. The club is known as the International Athletic Association of Rousse's Point, N. Y. It offers, through its matchmaker, secretary and treasurer, Henry D. Gibbs, a purse of $10,000 for Ryan and O'Brien to meet. The club does not intend to hold the mill in this state, but on Canadian territory.

Gibbs, in a letter to a friend in this city, writes that it is the intention of his club to have the battle in daylight before October 1 next. To show its sincerity, he says, the club is prepared to post $5,000 on the day articles of agreement are signed, and $5,000 in addition 10 days before the fight takes place. Both fighters, the club stipulates, must deposit half of this sum, or $5,000 each, as a forfeit. The club is ready to furnish training quarters free for both men and allow them $200 each for training expenses. If the prize is not satisfactory to the men Gibbs says that he will let the men battle for 75 per cent of the gate receipts. It is understood that O'Brien will accept the proposition. He has been in communication with Gibbs and will sign articles as soon as Ryan consents. Followers of the ring think that Ryan must accept or suffer a loss of prestige. The promoters insist on a fight to a finish if they care to.

BOWLERS AWAIT THE COMING TOURNAMENT

The local ten-pin bowlers are looking forward with a great deal of interest to the coming individual tournament with which the 200 club will open the fall season on the Portland alleys on Saturday night. This will be the largest tournament in the history of the club, as about 60 bowlers expect to enter the contest.

The weekly prize for the highest score was carried off this week by Ed Kneysse with a score of 258. Harry Adamson was second with 244 pins.

The race for the greatest number of "double century" scores this week was carried off by J. McMenomy who went with nine to his credit. J. D. Fields, a member of the First National bowling team put up a score of 220 in a practice game Friday night and a beautiful race was followed by him with scores of 213 in the next game. If the other members of the team are in as good form as Fields so early in the season they will be making some new records before long.

THINGS THAT HAPPEN AT HALF-MILE TRACKS

Many amusing things occur at a half-mile track race meeting. At a recent Ohio meet the owner and driver of a pacer that won several good races came to the conclusion that the time was about ripe to "copper" him. The pacer was allowed to win the first heat, and was then a strong favorite in the betting, his owner having a friend buy several hundred dollars' worth of tickets against him. The horse was inclined to take hold of the bit strong, and when the driver attempted to draw the finish line in the second heat, the pacer would not stand for it, and simply ran away on a pace in the stretch and won the heat as well as reducing his record several seconds. Owing to his having made the field look so cheap in the second heat, the owner decided to leave him to go on and win the third heat and burn up the money the would-be schemer had played against their own horse. And when the friends of the disgraced pacer would not stand for it, and simply ran away on a pace in the stretch and won the heat as well as reducing his record several seconds. Owing to his having made the field look so cheap in the second heat, the owner decided to leave him to go on and win the third heat and burn up the money the would-be schemer had played against their own horse.

JOURNAL'S TIPS FOR MONDAY.

The Blue Mountain Sanatorium

FOR THE TREATMENT AND CURE OF Consumption

Sanatorium treatment is the ideal and only successful treatment for tuberculosis. It consists principally of life in the open air, rest, forced feeding, hydro-therapy and massage. The baths at this institution are supplied from natural hot mineral springs, the waters of which exert a marked curative influence. Patients from the west side of the mountains are especially benefited by the change of climate. The dry air of eastern Oregon and 2,600 feet of altitude stimulate the appetite and improve nutrition.

"Getting any bites?" asked the inquisitive person of the lone fisherman. "What kind of bites?" queried the fisherman. "Fish, snake or mosquito?"

Glinseritis, acrobatic celebrities in Germany, have repeated their success here. As a suggestion of their work, they turn double somersaults from shoulder to shoulder, standing two high. The Colombians, French troubadours-dancers, and the Tasmanian family of gymnasts from Australia, are other newcomers who have created interest of the sensational kind. The Dollard troupe, Flying Fishers, Dacomas, Alvo trio, Fortuna Brothers, Kaufman family, three Rio, Senero and Theob. Tybell sisters, and Jackson family are important people in the list of 375 that evolve the huge circus program. Besides the Eldreds and Bedinis in the galaxy of riding experts, are Orrin Davenport, the Hobsons, May Davenport, Reno McCrea, Lulu Davenport, Madam Royal, John Agee and Rhoda Royal. Three groups of performing elephants, two sets of trained seals and several companies of educated horses form the exhibit of wonderful animal training.

Monday morning, the street pageant, for which Ringling Brothers are distinguished, will leave the circus grounds on Twenty-fifth street, at 10 o'clock. This pageant is singularly effective, in that it shows more attractive features, a finer equipment and a larger display than is customary with exhibitions of the sort. The animal cages are structures of cost and tasteful pattern and coloring, and nearly all of the dens are open.

The sensational climax of the circus bill is the "leaping the gap" act. Craze, whose lay name is Walter Lewis, rides a bicycle down an almost perpendicular path of 90 feet, and is hurled astride his wheel a distance of more than 52 feet, landing on a padded platform.

Ringling Brothers' circus will exhibit in Portland Monday and Tuesday and give two performances each day, at 2 and at 8 p. m. Admission and reserved seat tickets will be sold at Graves & Co.'s music store at exactly the same prices charged in the wagons on the circus grounds.
