

IN QUANDARY AS REGARDS FINANCE

WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE OF CITY COUNCIL HAS TO CARRY CIVIC EXPENSES UNTIL NEXT YEAR—MAY HAVE MONEY BOWERS—NEW ORDINANCE.

In order to gain revenue with which to replenish the empty coffers of the city treasury, the ways and means committee of the city council is considering every conceivable method to secure money. At the meeting yesterday afternoon it was decided to get a revenue from the street signs.

Much of the time during the meeting the discussion was upon the present financial condition of the city treasury. The first department with which the committee is dealing is the department of street signs.

RAILWAY TRAVEL IS MARVELOUS

GREATEST EVER PORTLAND EVER SAW FARMERS OVER, AND WHEN IN FOR AN ACCIDENT OR NEED OUR DELAY TO BE REMEMBERED—WORLD'S FAIR TRAFFIC DEPARTMENT.

The vast railroad men are marveling at the great bulk of travel that has passed through Portland during the last week, and the facility with which all of it has been handled.

"We are getting a 50 per cent of the St. Louis business," said A. C. Sheldon, general agent of the Burlington. "If they don't go by the Billings Junction or return that way, they are pretty sure to take a side trip up to Otisville or Kaskia to see the old folks at home, and so we get a bite of the excursion fund."

The S. P. and O. R. & N. ticket office was crowded yesterday with people who wanted to go somewhere. At the ticket office of the Gould lines there was a row of buyers the entire length of the counter.

WAKEFIELD TO BUILD BRIDGE OF NATIONS

Robert Wakefield was yesterday awarded the contract for building the bridge of nations at the Lewis and Clark fair grounds, his estimate of $27,385 being the lowest submitted.

The bridge will span the lake between the main land, where the chief buildings of the fair will be located, and the peninsula, where the government exhibits will be placed.

NO ATTACKS UPON JUDGE A. B. PARKER

REPUBLICANS, SAYS G. H. PARKING, COULDN'T THEMSELVES TO CHARGE ONE OF THEIR MEMBERS OF DEMOCRACY AND TO KISS ROOSEVELT'S "SIS STICK."

(Indianapolis Correspondence of Brooklyn Eagle, by G. H. Parkington.) Like the Democracy, the Republican party is making its first elaborations of the issues of the presidential campaign in Indiana.

In the defense of President Roosevelt and in criticism of Democrats who are supporting Judge Parker, the Republicans are making their first elaborations of the issues of the presidential campaign in Indiana.

One of these speeches was made last Friday by J. Frank Hanly, the Republican candidate for governor. Mr. Hanly, after declaring that Mr. Roosevelt is being assailed as Mr. Lincoln was at the time of the civil war, burst into this panegyric:

"Remember my countrymen, they said the same things of Abraham Lincoln, Abraham Lincoln! Child of poverty! Freedom's advocate! President of the republic! Defender of the union! Emancipator of a race! Savior of a nation! Proud heritage of a great people! Kindest nature and gentlest memory in the ebb and flow of all the centuries! He did not save the union alone; there were others who wept and sacrificed and died."

"In this campaign the Democratic party has no hope of success, and especially none in Indiana, except through the corrupting power of a vast campaign fund. Those in control of it proceed as though the franchise of the open market, to obtain such a fund they disfranchised the rank and file of the party in Indiana and in other states; betrayed the party organization into the hands of David B. Hill; surrendered every principle which in the last eight years they have laid down as vital; nominated Henry Gasaway Davis for vice-president; elected Thomas Taggart chairman of the executive committee; and put them in control of the campaign."

"But Mr. Sheehan, Mr. Belmont and Mr. Taggart will fall. The election in Indiana cannot be purchased. We have too much civic pride and virtue for that. The issue involves a question of civic honesty, and that issue we majority confide to the first voters of Indiana. Fresh from the study of the country's history in school and in college, they can be trusted. They will not weaken. Nor will they fall to temptations of the first great trust confided to their care. I know them. I know their love of country, their desire for honorable distinction, their resolute purpose to keep untarnished the fame and glory of this great commonwealth. I know them—yes, I know them! High above the polluting grasp of bribery they hold the honor of the state and the institutions for years to come."

of the free. They cannot be purchased. They cannot be bargained for. Mr. Hanly's example will be followed by the Republican orators in Indiana, but it is to be said that a great many Republicans of the state do not approve appeals to old and half-exhausted northern prejudices against the south, nor vituperation against Democratic leaders.

Another and by no means unimportant effect of the Republican course in Indiana is that it is clearly driving the independent non-deliverable vote into the Democratic party. So many voters in this group in Indianapolis have been offended by it, and correspondingly pleased by the dignity of Judge Parker and his managers in their campaign, that it is believed Marion county will go Democratic. Reports received at the headquarters of the Democratic state committee go to show that the same feeling prevails in other Indiana counties where independent voters, reasonable grounds given, throw the local and state elections from one side to the other in spite of all the politicians may do to restrain them.

Whatever disorganization existed in the regular Democratic party in Indiana is disappearing for the same reason. Democrats, like Republicans, resent attacks made on men solely because of their political allegiance. It is assumed, for instance, that President Roosevelt would not reject the aid of August Belmont if it were offered him. President Lincoln accepted the aid of Mr. Belmont's father, a Democrat. President McKinley welcomed the support of the whole gold-standard contingent of Democrats. It is the opinion of the Indiana Democrats that the abuse heaped upon the members of the Democratic committee, which has no relevancy to the issue, will result in a complete solidification of all the Democratic forces. It will be impossible, in their judgment, to defeat Judge Parker by assembling his friends, whether the friends be Bryan and his followers in the west or the Gold Democrats in the east, headed by Grover Cleveland.

LENDAY FOR GOVERNOR. (Journal Special Service.) Saginaw, Mich., Sept. 7.—The Republican state judicial convention was called to meet here this morning by the temporary chairman, Moses Taggart, of Grand Rapids. The convention will name three candidates for judge of the supreme court. It is an open race, with a few Democrats in the field, and the result cannot be forecasted with any degree of certainty, as none of those mentioned appears to have a decisive lead.

NEW HAMPDEN DEMOCRATS. (Journal Special Service.) Concord, N. H., Sept. 7.—The Democratic state convention to nominate a state ticket was called to order here shortly before noon today. The sentiment of the majority of the delegates appears to favor the nomination of F. Hollis of this city for governor.

DAVIS SPEAKS TO FARMERS. (Journal Special Service.) Wheeling, W. Va., Sept. 7.—A rousing reception was given to Hon. Henry G. Davis at the West Virginia state fair today. It was farmers' day at the fair, and Mr. Davis was the chief speaker. No politics figured in the demonstration and Mr. Davis devoted his brief address entirely to the subject of agriculture.

EDITORS TO MEET PARKER. (Journal Special Service.) New York, Sept. 7.—In response to the invitation of Chairman Taggart, the editors of a considerable number of Democratic papers throughout the country gathered in New York today for a conference on their part in the work of the national campaign. Arrangements have been made for the editors to go to Esopus tomorrow to visit Judge Parker. Terrible plagues, those itching, peevish diseases of the skin, are all cured by misery. REUNITED AFTER FIFTY-FOUR YEARS

GEORGE GANNON WHO LEFT YFV—STEPHANIA HALL—A CENTURY-AGO WAS LOCATED HIS WIDOWED, TO WHOM HE HAS BEEN LOST MANY YEARS.

(Journal Special Service.) Seattle, Sept. 7.—Fifty-four years ago George Gannon of Washington, Pa., on the death of his wife placed his children in charge of a friend and started to California to make a fortune. Ill luck followed his footsteps for years and irregular mails added to a condition which separated him from his little ones. Time rolled on and all trace of them was lost. Then fortune knocked at the door of the gold hunter. This was 40 years ago and at once he began a search for his babes. Through all the intervening years he tried to locate them. Old age came on until Cannon, last year, on reaching the age of 71, decided he would have to die without seeing his loved ones again.

As a last resort, he advertised in a Seattle paper. The notice attracted the attention of Mrs. M. E. Sturgeon, residing here, and she replied. As suspected, it turned out to be her long lost father and the old gentleman arrived here yesterday to find his daughter, who for more than half a century has been lost to him.

A letter has been sent to Mrs. Burkhart, another daughter, living at West Brownsville, Pa., and a son living at Lincoln, Neb., asking them to come on and see their father before he dies.

BIG BEND PIONEER WILL DRINK WINE

(Journal Special Service.) Wilbur, Wash., Sept. 7.—Joe Enos, better known as "Portuguese Joe," one of the earliest pioneers of the Big Bend section and known by every one from Yakima to Spokane and from Snake River to the boundary line, has disposed of his extensive interests in this locality, and to use his own words, will "Go to California and drink wine," and live a life of ease and luxury. Years ago he could have bought all of the land adjoining him for a song, but he considered it worthless except for grazing. Now as he sees other people coming in and settling up the land and narrowing down his possessions he has become dissatisfied with a life of ease and luxury. He does not know when he left his native land, neither does he know how old he is. Although he is a bachelor, his ranch is known to every stock farmer and hunter in this section. It has always been a place of refuge to every belated weary traveler "without money and without price." He was an ideal type of the hospitable range farmer.

HOOD RIVER SCHOOLS.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Hood River, Or., Sept. 7.—The public schools of Hood River opened this morning with an enrollment of 28 pupils. This is a large increase over the opening day last year. The schools are already overcrowded, and the school board is making arrangements to rent additional rooms. The teaching force of nine instructors will also be increased.

CARPENTERS WALK OUT.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Pendleton, Sept. 7.—Five union carpenters, employed on the Matlock and the Montersattell & O'Gara buildings, walked out today because the contractors refused to discharge Fred Marsh, a non-union man. The contractors are hiring non-union men to finish the work. They assert the union is treating them unfairly.

SPOKANE CARPENTERS' UNION.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Spokane, Wash., Sept. 7.—The carpenters' union, which at present is not affiliated with either of the two central labor bodies, may soon send delegates to the trade assembly. The charter which the carpenters hold is liberal and does not force them to affiliate with any central body.

GUARDIAN ASKS FOR $500 FEE

In his final account as guardian of John R. Foster, filed in the county court yesterday, B. G. Whitehouse asked that he be permitted to pay to himself $500 as fee for his services and $500 to Attorney W. D. Fenton. He stated that on account of the "onerous and unusual duties" he was called on to perform, the fee asked as guardian is moderate. The fee asked by Attorney Fenton he thought very reasonable.

Judge Webster recently vacated the order declaring Foster an incompetent and appointing Whitehouse his guardian, calling on the latter at that time for his final account. The guardian says that a balance of $1,142.34 remains on the guardian account, but that expenses on physician's accounts and for board and lodging have left a deficit in another account of $317.04, which has been temporarily met by turning over money from the guardian's account. The estate has been appraised at $13,000.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE

Cures Kidney and Bladder Diseases in Every Form—Many People Have Kidney Trouble and Do Not Know It.

HOW TO FIND OUT. It is the function of the kidneys to filter and purify the blood which is constantly passing through them.

When the kidneys are out of order the other organs are affected immediately and you may have symptoms of heart trouble, stomach and liver trouble, and other ailments, which are all owing to the kidneys being weak and out of order.

If you are sick Foley's Kidney Cure will strengthen and build up the worn out tissues of the kidneys so they will act properly and the symptoms of weakness, heart, stomach and liver trouble will disappear and you will be restored to perfect health.

HOW TO FIND OUT. You can easily determine if your kidneys are out of order by setting aside for 24 hours a bottle of the urine passed upon arising. If upon examination it is cloudy or milky or has a brick-dust sediment or small particles float about in it, your kidneys are diseased and Foley's Kidney Cure should be taken at once.

Foley's Kidney Cure is pleasant to take and acts directly upon the parts affected and you begin to feel better at once. It corrects slight disorders in a few days and it has cured many obstinate cases after other treatment had failed.

Doctors Said He Would Not Live. Peter Frey, of Woodruff, Pa., writes: "After doctoring for two years with the best physicians in Waynesburg, and still getting worse, the doctors advised me if I had any business to attend to I had better attend to it at once, as I could not possibly live another month, as there was no cure for me. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me by a friend, and I immediately sent my son to the store for it and after taking three bottles I began to get better and continued to improve until I was entirely well."
