of the WANTED SORT. MERCHANDISE FOR PERSONAL WEAR and HOUSEHOLD USE—HOTELS and RESTAURANTS are INTERESTED in the GRAND SALONS of DRESS SECOND FLOOR.

Portland's Largest, Foremost Women's Apparel Presents Autumn's Authoritative Fashion Shows

This week we make large exhibitions of Autumn Gowns, Costumes (tailored and semi-tailored), Dinner and Evening Dresses, Dainty Hand-Made Evening Waists, Dress and Walking Skirts, Tailored Street Suits, Theatre and Carriage Wraps, Tourist and Automobile Coats—in short, autumn attire in all the approved styles of Fashion's Court. Hours can be spent looking through the Suit Section without exhausting the variety. New styles are coming in daily. Great care is taken to have no more than one, two or three suits of a pattern, thus affording the patronage of this store as much exclusiveness as can be given by custom modistes. Portland's leading store is approaching her best this week, gaining readiness for early openings by months preparing for—and "BEST" here means something more than the showing of well things. It means expert fitters and competent workmanship. Though a necessary alteration may be very slight, in unskilled hands the desired effect is often lost. We have in our employ, to guard against these defects, the most experienced people. We guarantee their work to be perfect—not only satisfactory to you, but also to our rigid requirements. No garment leaves this store before it's right, and OLDS, WORTMAN & KING'S exclusive and authoritatively correct garments cost no more, nor so much, as their inferior replicas which help to swell the number of express bundles sent out by New York's east side sweat shops to our shadows in the Portland garment business. Portland women-folk know style and quality—they look below the sew-gawa and spangles that cover tenement-house work; that's why this house succeeds while others languish—another reason why this has become easily PORTLAND'S FOREMOST STORE.

Thursday; Last Day of the Great Silk Sale Tremendous Slaughter $10,000.00 Worth New, Rich, Black Silk Taffetas

The Silks are new, magnificent! The occasion presents a perfect whirlwind of opportunities to careful, prudent buyers of splendid Black Silks. But the time is short in which to get your share—the Sale will last only until closing time Thursday. There is no reason for this sale other than that of furnishing a whip and spur to September business. We're out to beat all records and incidentally to lower the stocks before rearrangement of departments takes place preparatory to entering the new Sixth-street Annex. The Silks are crisp and new as the season. What woman will not want her share of these rich, handsome, shimmering Silks? One will be wise indeed who fills the Winter's Silk wants now while such values are set before them. The bargains are indeed matchless! Unmatchable by any house on the Pacific Slope. Read the items:

HOUSE-KEEPERS' SALE

Re-Arrangements on Third Floor Mean Moving of Many Stocks. Housefurnishings at cheaper prices than last month; much cheaper. Haven't you, as a house-keeper, often followed up careless sweeping, and given a room a cleaning that meant cleanness? THOROUGHNESS. Just so—stores must be thorough. We've started out here to get ready for wholesale moving. Every stock on the floor has to be moved about this month—soon as the floor is laid in the new annex now we move many of these third-floor stocks there. The Summer's sales have left us many oddments; we've rounded 'em up—cut prices deeply on them—the savings are fine. We print a list, but not a full one:
