

DEMOCRATS MAKING READY FOR CAMPAIGN

STATE COMMITTEE IN SESSION THIS AFTERNOON—PROBABLY THAT HEADQUARTERS WILL BE REOPENED AT SCOTT HOTEL WITH J. B. RYAN IN CHARGE.

The Democratic state central committee is in session this afternoon in the office of Chairman Alexander Sweek. The members will pass upon the proposition to establish headquarters in the Scott hotel favorably. It is presumed, with Secretary J. B. Ryan in charge.

Just when the national campaign will be opened in this city is a question for the committee to decide, as is the matter of assignment of campaign workers. It is the opinion of Chairman Sweek that nothing should be done in the way of active campaigning until the 1st of October.

BUT FEW TEMPLARS RETURNING THIS WAY

Advice received at the local office of the Southern Pacific railway from San Francisco indicates that only one special train of Knights Templars will return from the conclave via Portland. This train will consist of six cars, carrying the Chicago commandery, and will arrive in Portland about 8 o'clock Sunday morning.

PLENTY OF CARGO READY FOR ARABIA

IN EVENT OF THE STRAKER NOT ARRIVING ON TIME THE ALGOA WILL BE CALLED INTO SERVICE—THIS WILL BE DONE ANYWAY IF ENGAGEMENTS ARE HEAVY.

It is expected that the steamship Arabia, which was captured by the Russians and held at Vladivostok for several weeks, will sail from Yokohama tomorrow for Portland.

Should she be dispatched tomorrow, as is now thought probable, the big liner will reach Portland on or about September 21. She will bring a full cargo of various lines of the ships from the far east. Tea and matting will be among the principal consignments.
