SIX ITALIANS, NOT FIVE, IMPLICATED

Evidence Shows That Another Man Not Under Arrest Now Was in City View Saloon When Breuer Received Death Wound.

That a sixth Italian was implicated in the murder of Gus J. Breuer last Thursday night in the City View saloon, and that he cither fired the five shots or entered for the purpose of carrying away the money believed to have been coveted by the members in the plot, is mony to this effect was given in the municipal court this morning, when the case was brought before Judge Hogue for preliminary hearing. seis in which to make grain shipments to Europe, and the opinion seems general that there will not be, until the Chicago and Liverpool wheat markets get on a parity. There is more idle tonnage in port, for so early in the season, than has been the case for many years past and the indications are that it will be greatly added to within the next few weeks. A small fleet is now due to put in an appearance at the mouth of the river and with one or two exceptions not any of them have been fixed for an outward cargo. The exceptions noted were chartered several months ago, when the situation was entirely different from that of the present.

INJURED IN WOOLEN MILL.

(Journal Special Service.)

Salem, Or., Sept. 12.—Herbert Gambol, aged 24 years, fell from a ladder while at work in the Kay woolen mills soon after 7 o'clock this morning. He struck on his head and shoulder, and was seriously hurt. He was fixing the gearing of a shafting, and it is not known how the accident occurred. It is possible that a belt knocked the ladder down.

PROBO LYNCHED IN GROBGIA.

(Journal Special Service,)
Royatrone, Ga., Sept. 19.—For the shooting of C. Y. Daniel of Danielsville yesterday, Johnson Ware, a negro, was taken by a mob and lynched. After fatally wounding his victim the negro fied to the words, but was captured by the sheriff, who later attempted to protect his prisoner, but was overpowered.

Some are making conjectures as to what course the owners of the French bark Briseux will pursue on the charter question. She recently arrived in port with a general cargo, and as yet is not fixed for an outward voyage. Rather than have her lie idle in the harbor the belief is general that the owners will accept a lower rate than that which the combine has placed in force in order that she may be made to earn the bounty that the French government allows. The prince leaves an estate valued at nearly $5,000,000, and his title of prince together with this property, falls to his son Otto, who is but seven years of age. His death leaves a vacancy in the Reichstag, where he has steadfastly held himself as an Independent since his retirement, upon the death of his father, from the greater affairs of state.

Prince Herbert, the eldest son of the famous chancellor, was born in 1849. He was trained by his father for great staffairs are was steadily advanced dur he is said to have felt that he had been unjustly treated.

His career was nearly wrecked when in his youth he eloped with Princess Carolatto Beuthen of Bilesia. He later abandoned her in a most heartless manner, leaving her with neither funds nor flonor. She died of a broken heart.

In a measure this gross step from the paths of rectitude was forgotten, or at least was no longer the subject for gossip, after his marriage with Countess Hoyoss, which was celebrated in June. 1892. Three children were born of the marriage. Despite his somewhat haughty and overbearing manner, Prince Herbert had many warm friends and adherents, who always hoped for his return to a position of great importance.

r Dalles. Had the regular rates been charged, it is said that the fees would have amounted to $16.50. The explaination is further made that the Spencer will probably be forced to adopt the same tactics for self-protection. An intimation is made that the passenger rates to the head of navigation on the Spencer tomorrow are likely to be 50 cents. The regular fare is $1.50.

Should this rate be introduced, it is generally admitted that it would have the effect of precipitating a big rate war that would continue indefinitely. It is understood that the only way that a big reduction in rates can be prevented will be for the managers of the two lines to get together at once and patch up their differences.

Last year when the rate war was on the steamers were carrying passengers at the rate of 25 cents. It continued until the Spencer was taken out of commission to be lengthened out in order to give her greater carrying capacity. When she was put back on the run the old tariff was again put in force and maintained, so far as the general public has been aware. ONE OREGON APPLE has been aware.

RUSSIANS WILL SETTLE.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Baker City, Or., Sept. 19.—George F. Wright, one of the most prominent ranchers of Powder valley, whose home farm is but a short distance from Baker City, yesterday received a letter from Charles V. Galloway at St. Louis, who is one of the officials of the world's fair from Oregon. Mr. Galloway writes especially for the purpose of receiving a further exhibit of fruit from Oregon, particularly from eastern Oregon. He says that Arkansas leads all exhibits with the largest apple, having one that weighs 33 ounces. Exporters Are to Get Paid for Loss with the largest apple, having one that weighs 33 ounces.

Mr. Galloway asks for an apple from Oregon that will surpass this monster from Arkansas. Mr. Wright says that he will pay $5 for an apple raised in Oregon that will weigh more than 33 ounces, and that he will see that the grower or orchardist gets credit at the world's fair for the exhibit, and the premium, should he win it. Oregon has already made the finest exhibit of oherries, plums and prunes, and will probably secure the medal for those fruits.

Exporters Are to Get Paid for Loss

Sustained by Seinure of Arabia.

That part of the steamship Arabia's cargo which was consigned to Japanese ports, but which has been held at Viadivostok for many weeks past will be paid for by the Russian government at its market value. The shippers will also receive full compensation from the same source for the losses they have sustained by reason of delays experienced by the capture of the vessel and their inability to fill their orders.

This information was received this morning by M. C. Harrison & Co., the underwriting firm, and the shippers in turn have been notified of the decision reached by the St. Petersburg government. They are now getting together their claims, and will send them to St. Petersburg immediately. While they were protected from all possibility of loss by the underwriters, the exporters are highly gratified that the matter terminated in the manner it has. The exporters did not want to see the insurance people get the worst of the deal. One of the shippers expressed it in this wise:

"It was altogether a master of prin-

"It was altogether a matter of principle. No other nation in the world holds flour to be contraband of war, and the Russians should have been made to pay for the seizure long before this time. The delay they have put us to will undoubtedly cost them something."

GAIRS IN MARY ERANGERS HAS MORE TRAN A MILLION MEM-GRAND RECEPTION.

Ban Francisco, Bept. 19.—The opening day of the 86th annual session of the sovereign grand lodge, I. O. O. F., was a busy and enthusiastic one. At 9 o'clock this morning the delegates assembled in Native Son's hall, where they were formally welcomed on behalf of the city of San Francisco and the local branches of the order. John B. Goodwin, grand sire, responded to the welcomes, after which the sovereign grand lodge representatives proceeded to Native Sonshall, where the first business session was held. Grand Sire Goodwin made his annual report to the sovereign grand lodge.

was held. Grand Sive Goodwin made his annual report to the sovereign grand lodge.

In his report Mr. Goodwin called attention to the fact that the sovereign grand lodge met in San Francisco in 1869. At that time the subordinate lodge membership was 228,698. At the beginning of the present year it was 1,151,421, besides 284,681 women who belong to the order's auxiliary, the Degree of Rebekah, making a total of 1,426,193 members. The total revenue of the order in the year 1868 was $2,347,078.86. Last year it reached the sum of $225,597,961.14. In 1868 the amount expended for relief purposes was 3660,429,54, while in 1908 it was $4,326,509.19. Membership of the primary branch of the order on January 1 amounted to 1,151,421. Of these, 167,845 also belonged to the encampment branch of the order, 163,012 were members of the Rebekah lodges, and 18,832 wore uniforms of the Patriarchs Militant. With the combined membership in the two branches, that for the men and that for the women, the I. O. O. F. takes its place at the head of the fraternal orders of the world.
