

POLISH PATRIOT'S LIFE-LONG FIGHT

Col. Sobieski Makes War on America's Liquor Traffic.

At the Y. M. C. A. hall yesterday afternoon Col. John Sobieski addressed an audience of young men on the evils of the liquor habit.

Sixth in direct line of descent from King John III of Poland, the great patriot and defender of the faith, he is the last of a race of warriors.

Colonel Sobieski was in command of the reserve firing squad that executed Maximilian, whose glittering dream of empire in Mexico ended in ignominious death.

In Warsaw Colonel Sobieski was born, and it was there that his father was executed when the surviving Sobieski was 8 years old.

COL. JOHN SOBIESKI.

Colonel Sobieski's son died recently, so he is the last of the Sobieskis.

"John Sobieski was elected king in 1674," he said. "He reigned till 1698, and has been known as King John the Great. I am the sixth generation from him."

It was many years afterward, that it was the same boy who had grown large and strong, that commanded a firing squad in charge of the execution of a political prisoner.

Then the Sobieskis went to Brussels, and from there to Geneva, and to Paris and Berlin and many other European cities.

In appearance this last of a kingly race is the equal of his ancestors. He has a strong, expressive face and a large muscular frame.

SOUTHERN OREGON BUTTER WINNER OF FIRST PREMIUM

C. E. Gaddis, of Roseburg, and Gaddis Bros., of Medford, Carry Away the Honors of the Oregon State Fair.

Two creameries, one at Roseburg and the other at Medford, carried off only three years, swooped down upon their exhibitors with a tremendous surprise.

The butters of these now famous creameries surprised even the most experienced butter makers present at the fair.

The Gaddis Bros. at both their institutions, employ the hand separator system of manufacture, using the Sharples Tubular Separator, and these machines are freshly accredited with the honors of the successful creameries at Oregon's greatest exhibition since the organization of the agricultural society.

WORLD'S SCIENTISTS GATHER AT THE FAIR

(Journal Special Service.)

St. Louis, Sept. 19.—Great Britain, Germany, France, Austria, Italy, Switzerland and Holland are among the foreign countries represented at the congress of arts and sciences, which began a week's session at the exposition today.

The idea of the present congress grows out of the thought that the subdivision and multiplication of specialties in science has reached a stage at which investigators and scholars may derive both inspiration and profit from a general survey of the various fields of learning.

DEMOCRATS MEET FOR CONFERENCE

HEADQUARTERS IN CHICAGO—CHADWICK TAGGART DENIES THAT PARKER AND GORMAN WILL CONDUCE CAMPAIGN.

(Journal Special Service.) Chicago, Sept. 19.—Thomas Taggart, chairman of the Democratic national committee, arrived here this morning from Indianapolis for the purpose of conferring with Illinois politicians regarding the establishment of western headquarters at Chicago, and to outline his plans for the Democratic campaign in Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin.

The headquarters will be in Chicago, and National Committeeman Sullivan will be assisted by Committeeman Ryan of Wisconsin, who will occupy a suite at the Sherman house.

Taggart denied emphatically that he had relinquished any part of his control over national committee affairs. He will leave for New York late this afternoon.

Taggart's denial was occasioned by a dispatch from New York, which was sent out to various newspapers this morning as a special from the Herald, and stated that Judge Parker, assisted by Senator Gorman of Maryland, would do all intents and purposes have full control and direct the work of the coming campaign.

The Herald special also stated that Parker would hereafter spend four days of each week in New York City at campaign headquarters. Taggart made no reference to this, beyond saying that such a step was new to him, and that in view of the dignity which Judge Parker throws around a candidacy for the highest office in the world, he rather doubted his putting himself in the light of being a director of politics.

Taggart, in reviewing the situation, says he is more strongly convinced than ever before that this year will prove a fortunate one for the Democratic party, and predicts the election of Parker and Davis by a very safe majority.

Taggart said that Parker would probably not go west on a speaking tour, but might make a number of speeches in Indiana late this month and early in October.

National Committeeman George A. Knight, the Californian who opened the campaign in Chicago Saturday night, is billed for a number of speeches in Indiana late this month and early in October.

Politicians Throng Saratoga on Eve of State Convention.

(Journal Special Service.) Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 19.—On the eve of the Democratic state convention, which assembles here tomorrow for the nomination of a state ticket, all indications point to an interesting and lively gathering.

The hotel corridors are already thronged with politicians, though the majority of the delegates will not reach town until tomorrow morning.

Edward S. Shepard, backed by the endorsement of Daniel S. Lamont, is the man most mentioned for the gubernatorial nomination, though many of the friends of ex-Senator David B. Hill are still standing loyally by the candidacy of John B. Stanfield.

District Attorney Jerome, who aspires to head the ticket, stands high in the favor of the up-state leader, but the reported opposition of Tammany Hall is regarded as sufficiently strong to put a quietus to his ambition.
