SUMMARY.

(Journal Special Service.)

Reading, Pa., Sept 20.—From a football hero to a sentence of six months in the Berks Jail and his wife under a cloud, such is the story of the downfall of Henry S. Batchelder, who played left guard on the Yale cleven in Ell's championship games last year. In court he was called for trial on the charge of keeping a gambling house. Batchelder has been proprietor here of the cigar store for the past few months. It is alleged that he allowed card playing for money and cigars in the rear room. His parents came here from New Haven. Conn., and made every effort to settle the case, but without success. Batchelder pieaded guilty, expecting to get off with a fine. To the surprise of everybody in court he was sentenced to six months imprisonment and fined $100.

While he stood before the bar the grand jury returned a true bill against his wife on the charge of embezziing $2,500 by means of a duplicate bank book from Berg Bros. In whose store she was employed before her marriage.

As May Cassidy, she met Batchelder at the Yele-Princeton game. Batchelder gave up his law studies, followed her to Reading, married her, and she was arrested a week later on complaint of Berg Bros.

Royal club team of the city found Highland team easy Sunday and out by the score of 9 to 1. The

EUGENE SQUAD HOLDS ITS FIRST PRACTICE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
University of Oregon, Eugens, Sept.
.—Last evening after supper in the ormitory President D. L. Campbell ad-

20.—Last evening after supper in the dormitory President D. L. Campbell addressed the men of the dormitory in connection with the forming of a dormitory club. There are about 60 men in the dormitory and it has been found necessary to form an association for the purpose of providing funds for the expenses. In keeping up the furnishing of the reading room and reception rooms. Marion McClain was elected president of the executive committee and the rest of the members of the board, four in number, will be elected this week. The work of the board will be in keeping up the literature for the reading room and in keeping order among the occupants of the dormitory, as the sophomore class has already commenced hasing the freshmen in a mild way.

Football practice was held yesterday afternoon under the direction of Captain Templeton and about 25 men turned out in suits. Practice consisted in punting and catching punts and falling on the hall. The entire squad was given a short run around the field to develop the wind. Hammond and McIntyrs, Ashland freshmen, are big fellows and are picked for the team. Hathaway of Portland, Harris from Baker City, are also two likely candidates from the baby class. Hugs, center on last year's eleven, has returned, but has not as yet donned a suit. Penland, sub guard of last year, has returned and is looking for a chance to make good on this year's team. Chandler, 'varsity right end, who was one of the ends picked for the All-Northwest tast year, has not showed up for practice yet, as he is a little under the weather, but he will be out next week. By the time that Diok Smith arrives to coach the team shere will be over 30 candidates from which an exceedingly strong team can be selected.

(Journal Special Service.) Moscow, Idaho, Sept. 20.—J. W. Galloway, manager of the University of Idaho athletic and football team, has arrived and gives the following statement concerning the team and the season they expect to have: 'The team will be practically the same with a few changes. The lineup will include Snow, center; Thomas, right guard, Larson, left guard; Rodgers, and C. Smith, tackles (they were by far the best in the northwest last year). We have no ends. Middleton will play quarterback, Tilly fullback, and John Miller right halfback, and Fogle may be on the line. DRILLING CONTEST FOR $1000 A SIDE

(Journal Special Service.) Sumpter, Or., Sept. 20.—Not a little the present time on account of a drill-ing contest scheduled to take place in Bourne this week. D. A. McLeod of this city and William Maddern of Baker sporting world up to last week was 60. college, is trying for end. He is a good player, also a sprinter, and holds close to the world's record on the quarter.

"As to the games arranged for I can hardly say that any have been definitely decided upon. The University of Washington at Sestile, Boseman and Buttemay, however, be practically called arranged, and Whitman college at Walla Walla, the Washington Agricultural college at Pullmen, Oregon Agricultural college and the Lewisten normal school will no doubt all be played, although arrangements have not yet been perfected. We are going to have Seattle come here and run an excursion from Spokane, I, believe that the outlook for football, taking it all in all, is better than ever before." fers a purse of $1,000 to the winner, and the match will be held there. A side bet of $1,000 has also been arranged.

To date there have been objections to the contract or agreement entered into between the two men. The first objection was raised by the McLeod people because of the omission of the word "not" in a very important part of the agreement. The second agreement as signed has been objected to by McLeod's backers on account of it stating that the drilling must be through a stone and exactly in a perpendicular direction. This, the McLeod men claim their champion has never done, and it would be a hardship for him to attempt to do his drilling in a way most unusual to him. These same parties claim that Maddern, on the other hand, is familiar with the straight down method of drilling, and could easily win by this advantage. GETS SIX MONTHS and could easily win by this advantage.

McLeod has shown his prowess in matches of this kind by winning the match at Sumpter on last Fourth of July, and also carrying off first prize in the recent drilling match held at Bourne on Labor day. On the other hand, Maddern is an unknown quatity, and no one in this vicinity knows exactly what he can do. However, he has all kinds of backers in Baker City, and is undoubtedly a good man. Great interest has been aroused here in the coming event.

ONE ON JAMES & RUBER.

"I see that you won very heavily yes-terday on Afrikander, Mr. Keene." The financier was a triffe startled.
"My dear sir, I did not bet on Afri-kander yesterday. If you represent one of the papers, will you kindly say so?"
"I am not a reporter. I am a Pinker-ton agent." replied the man. "Somebody who has possession of your clubhouse badge has won heavily on the horse I named."

Mr. Keene brightened.
"I understand it now." said he. "Yesterday I fost my badge outside the inclosure."
The Pinkerton man smiled like Sherlock Holmes, only more like him than the gifted Doyle can write.
"We have the man, Mr. Keene. Your badge and his winnings will be turned over to you."

Aberdeen, Sept. 20.—Joe Galanki, the former ballplayer, and who is now style as the champion wrestler of Gray's Habor, has been matched for a bout wit D. A. McMillan, the all-style wrestle of Milwaukee, to be pulled off at the place on September 21.

ROSE DENIES THAT HE WANTS TO FIGHT

(Journal Special Service.)

Chicago, Sept. 20.—Ralph Rose, the young giant shot putter of the University of Michigan, who a short time ago said he would like a chance to meet Jeffries, now says that he never had any intention of entering the prize ring. The Chicago man who met Rose when here in training said he was always talking about Jeff and considered him easy, and filled every one who would listen to him with stories of how he would defeat the champion.

NOVEL IDEA OF

THEATRICAL MAN

THEATRICAL MAN

Wilfred Roger, directing the second annual tour of Frank Bacon, in "The Hills of California," has bit upon one of the most novel advertising schemes ever undertaken by a theatrical manager. He is at present negotiating with Secretary I. B. McMahill of the chamber of commerce of San Jose, Cal., to distribute 40,000 one-fourth pound boxes of California dried raisins and Banta Clara valley prunes to the patrons of his theatre.

The matter has received favorable consideration from the San Jose chamber of commerce and they are preparing the fruit in order to have it ready by the time the theatre company reaches the big eastern cities which will be in about a mosth.

GALLOWAY IS NOW

The best known jockey to die this season was Andy Hamilton. He died in France on February 1. Hamilton was born in this country and, although black in color, was at one time considered the best in America.

The death of Caesar Young in New York City took from the ranks of the American bookmakers one of the best in the business. His death is still fresh in the minds of the general public, he having been found dead in a carriage, seated beside Nan Patterson, an actress, on Baturday, June 5.

The most conspicuous figure, to be taken from the boxing world by death was James E. Kennedy, the New York yromoter of athletic sports. He died on an elevated train in Brooklyn on April 26. Tommy Warren was the only boxer of prominence to die since the first of the year. There have been three deaths in the prize ring, but none of the viotims were known outside their home city, and, like all cases of this kind, their deaths were due to lack of training and not from punishment dealt out by the crackling of the flames and she had barely time to escape before the entire house was enveloped. She got out of the burning building in her nightgown. Besides the home of Miss Seidleman, a barn in the rear of her house was also burned and two valuable horses, a milch cow, an express wagon and a quantity of feed went up in smoke.

The fire was discovered by employes of the crematory, near by, and a telephone call sent by them to the fire headquarters called out Hose and Engine No. 6. Owing to the fact that there was no hydrant flearer than 1,500 feet, hose had to be laid all that distance and as a result the firemen had a hard fight. The fire burned flercely, and because of the low pressure on the water, the men gould not conquer the flames and the last vestige of the buildings was wiped out. It was more
