

WILLIAMS AGAIN WITH DUGDALE'S BROWNS

WILLIAMS AGAIN WITH DUGDALE'S BROWNS... (Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 23.—Portland went down to defeat for the third time yesterday in a shut-out game. It was all because Dugdale's men could not hit Williams. Seattle's pitcher allowed but three hits. One was in the second and two in the eighth. The game was fast and snappy.

Dugdale announced yesterday that he had signed Kinkie, shortstop of the Butte team. He will be on hand next week. Kinkie is not an unusually fine player, but he is steady and reliable.

LONG OBJECTS TO GRANT FOR REFEREE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Seattle, Wash., Sept. 23.—Jack Grant of Portland, one of the best ring critics in the west, is not satisfied to have Long for his combat with Charlie Henry at the Grand open house a week from tonight.

The articles of agreement state clearly that the club shall name the referee, and why Grant should be objectionable to Long is something that is worrying the sports.

FROM PRIZE RING TO CAFE PROPRIETOR

After years spent in almost constant training preparatory to entering the prize ring, where he met and defeated the best men in his class, Monty Billy Smith, the hero of countless ring battles, has at last announced his positive retirement from the ring. During his fighting career the "Mysterious One" used good judgment where most of his brother champions of flaccidity were lacking, and he was able to win a record of victory to tide him over for the expected rainy day.

In the last four years Smith has taken on considerable flesh, which makes it almost impossible for the one time peer of all the waterweights to again enter the ring, and knowing this fact, the genial Billy has drawn upon the fruits of his conquests and invested part of his earnings in a cozy little cafe on North Third street, which he purchased from the well known horseman, Chris Simpson. Smith's place is fast becoming the headquarters of the local sporting fraternity, who gather there frequently to discuss the fate of other sportsmen, upon which the genial proprietor is a recognized authority.

IRREGULARITIES ARE FOUND IN TAX ROLLS

While making an abstract of the records in the county clerk's office for the year 1923, last Wednesday, Capt. J. Alexander discovered alterations in the abstracts which apparently intended to cover the evidence of what the officials say could have been nothing but illegal work.

Though L. Lewis holds a receipt for delinquent taxes in 1923, he is not credited with the payment on either the first or second delinquent rolls for 1923, and it is apparent that the money was never turned over to the county.

COURT BAILIFF IS MORE THAN SEVENTY

Capt. W. S. Powell, who for more than five years has been the bailiff in Judge Frasier's department of the circuit court, was 73 years old last Wednesday. Despite his advanced age, Captain Powell is cutting a wisdom tooth. In the front of his mouth he wears false teeth. If the wisdom tooth had only erupted in the right place, says the bailiff, he would give it a warm welcome.

CAPTAIN MONKS TO LEAD COLUMBIA

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Seattle, Wash., Sept. 23.—The fastest practice of the season was held last night by the Multnomah club's eleven and when it was finished the crowd was so large that the club was almost swamped from a swimming pool.

At a meeting yesterday of the members of last year's varsity who have returned this year, Thomas H. Monks of Portland, Or. Was unanimously elected captain of the team for 1924. Tom played right tackle for the varsity last year and is considered one of the strongest tackles in this section of the country.

The outlook for a strong team at the university for the coming season is very encouraging just at present. A meeting of all the students was held yesterday and a great deal of enthusiasm was aroused, the result being that the team turned out in uniform to help the team along. Coach Leogran seemed very well pleased with the spirit shown and no doubt under his careful and practical coaching Columbia will turn out the best team this season.

The schedule this year includes games with Corvallis, Albany, Pacific University, Tillamook, McMinnville, and other colleges. The football team will probably be played about October 2.

DIAMOND GLENNINGS

The Browns are having hard luck in Seattle. The Silverhats have taken three straight.

George Engel, who was a member of the Browns last season, is pitching for Kansas City in the Western league. He was with the Joplin team of the Missouri Valley league until joining the Blues.

Henry Reita, the veteran, who was with Hank Harris' Seals this season, is playing great ball for Joe Cantillon's Milwaukee club in the American association. Moses Baxter is also a member of this club.

Billy O'Hara, the outfielder, who is well known to the local fans as a member of last season's Oakland team, has been bought from the Toledo club by the Boston Americans for next season. A fine fielding game for the big leaguer, but is not hitting up to the standard.

GRIDIRON KNIGHTS WORK LIKE TROJANS

The fastest practice of the season was held last night by the Multnomah club's eleven and when it was finished the crowd was so large that the club was almost swamped from a swimming pool.
