

LAUNCHING TO BE MADE A HOLIDAY

SEATTLE MAKING PREPARATIONS FOR THE NEBRASKA EVENT—THE THOUSAND VISITORS EXPECTED TO WITNESS FLURGE OF THE NEW BATTLESHIP.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Seattle, Wash., Sept. 24.—Mayor Ballinger has recommended to the heads of departments of the city government that all city employees, who can be spared from duty on October 7, Nebraska launching day, be given leaves of absence.

The same rule will be observed in the county offices and only legal business, which cannot be left undone, will be put through on that day. All the stores of the city will close during the hours of the launching in order that their clerks may be present at the ceremony.

The last list of names to whom invitations will be sent has been handed to Moran Bros. In all there will be 20,000 issued and will include, outside of 5,000 in this state and Oregon, the president, members of his cabinet, senators and members of the house of representatives, army and navy officers, members of the supreme court and in fact everyone in official life.

It is estimated that at least 10,000 visitors will be present on that day by invitation and probably as many more who come of their own accord and on general invitation from the municipality.

One of the features of the celebration will be the handing over to Moran Bros. of a certified check for $100,000, the amount of Seattle's subsidy subscribed by patriotic citizens at the time the award of the contract was being considered in order that the shipbuilders might scale their estimate and receive the contract. About $25,000 worth of the notes have already been paid, on two days' notice, and the balance will be on hand before the time needed.

Everything will be done to make the stay of the visitors enjoyable and many entertainments for their amusement are being arranged. The official visitors will be tendered a reception in the Washington hotel.

ATTENDANCE LARGE AT CHEMAWA SCHOOL

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Chemawa, Or., Sept. 24.—Eighteen pupils were received at the Indian school yesterday. They came in two parties, one of 15 being brought from Koche Harbor, Wash., by C. O. French, and the other by Mrs. McBride of South Bend, Wash.

The attendance is larger at present than it was at this time last year, and in all probability the record of last year will be broken. Last year the enrollment was 868. The work at the school has settled into its regular groove, all of the industrial shops now being open. Mr. Charles A. Woods, the superintendent, returned from his vacation, arrived yesterday morning with his family from England, where he has been visiting for the past three months. He reports a very pleasant trip.

STILL THE QUESTION IS: "WHAT DID THE WOGGLE-BUG SAY?"

The Wogglebug, wise man of the party, undertakes to answer all questions for his comrades from Ox. He has to answer one each week. His answer is not printed. The reader is left to discover it. The pictures and descriptive matter make this comparatively easy to the active mind. Both the pictures and the story are guides to the solution of the problem, and the question admits of but one correct answer. The puzzle requires only ordinary skill and knowledge of facts included in history, biography, botany and natural history, or an acquaintance with places, buildings or emblems about which information is easily obtainable. It is not a guessing contest, but a trial of skill.

To stimulate interest in the visit of the people from the Land of Ox, The Journal will give $50.00 in cash each month to those of its readers who send in correct or nearly correct answers to the questions put to the Wogglebug by his companions.

Form for Wogglebug contest with fields for Name, Street and Number, Town or City, State, and a coupon for the Sunday Journal.

FILL OUT THE ABOVE COUPON. Also the coupon to be found each day in The Journal until Saturday, September 24. This gives you seven chances to answer the question suggested in Sunday's paper. Each Sunday a fresh question is asked. This question is to be answered on the coupon printed on that day and on each of the six week days following, except that in the week beginning September 25 only the coupons up to and including September 29 will be counted in that week's answers. SAVE YOUR COUPONS, and on the last day of the month send them all to THE WOGGLEBUG EDITOR, The Journal, Portland. This will end the contest for September, and the prizes will be awarded very early in the month of October.

- FIFTY DOLLARS IN CASH PRIZES WILL BE GIVEN AS FOLLOWS: 1. For the greatest number of correct answers, $10.00. 2. For the next largest number of correct answers, $5.00. 3. For the third largest number of correct answers, $2.50. 4. For the fourth largest number of correct answers, $2.00. 5. For the five next largest numbers of correct answers, $1.50 each. 6. For the ten next largest numbers of correct answers, $1.00 each. 7. For the eleven next largest numbers of correct answers, 50c each.

RULES OF THE CONTEST. The largest number of correct answers wins. All coupons for any one month will be consecutively numbered, and must be placed in one envelope and arranged in order of their publication. Only one coupon of the same date can be placed in the same envelope of answers for the month. If more than one individual should have every coupon correctly marked and properly arranged, the first prize would be divided between the winners. Other prizes will be similarly divided in case any number of contestants have the same number of answers that are equally correct, but not absolutely so. Contestants need not write the same answer on all coupons issued for any one week. A different answer can be written for each day, but if you are sure you are right, you will, of course, write the same answer on all coupons issued for any one Sunday. Remember, the largest number of correct answers wins. All coupons for any one month must be placed in the same envelope and sent to the Editor of The Journal by 10:00 a. m. of the 24 day of the following month.

CASCADE RESERVE NOT HURT BY FIRE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Hood River, Or., Sept. 24.—Adolf Aeschoff, supervisor of the north half of the Cascade forest reserve, is awaiting final reports from his head rangers. So far, says Mr. Aeschoff, the fires have done practically no damage within the reserve. What fires did get beyond control were confined to old burns, and really did more good than damage. Mr. Aeschoff speaks in highest praise of the forest rangers. Some of the worst fires started in the Bull Run reserve, but after five days' work was extinguished. Many fires started from careless campers, but Mr. Aeschoff says the Indians are the hardest people he has to contend with. The presence of sheep in the mountains drives out the game, and the red men, anxious for revenge, set fires to drive out the sheep. The sheep men, Supervisor Aeschoff says, assisted materially in keeping down the fires this summer. This is one of the requirements demanded when grazing permits are granted.

TRIAL OF THE MANN IS ON AT CHEHALIS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Chehalis, Wash., Sept. 24.—The trial of the case of the state against J. H. Mann, charged with having been in a conspiracy with his wife to burn a millinery store which the Manns had in Centralia, to secure the insurance money, Mann was in Little Falls when the fire occurred and disclaims any knowledge of it or how it was started. The jurors are here in attendance at court, awaiting the case of Mrs. Mann, which is expected to come on immediately on the conclusion of the case against her husband. There are 48 witnesses in the case and the taking of the testimony will likely be concluded today. Mann formerly worked for the Tacoma Mill company.

WAB OF SALOONS.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Seattle, Wash., Sept. 24.—E. H. James, representing the civic union, last night filed with the city clerk a petition, made on behalf of the union, to revoke the saloon license of J. Ferguson and Jamieson & McFarland, on the grounds that gambling has been conducted in their places contrary to law.

SEATTLE MAN FINDS HE HAS TWO WIVES

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Seattle, Wash., Sept. 24.—R. L. Fox, plaintiff in an action brought by him against the Great American Marble company for an accounting, is much worried for, since beginning the suit, he has discovered he is married once too often. When the action was brought Libbie M. Fox intervened as co-plaintiff. Yesterday Margaret Fox put in an appearance and asked the court to be added as co-plaintiff as the real wife of Fox. Fox and Libbie Fraser were married in California in 1923, and now have a child four years of age. At that time Fox believed his wife, Margaret, who deserted him in Canada years ago, was dead, as had been reported to him. He heard nothing of her until a few days ago. Fox has instituted a suit for divorce from Margaret, but this will be resisted in order to protect her claim in his marble company action.

NEW PARLAMENT IN PERU.

(Journal Special Service.) Lima, Peru, Sept. 24.—Jose Pardo, who was elected president of Peru last June, was inaugurated today. The popular discontent which prevailed to an ominous degree earlier in the summer has subsided in a great measure and the administration of President Pardo begins under auspices much more favorable than were hoped for a few months since.

GARDENERS RECOMMEND.

(Journal Special Service.) Burlington, N. J., Sept. 24.—Congressman John J. Gardner was re-nominated for his seventh successive term at the congressional convention held here today by the Republicans of the Second district. The nomination was made by acclamation.

DISTRICT FAIR AT EUGENE ENDS

GROUND AND DAYLILIES CROWDED WITH INTERESTED VISITORS WHO ARRIVED TO TAKE PART IN TODAY'S DAY KICKERS—ADDRESSING LARGELY.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Eugene, Or., Sept. 24.—The Eugene district fair has come to a close after five days' successful run. The fair was considered a success in almost every particular except the rains, despite the rain which fell in heavy showers on Thursday and Friday.

There were by far more paid admissions to the pavilion than at last year's fair and the exhibits in every department were more complete than a year ago.

Yesterday being Eugene and Pioneer's day, immense crowds of people crowded the grounds and pavilion. The receipts at the pavilion door broke all previous records. The band played martial music all the afternoon and the streets about the pavilion and the Midway presented a lively appearance.

Last night Governor George E. Chamberlain and Hon. Jefferson Myers addressed an audience of a thousand people in the pavilion. The addresses were both appreciated and elicited rounds of applause from the enthusiastic listeners. The distinguished visitors were lavishly entertained by the fair board and citizens in general during their short visit here. Other features of last night's program were music by the band, a recitation by Harold Wells, a vocal solo by Miss Grace Mount and a reading by E. R. Moon.

The work of arranging the premiums has been completed. The general opinion is expressed that the judges did their work in an impartial manner. Many of the stock exhibits and race horses are being taken to the grounds today and the attractions of the Midway are folding their tents preparatory to moving away.

The directors of the fair association express themselves as being well pleased with the financial phase of the fair and promise that next year they will have even a larger and better exhibition.

HIGH SCHOOL CROWDED.

The attendance at the Eugene high school is very much larger than expected, and it is plainly evident that the directors will have to employ another teacher and fit up another room. The total registration is 340. Some of the rooms at present are accommodating more than 40 students each, whereas the capacity of each room is 31 students. Chairs are being used to accommodate the overflow. The freshman class alone numbers 120. The directors figured on 100 as the maximum attendance in that class. There were 80 graduates of the eighth grade in the Eugene public schools last year and 25 of these have not yet presented themselves for entrance in the high school. It will be readily seen by these figures that the city has made a wonderful growth in population during the last year. The school directors will meet soon and make arrangements to relieve this congestion.

Lea Mann was given an examination before Justice of the Peace Wintermeier yesterday afternoon on the charge of larceny of some bed clothing from the Knocore hotel on June 19. He was bound over in the sum of $100 to appear for trial at the circuit court in November.

FALLS DOWN A STAIRWAY.

Mrs. Al Leonard while coming down the rear stairway at the Hoffman house yesterday, slipped and fell to the bottom of the stairs, where she lay in an unconscious condition for some time before she was discovered. She was carried to the hospital and it was found that her spine was badly injured and that she sustained severe bruises on various parts of her body. She will recover.

FREEMAN'S CASE IS UP TO A GRAND JURY

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Helena, Mont., Sept. 24.—The United States grand jury, acting upon the opinion of District Attorney Beach, that it had jurisdiction, has commenced an inquiry into the alleged assault by Frederick of Police Travis, ex-Mayor, Edward, ex-City Attorney, Horvay and Sam Goodman upon George Freeman, receiver of the United States land office. The attack is said to have been due to the refusal of Freeman to divulge the name of the author of the charge that they had solicited for police protection $7,500 from a gambling-house. Five witnesses have been examined.

WILL BOND OFFICIALS.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Spokane, Sept. 24.—Commissioner Omo is arranging for somewhat of a revolution in the way of conducting the business of the office of secretary of the board of city commissioners. Practically every official in the employ of the city is to be placed under bonds, especially those at the head of a department. In connection with the plan which has been ordered that the superintendent of the isolation hospital be placed under a $2,000 bond.

ORGANIZER CLUB.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Corvallis, Sept. 24.—A Republican club was organized in this city last night. The organization was only temporary, but it is intended to make it permanent next Monday evening. George Bird was elected president and Mr. George C. Ellsbury secretary. A large number of Republicans are expected to enroll their names on the list of members. The new voters appear to be all Republicans this year, or at least Roosevelt men.
