Olds, Wortman & King Portland's Quality Shop The "Different Store" Olds, Wortman & King

HERE'S A PAGE FILLED FULL, PRESSED DOWN AND BRIMMING OVER WITH HAPPY STORE NEWS OF A BIG VALUE MONDAY, TOMORROW, AND AN EVENTFUL WEEK TO FOLLOW

FREE!--PLATINO PHOTOGRAPHS--FREE!

"Thought Suggestion"—You think of "TIFFANY," and at once bright gems flash their scintillations across your mind. You think "Gowns," and, quick as a meteor, OLDS, WORTMAN & KING travels thro' your gray matter. Think photography, and instantly, in burning letters, the name of "MOORE" appears on the screen of one's mind. What "TIFFANY" is to the jewelry world—what "LIBBEY" means stamped on beautiful cut glass gems—what "OLDS, WORTMAN & KING" stands for in the fashionable world—that same, is the name "MOORE," embossed upon a superb likeness of one's self or friends. "MOORE" embraces, surrounds and bounds all that's best today in modern photography. Naturally enough then this store turns to "MOORE" in making arrangement whereby we are going to pay for and Give away absolutely Free, 10,000 sittings and 10,000 photographs by this famous local photographer

this artist in high grade work, TO OUR PATRONS—FREE! WHY THIS OFFER IS MADE—OUR OBJECT: Is to induce early morning shopping. As the great Portland public are aware, this store has been held back from needed expansion, for nearly a year now, by the slow construction of the new Sixth street annex building. This surely promised us next month now—Good! More power to the contractors. But, MEANWHILE, we're crowded away beyond the capacity of the old building by the enormous shopping throngs that favor us with their patronage. Any way to help ourselves and our public? Yes: By inducing earlier shopping. The aisles that become clogged later in the day with a surging mass of eager buyers are seldom crowded during the earlier hours. We're going to try and divide the overflow business, so as to make it easier for our good clientele to shop here at their favorite store, and for our helpers to wait upon them as thoroughly as we desire they should. Monday being a special bargain day, WE MAKE THIS TEMPTING OFFER! WITH EVERY PURCHASE, ANYWHERE IN THE STORE, OF TWO DOLLARS ($2.00) OR OVER, BETWEEN THE HOURS OF 8 AND 11 A. M. ON MONDAY—TOMORROW—ONLY, we will present the purchaser, absolutely free, an order on E. W. MOORE, Seventh and Washington streets, for one large size platinum photograph, nicely matted on mat 14x10 1/2 inches. The order is good for a satisfactory sitting and may be used by any one in whose name it is made out at the SOUVENIR DESK, conveniently placed near the Fifth street entrance. With every purchase of $2.00 or over, made in the store tomorrow, between the hours of 8 and 11 a. m. only, you will receive from the cashier's desk a ticket like this:

Kindly Present this Ticket at Once for exchange for Platinum Souvenir Bond, at desk as advertised.
OLDS, WORTMAN & KING

See samples of Platinum Photos in one of our large display windows.

SPECIAL NOTE—But one photograph of any one person will be taken; but purchasers may use as many as they please, provided a different person sits each time. Get pictures of your relatives and friends.

Exchange as above for your order for sitting and large Platinum Photographs at the desk.

A Matchless Three-Day Sale of New Autumn Silks

Open Alongside the Dress Goods Bargains

IN THE ANNEX—FIRST FLOOR AND FOR THREE DAYS, TOO—MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY

If you'll read these items you'll no longer wonder why this is termed the "Silk Store" by Portland womenfolk, or why we do the silk business of the northwest. You've heard of the mercurial man who, wanting a dock-tailed dog, cut off an inch of tail at a time because it seemed cruel to snip it off at once. That's in line with the silk store! Last year was not a "silk year"—and stocks of raw and prepared silk piled up. London silk men had 77 per cent more last December than the same month a year previous. Instead of taking their loss at once they've dribbled out the lots—and American silk mills, being in shape to buy, have bought, as bargains offered. Some failures occurred, and the stocks of such mills were finished by new owners, who got the goods at a loss. It's sunrise again in the silk world. A bright day is at hand and, for a big, long day's work, silk men want to start with cleared decks. Even the first of the season's newest silks are swept out with the rest. 'Tis a momentous time for silk buying and OUR BUYER IS NOW IN NEW YORK. That's how we are enabled to offer you for the next three days, new:

- Fancy Suit Silks, the balance of a manufacturer's stock, bought by our buyer, now in the market, at tremendous sacrifice, all colors in the assortment; our regular 85c grade, what some silk sellers call their $1.00 value; special for three days only, per yard 46c.
- BONNETT'S BLACK SILKS For which we are sole agents in Oregon, in a new complete line, all the new weaves are here in this beautiful and best wearing silk made.
- Regular 75c 18-inch all pure Silk Black Taffeta, "Warranted to wear" woven on every yard, an excellent wearing grade; special for three days only, per yard 49c.
- Regular $1.00 21-inch all pure Silk Colored Taffeta, the best wearing silk and value in the city, all colors in the line, cream and black included; special for three days only, per yard 69c.

Be sure to see Monday's Papers for extended list of Monday Specials in other departments.

The Voting in the Panama Canal Contest

Portland's young folks have taken very kindly to the proposition extended by this house in the matter of the award, to some favorite school, of a valuable model of the much talked of and written about Panama canal. The youngsters are hustling with vim and vigor, each for his or her school, and the votes are piling up. The result at 5 p. m. on Saturday is as printed below. We mention only the 19 leaders on account of limited space:

High	11,842
St. Mary's Academy	11,577
Atkinson	8,437
Park	8,317
Williams Avenue	7,844
Falling	7,494
Harrison	7,444
Portland Academy	6,348
Chapman	6,261
Clinton Kelly	6,237
Total votes	124,428

There'll Be Great Ribbon Selling This Week

Thousands of yards of bright new ribbons for garnitures for autumn gowns. Most of Portland's ribbon business centers at this store. Ribbons are—newer, brighter, prettier and better ribbons—and appreciable savings in price. Here's good Ribbon News.

Just received—a line of beautiful Satin Taffeta Ribbon, 3 1/2 and 4 inches wide, in blue, pink, white, cream, black, three shades of brown, maize and red; the very well fitting for stocks and girdles; special for Monday and the balance of week, per yard .25c. Also a line of pretty two-toned ribbon in all colors, 4 inches in width, regular value 40c; special for Monday and all the week, per yard .25c.

Richardson's Pure Linen Handkerchiefs.

Ladies' Handkerchiefs, pure linen, very sheer quality, six in a box, regular 15c; special for Monday and the rest of week at six for .25c.

Laces and Insertions.

A great special sale of Net Appliques and Venice Bands, also black Cluny Bands, Venice Galoons in white and cream and Oriental Net Top Laces; these all come in odd pieces, half every yard in a quantity beginning with 15c and 20c; special for Monday and all the week, per yard .15c.

Annual Autumn Sale of Oriental Rugs

We know we sell more Oriental Rugs than all Portland storerooms combined, and we know we deserve to. A given thing at a given price must be good value, else no business follows. As this business has grown so vast, and is still growing, it's prices must fit best to the purses carried by wise and prudent people. We open Monday, at Special Sale prices, a collection of Oriental and antique Rugs unrivaled outside the boundaries of New York. In carpet sizes that embrace Khiras, Ferlans and Cashmires, smaller and medium sizes that include Bokharas, Kirminshahs, Savoukas, Selmas, Antolias, Loughis, Shiras, Daghastans, Shirvans, Massoula, Kazaksets. The time for brightening up dull spots about the rooms at home is here, and these superb, rare old rug gems will help a lot—the prices during the Opening Sale, a lot more. The reductions trend this way:
