

SOCIETY PREPARING FOR A BRISK SEASON OF GAYETY

THE fall season has not fully opened yet. Many invitations are out for social affairs of various kinds to take place within the next few weeks but the importance has actually taken place. Clubs and societies are rapidly assuming shape and several have fixed the date for the first meeting. The dancing season is not fully on yet but many invitations have been issued.

Interest is now centered about the appearance of Josef Hofmann tomorrow evening at the Harmonium. There is much regret to musical circles that Leo Charles Sparks will leave at the end of the week. He goes from here east and later to Europe where he has a number of winter concert engagements. During his short stay in Portland Mr. Sparks has won many friends, and he had a large number of pupils who put in their best work during the short time.

The fall openings of military and fashion parades have engaged much attention during the week. With a change of weather and the decided change of wearing apparel and fall styles will rule from now on.

Miss Lillian Myers left Wednesday for New York, where she is to be married to Herman Herz, Jr., next Wednesday. Miss Myers has many friends who regretted to see her leave. She is an accomplished musician and is popular among her social set. Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Harris are receiving today at 122 O'Leary street in honor of their daughter, Miss Anna Elizabeth, whose engagement to Matthew P. Gowans has just been announced. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gilbert of 410 Third street are also receiving in honor of their daughter, Miss Jennie and her fiancé, J. M. Sevansky.

Events of the Week

The wooden wedding celebrating the fifth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Komp, held at Blanche's hall on Saturday evening, the 17th, was pronounced a most enjoyable affair by those present. Good music for the occasion was furnished by Mrs. H. B. McCabe and Mrs. G. E. Hoffmann. Whist, ping-pong and dancing were indulged in. Many handsome presents were bestowed upon the young couple, who in a very pretty little ceremony renewed their marriage vows. Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Woelein as attendants. Refreshments were then served, and at a late hour the guests departed.

The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Kemp, Mrs. S. Dewey, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Hoffmann, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Wensley, Mr. and Mrs. A. Woelein, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. McCracken, Mrs. H. W. Dewey, Mrs. C. E. Clouse, Mrs. H. B. McCabe, Misses Edith Kemp, Anna and Rosalia Hoffmann, Genevieve Holmes, Millie Mischel, Myrtle Bates, Nannie Chambers, Bernice McCracken, Mrs. H. P. Kauter, Carl Ritterspacher, Dr. Fred Smith, Francis Dewey, John Hoffmann, Edgar Wensley, Stewart and Leslie McCracken.

The San Francisco Examiner of last Sunday mentions in very flattering terms Mrs. Walter B. Honeyman, who has been visiting there since August. It says: "Walter B. Honeyman, of Portland, Ore., has taken apartments at the Nordorf on Bush street for the next few months. Mr. Honeyman is expected to arrive shortly. The Honeymans are prominent Portland society people who entertain a great deal, who own horses, carriages and two automobiles. For several weeks the attractive woman has been a guest of the Chris Bowers and the Joseph Meyersteins. Ever since her arrival she has been entertained such a lot by the friends of both the interesting couples. By the way, the Chris Bowers will leave the early part of next month for a trip to St. Louis, New York, Washington and will then journey on to Europe. The Meyersteins will leave in December for a trip east."

A party of Portlanders will start east Monday, October 1, to visit St. Louis together. After a few days at the fair Dr. E. L. House and Rev. C. E. Chase will leave to attend the general Congregational convention at the Moline Hotel. Mrs. E. L. House and her son, Arthur, will proceed to Boston for a visit of several months; Mrs. H. J. Miller will go to Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. J. A. White to Washington, D. C.; Mrs. F. E. Beach and her daughter Ruth to Buffalo, N. Y.; and Mrs. C. Taylor will return home through California, visiting various points along the way.

Miss Beale Block was happily surprised at her home in Oregon City Monday evening by a party of her friends. The evening was passed with whist and rooms were pretty with cut flowers, the reception-room with red geraniums, the library with La France roses and ferns and the dining-room with a variety of sweet peas and roses. Haric was the game played, suggestive of the occasion, and Miss Esther Krouse and Mrs. H. C. Hoehle were the prizes. Punch was served throughout the afternoon and later light refreshments were served in the dining-room. Miss Mayne Schulte, sister of the hostess, assisted in entertaining.

Mrs. S. A. Lipman was hostess at a charming dinner Thursday evening at her home, 311 Clair and Wayne streets. Tables decorated were set in red with red shaded lights. Besides Mr. and Mrs. S. Lipman there were present Mr. and Mrs. Leam White, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Schellinger, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Lipman and Mrs. L. A. Frank. Mrs. Schellinger will leave shortly for Europe to be gone several months.

A pleasant event of the past week was the afternoon tea given Wednesday from 4 to 6 by Miss Louise Morris at her home, 555 Everett street, in honor of Mrs. C. B. Jackson of Pendleton. The refreshments were a dainty bridesmaid affair, predominating in blue. Miss Virginia Wilson and Mrs. Edward Brook assisted the hostess in the reception room. Mrs. Samuel Meare and Mrs. B. B. Linthicum presided in the dining room.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Swift of Battle Creek, Mich., Mr. Beeman, the art collector of Pittsburg, Pa., and Mrs. Charles H. Andrew formed a ladies party to Cascade Locks Thursday.

Miss Jeffrey's opening party of her Monday night dancing class at Parsons' hall was well attended, about 45 couples being present. Parsons' orchestra furnished music. Invitations were issued for this affair but these informal dances will be repeated on Mondays without invitations, being open to the same friends.

Mrs. Frederick H. Page entertained with a pleasant afternoon of bridge whist at her home, 418 Alder street, on Saturday evening, the 17th, and the prizes were won by Mrs. L. Allen Lewis and Mrs. W. E. Ayer.

The Sacred Heart social club gave a successful card party Wednesday evening. The attendance was large and there was good music. Refreshments were served.

Friday evening, September 16, was the occasion of a delightful informal affair given by the Misses Belle and Conchita Robertson at their home, 418 Alder street, in honor of James Alexander, who has just come to Portland to reside. The rooms were pretty with quantities of Oregon grape and red-shaded lights. Cards were played during the evening till refreshments were served. The guests were: Mrs. C. Lewis Meade, Miss Mary Haradon, Miss Lillian Stone, Miss Judith Scott, Misses Edna and Margaret Protzman, James Alexander and Ard Haradon.

The formal opening of the law department of the Western Academy of Arts took place Monday evening at the hall in Mulkey block. Hon. C. J. Williams of this city and Hon. P. H. D'Arcy of Salem spoke intelligently on legal subjects. Miss Bertha Royal sang in good voice "The Promise of Life," by Cowen Oliver. "Goodnight, Beloved, Goodnight," was sung by Ronald Bradbury. "Separation," by Roma, was justly interpreted and well sung by Miss Reatha Bowler. Ruthyn Turney playing the violin obligato. Miss Max Ross was accompanist for the evening. S. J. Richardson, dean of the Oregon Law school, was present and expressed himself as highly pleased with the opening.

Weddings

Miss Elapheth Auld Duncan was married to Martin Bernard Behrens at 1:30 o'clock last Sunday afternoon. Rev. J. H. Gibson pronounced the ceremony at the parsonage. Miss Myrtle Sharp attended the bride. A quiet family luncheon followed at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Anderson, and Mr. and Mrs. Behrens left in the evening for Pendleton. They will be at home after tomorrow at 304 Grant street.

Mrs. Nina H. Gilluly of Portland, for many years a home missionary in Kansas, Missouri, and other midwestern states, was married Wednesday evening to Lewis C. Hartman, a prominent detective of the same city, in the First Baptist church of Spokane, Rev. O. W. Van Oedel officiating. Lewis C. Gilluly played the Mendelssohn wedding march while the bride and groom, unattended, marched down the aisle, preceded by Rev. Mr. Van Oedel. The ceremony was performed at the altar, the ring service being used. After the services the bridal couple left for a tour of the eastern states and will be at home in Portland after October 1.

The bride was handsomely gowned in pearl-gray tulle over tulle silk. The bodice was closed with a cluster of pearls, and the bride wore pearls and diamonds. The church was well filled with guests, invitations having been sent to the members of the four Baptist churches of the city.

The wedding of Miss Jessie Votaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Votaw, to Walter Stasser, occurred Thursday night at the residence of the bride's parents, in Seattle. A large reception followed the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. H. R. Chapman of Trinity church. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Votaw, and the best man was the groom's brother, John Stasser. The bride was handsomely decorated, and music by Schmidt's orchestra was a delightful feature of the evening. The bride and groom left for Portland, and after an extended wedding trip will be at home in Hillsville, Wash., where Mr. Stasser is a rising young attorney. Mr. and Mrs. Stasser are both known in Portland by many friends.

Max Kraemer and Madeline Waltheussen were married at 8:30 last evening at the First Congregational parsonage by Rev. E. L. House.

Marion O. Van Alstyne of Blodgett, Or., and Miss Lela Ludwick of Michigan were married at noon Tuesday at Calvary Presbyterian manse, Rev. William S. Gilbert officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Van Alstyne will live at Blodgett.

Frank Hitchman and Jennie Kenworthy of Monitor were married Tuesday at the Congregational manse in Oregon City, Rev. E. S. Bollinger officiating.

The wedding of Miss Sybil Burlington Cushing of Tacoma and James V. Wyman of Portland took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Cushing, in Tacoma, at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Rev. E. T. Ford of the First Congregational church officiated. Only immediate friends and relatives were present. The home was prettily decorated for the occasion, red and green being the color scheme in the parlors and pink in the dining room where a dainty luncheon was served after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Wyman are taking a trip about the sound and will be at home to their friends after October 15 at 240 Park street, Portland.

F. W. Schlotz and Miss Lottie Barnes were married Wednesday evening by Rev. Albyn Eason, at the parsonage of Rodney Avenue Christian church, 414 Rodney avenue. Only a few relatives and immediate friends were present. Miss Edna Barnes attended the bride and M. Schlotz the groom. Both the women were gowned in white. An informal reception followed at the home, after which Mr. and Mrs. Schlotz left on a short wedding trip. They will be at home after October 1 at North 509 Union avenue. Mr. Schlotz is one of the rising young business men on the east side.

Capt. T. A. Olsen and Miss Cecelia Thompson were married last Saturday evening at the home of T. A. Olsen, on Fourteenth street. Rev. J. Whitcomb Brounger officiating. Captain Olsen is in charge of one of the large river barges.

William Graham Hodson and Miss Stella May Ballinger were married at the White Temple studio at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon by Rev. J. Whitcomb Brounger. Mr. Hodson is tenor soloist in the First Unitarian church.

her mother early in October to be gone for several months.

The San Great Endeavor society of the First Presbyterian church was delightfully entertained last Monday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Miller Murdock, at their pleasant suburban home at Hunter's station. The lawn was prettily lighted with Japanese lanterns. Mr. Murdock met his guests at the gate and they were allowed to stay on the lawn or go in the house at will. Indoors Miss Lillian Datsman and Miss Grace Cameron offered a number of instrumental selections. During the short business session Miss Ollie Misenheimer resigned as corresponding secretary and Miss Sadie Stephens was elected to fill the vacancy. Light refreshments were served during the evening.

The young women's class of the First Christian church entertained the young men's club of the church last Tuesday evening. Games were played and refreshments served.

The Pleasant Afternoon club of Central Baptist church met Wednesday with Mrs. J. C. Werschul. The women made plans for their social to be given next Friday evening at the home of W. L. Roggan, East Twelfth North. All friends of the church are invited.

Church Notes

The Feast of the Tabernacle was celebrated ceremoniously at Ahavah Shalom synagogue last Friday evening. Rev. E. Abrahamson officiating. A sukkah, or tabernacle, was built in the rear of the church and here all the contributions for the harvest festival were brought. After prayer and thanksgiving the feast was placed on the tables and all partook thereof.

The Ladies' Guild of Trinity church will have its first meeting Wednesday, October 19. Plans for the winter's work will be partially arranged beforehand.

The Woman's Alliance of First Unitarian church met last Friday evening. Rev. E. F. W. Schlotz presided and discussed plans for the year's work. A dollar experience social for members only was planned for the future and also a church supper. The first literary meeting will be given Wednesday, October 2. They will occur the first Wednesday of every month and are open to the public.

The members and friends of Alpha chapter of the Epworth league were entertained by Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Sellick at the parsonage of the Sunnyside Methodist Episcopal church Wednesday night. Games, guessing contests and riddles were enjoyed and pop corn and apples were served. About 50 young people were present. The host and hostess were assisted by Misses Anna Wetzel and Maud Hanson, in charge of the social department of the league chapter. A special feature of the evening was the measuring of every one present.

The San Great Endeavor will entertain all the other endeavor societies of the city at a rally Tuesday evening, September 27, in First Presbyterian church.

A charming informal afternoon was passed Monday with Miss Mabel Goss at her home, 775 O'Leary street. Her guests were the members of the Young Woman's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church, of which she is president. About 25 were present and the afternoon was spent in sewing and chatting. Refreshments were served. Miss Nannie Moore assisting the hostess. The young women learned with regret that this would be for some time their last meeting with Miss Goss, who starts east with

Among the Clubs

The Kensington club met in its first session this fall with Mrs. Stacy Matlock, 488 Second street, last Thursday afternoon. The evening was devoted to pale pink and lavender sweet peas and La France roses. Delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. Clarke of San Francisco was the guest of the club. The next meeting will be with Mrs. E. McClure, 488 Nineteenth street, Thursday, September 29.

Wednesday evening the New Century club met at the office of E. S. Jackson to discuss plans for reorganization. Another meeting has been called for the near future.

The Tuesday Afternoon club is anticipating with pleasure its first meeting of the year at the invitation of the president, Mrs. Warren E. White, 344 Hall street. The invitations, which include a few favored friends, announce that a luncheon is the first number on the program.

The John Ivey "Watson" color club commenced the season's work Saturday, September 17, at the home of the president, Mrs. C. J. B. Malarkie. There was a large attendance. So much enthusiasm was expressed that the exhibit of original two-copy work planned for November 17 and 18 promises to be a success. Prof. John Ivey recently presented the club with a beautiful picture, adding much to an already fine collection.

The Swami Ram society met last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. O. N. Denny, No. 276 Sixteenth street. Judge Webster presided. The two native students were reported placed in the Oregon Agricultural college and started in their work. Efforts are being made to maintain them there so that they may have the necessary comforts of life. Arrangements are pending for active work this season to raise the necessary funds. The next meeting will be Wednesday, October 8.

The Current Events club met with Mrs. A. C. Newell at Newell's Riverside academy, Monday afternoon. After a general discussion of current topics the guests were shown about the pretty new school and its grounds.
