WEATHER REPORT.

Weather conditions and general forecast for Oregon, Washington and Idaho—Unsettled weather continues in the north Pacific states and light, scattered showers have occurred during the last 24 hours in Oregon, southeastern Washington, southeastern Idaho, the sound country and along the coast. Showers are also reported in Nevada, northern New Mexico, Kansas, eastern Missouri and in the New England states.

Nearly seasonable temperatures prevail in the states west of the Rocky mountains, except in Utah, southern California and Arizona, where it is cooler than usual.

The indications are for partly cloudy weather in this district Wednesday, with probable showers in northwestern Oregon and western Washington.

TODAY'S MARKETS

Heavy Receipts of Cheap Grade California River Potatoes Is Wrecking the Local Market —Mill Men Trying to Stop Eastern Shipments

RIVER POTATOES HURTING MARKET

LARGE RECEIPTS OF CHEAP QUALITY CALIFORNIA STOCK IS LOWERING QUOTATIONS HERE — PRICES ARE DOWN — POULTRY LOWER—CHEESE UP.

Front Street, Sept. 27.—The principal features of the Portland wholesale markets today are:
Barley is advanced 50c per ton.
Chickens are quoted lower.
Large veal is wrecking market.
Best hogs will bring price.
Walnuts open 1½c lower.
Cape Cod cranberries in market.
Local lard is ½c higher.
Country shorts 50c higher.
Little doing in wheat.
Flour market very firm.
Cheese market is 1c higher.
More California potatoes arriving.
Lion coffee advanced 50c.

California Potatoes Hurting Market.

There arrived on the California steamer last night from San Francisco nearly 500 sacks of river potatoes which were put on this market this morning through the street hawkers at around 80c per sack. This is having a disastrous effect on local values and the market looks lower. With California potatoes selling at 80c and Oregon quoted at $1.00@1.15 a great many people prefer the cheaper stock, although it is very cheap in quality as well as price. California river potatoes are quoted in the San Francisco market at 50c per sack, not 100 pounds, and can be laid down in this city and sold at a good profit at 80c. Local potatoes are coming in slightly larger volume and the prices look down.

Local Lard Is a Half-Cent Up.

There was an advance of ½c per pound in the quotations on both kettle leaf and steam rendered lard of local manufacture. The market is firm. No changes in hams or bacon today.

Chickens Are Quoted Lower.

The heavy receipts late yesterday afternoon and today caused the market to weaken considerably and prices are about ½c lower all through. The prices on turkeys remain very high. Dealers along the street are predicting still lower values on chickens this week.

Barley Is Advanced Fifty Cents.

There was an advance of 50c per ton in the quotations on feed and rolled barley this morning in answer to the better demand and the higher values in other coast markets. Country shorts are up the same amount.

Large Veal Is Wrecking the Market.

The receipts of large sized veal were very heavy and the market is weak with prices lower. Good fancy veal is hardly coming at all and will find a fair demand around 7c. There is a fair call for the best class of dressed hogs at the printed prices.

Walnuts Open One and One-Half Cents Lower.

A large crop of walnuts in California has caused the association there to open the prices practically 1½c per pound lower than last year. This year prices are: One to four sacks, 13½c; less than one sack, 14½c per pound. Almonds are higher.

Cheese Is Advanced One Cent.

With the smaller arrivals and a much healthier demand the cheese market is showing an advance of about 1c per pound today. Creamery butter is slightly weaker on account of the heavy arrivals of eastern stock during the past month. Some small shipments of process butter have also been received of late. Local arrivals of the better grade butter are small.

Little Doing in Wheat.

With the Chicago market fluctuating very badly there is but little doing in the local wheat market—no sales being reported either yesterday or today for eastern account. There is now a fair call from the continent and the market is strong, though dull. Prices unchanged. The flour market is very firm with some large sales reported for local account.

Cape Cod Cranberries in Market.

The first shipments of cranberries from Cape Cod are now in the market and are quoted at $10 per barrel, while the Coos Bay and the Tillamook varieties are quoted $1 less. Business as yet is rather quiet. Tomatoes are in better supply with prices firm. The California steamer brought in a large supply of grapes, which find a good sale for the best stocks.

Heavy Run of Silverside Salmon.

There is a very heavy run of silverside salmon now in the Columbia river and receipts here of the fresh fish are very heavy. Prices unchanged. No fish is now coming from the coast streams.

Lion Coffee Advanced Fifty Cents.

The manufacturers of Lion coffee this morning announced an advance of 50c per hundred pounds in the former quotations on that grade. This makes the new price $14.25. Arbuckles shows no change, but is still quoted 50c higher than Lion brand.

Today's wholesale quotations, as revised, are as follows:

Tragedy Averted.

"Just in the nick of time our little boy was saved," writes Mrs. W. Watkins of Pleasant City, Ohio. "Pneumonia had played sad havoc with him and a terrible cough set in besides. Doctors treated him, but he grew worse every day. At length we tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and our darling was saved. He's now sound, and well." Everybody ought to know, it's the only sure cure for coughs, colds and all lung diseases. Guaranteed by Red Cross Pharmacy, corner Sixth and Oak, on the way to the postoffice. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

BIG MILLER BULLISH ON WHEAT SITUATION

Minneapolis, Sept. 27.—John Washburn, of the Washburn-Crosby company, who is just home from Europe, talks bullish on the foreign situation as to wheat. He says: "Europe is short, and with any reduction of the yield in Argentina they will have to buy wheat regardless of price. The continent suffered greatly from drought and reports of reduced production are not exaggerated."

UNION PACIFIC THE FEATURE IN STOCKS

(Furnished by Overbeck, Starr & Cooke Co.)
New York, Sept. 27.—Logan & Bryan say: The stock market continues its upward tendency with the bulls in control. Union Pacific was the feature, showing a net gain of 1¼ points over the closing of yesterday. All the rails, however, were strong. The market is a little more uniform and on the whole a little higher than it has been lately. It is by no means yet a big market, but the tendency is toward an increased activity. The conditions of uncertainty that have obtained this summer during the maturing of crops have passed. Not much modification will now take place. The outlook for the coming year is in our judgment, an extremely favorable one. We think stocks should be bought on all recessions.
