CAPITALIST UNDER GRAVE CHARGES

JACOB FURTH OF SEATTLE ACCUSED OF HAVING OBTAINED $50,000 PROPERTY BY DURESS AND THREAT—GREEN LAKE WIDOW THE COMPLAINANT.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Seattle, Sept. 27.—Jacob Furth, president of the Puget Sound National bank, president of the Seattle Electric company and one of the most wealthy and prominent business men of Seattle, is charged in a complaint filed in the superior court with obtaining by duress and threats of imprisonment, a deed to $50,000 worth of city property for a consideration of $650.

The complainant is Alice W. Gilson, a widow, who is a resident of Green Lake. She recites that in 1901 she deeded the property to Furth after he had informed her that he had evidence sufficient to send her to prison and keep her there. Terrified by these threats, she alleges, she signed the deed and turned it over to Furth in order to save herself from going to jail.

Mrs. Gilson has been in the police court several times charged with conducting a "blind pig" at Green Lake and once also was charged with assaulting Officer Sheehan. Sheehan was sent to Green Lake, at the instance of the board of public works, to remove a barn. Mrs. Gilson met him and picking up a board dealt him a blow over the arm, fracturing it. She managed to escape punishment.

MORGAN MAY NOT GET A CORNER ON FISH

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Seattle, Sept. 27.—Western capital has been combined to prevent the Pacific Packing & Navigation company falling into the hands of J. P. Morgan, Richard Delafield, August Belmont and other eastern financiers as is planned. Within a few days Receiver James A. Kerr will apply to Judge Hanford in the United States court for permission to dispose of the assets of the concern, including its 22 canneries, 19 of which are in Alaska and three on Puget sound. At that time the identity of the opposition will be exposed.

DOG STOOD GUARD OVER MASTER'S BODY

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Tacoma, Sept. 27.—The funeral of Milas Shafer, the man who killed himself after being accidentally wounded while hunting, occurred this morning. Alexander Basenick, his companion, returned accompanied by Charles Shockley and James Gilvey to take possession of the body. Shafer's faithful dog refused to permit them to touch his dead master. He stood guard over the body until others arrived and managed to coax him away.

MRS. HARRIS GOES HOME.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Spokane, Sept. 27.—Mrs. Harris, who has been in the city since June 11, on a charge of murder, went to her home at Yakima last night. After being released from the jail Saturday night about midnight, she went to the hotel with her husband and daughter.

World's Fair Excursions.

On October 3, 4 and 5 and 27, 28 and 29 the Canadian Pacific will again place on sale special round trip tickets to St. Louis, Chicago and eastern points at very low rates. Tickets will be good for stopovers.

This will be the last opportunity to secure World's Fair tickets at special rates.

Early reservations should be made.

Cheap excursion tickets from eastern points to Portland are now on sale. For full particulars, call on or address F. R. Johnson, P. and P. A., 142 Third street, Portland, Or.

PROPOSALS.

PROPOSALS will be received at the office of the Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition commission, room 4, Stearns building, Portland, Oregon, until 12 o'clock noon, September 28, 1904, for the construction of:

1. Machinery, electricity and transportation building.
2. Mining building.
3. Festival hall No. 2.

Plans and specifications can be seen and obtained at the office of the director of architecture, room 5, Stearns building, Portland, Oregon, and can be seen at the office of the commission at the fair grounds.

Bids must be submitted on forms furnished by the commission, and addressed to

EDMOND C. GILTNER, Secretary.

PROPOSALS will be received up to noon Wednesday, Sept. 28, 1904, for the rental of transformers for the period from April 1 to November 15, 1905. Specifications may be examined at room 4, Stearns building, Lewis and Clark Exposition Company.
