MACNEIL'S WORK OF ART IN POSITION

"Coming of the White Man" Is Placed on Pedestal at Entrance to City Park—Mayor Will Receive It Tomorrow.

Art has entered the City park and found lodgement upon the most commanding eminence of the beautiful grounds. Nature's opportunities have been embellished ere this with taste until the city's pleasure-grounds were beautiful creations, but not until today, when heroic figures of a fine old Multnomah chief and his companion brave were mounted upon a rough basaltic pedestal did art make a home here.

This pioneer of man's most inspiring work is a masterpiece. Herman A. MacNeil, renowned in the country, has done nothing better than the two superb Indian figures at their first view of fate—the white man. There is art in the location, art in the pedestal, art in the pathetic thought of a race face to face with beneficent doom. Age and experience, quick to feel the innovation, stands haughty, fierce and cold; youth and impulse, wrapped in a desire to know and welcome the new, waves a greeting. History is reflected from the two bronze figures facing the Columbia's gorge. They will be types of an ethnological epoch studied by generations yet to come, and the lover of art will visit Portland's City park to behold what is being done today.

"Coming of the White Man" has been the historic description chosen to name Mr. MacNeil's latest and best work. The sculptor is a leading artist of New York. He has executed the group at the behest of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Teal, who are carrying into effect wishes of the late D. P. Thompson. In choosing his Indian type Mr. MacNeil studied the Multnomah tribe, their costume and history. The stern old chief, standing 8½ feet above the base of the group, has a warrior's physique, with the scant fullness of approaching age apparent in limb and body. His eagerness to see is manifest only by the tiptoe attitude, for folded arms, resentful grim face and elevated chin suggest the foreboding of disaster and firm opposition to any innovation. The young brave's limbs are more lithe, his attitude inviting, and keen interest shines from every feature. Skin and woven fiber moccasins, a loose skin robe, a scant clout of fiber or skin, with a buffalo-hide shield hung to the old chief's shoulders, complete the attire true to the time and tribe.

Tomorrow at 2 p. m. Mayor George H. Williams and other city official will receive the bequest, which will be formally presented by Joseph N. Teal. There will be no ceremony, and there have been no invitations. In a quiet, unostentatious way the beautiful group will be presented, accepted and consecrated to public edification. The presentation will take place at the base of the statue, a few yards from the bear pit, on the most elevated part of the grounds. While the statue is in place, Mr. MacNeill will remain three or four days longer to complete finishing details of the base and lay out the grounds, which he will have to appear as unkempt knoll, with grass and heather leading up to the basaltic pedestal.

DEPUTY ASSESSOR RUNS FROM THIEVES

Held up by two masked men armed with revolvers at Eighteenth and Couch streets, W. L. Patterson, a former deputy county assessor, took to his heels and saved both life and money by speedy sprinting. He was chased for three blocks before the robbers concluded there was no chance of overtaking him.

Patterson had been at the Multnomah club and was on his way home about 10 o'clock in the evening. Reaching the corner of Eighteenth and Couch he was startled by the two men stepping out in front of him and presenting revolvers. Both were masked.

Before he could control himself Patterson turned and ran as he "had never run before." He was chased for three blocks and ordered to halt several times, but no shots were fired by his pursuers, who finally quit the race.

ATTEMPT TO LEGALIZE WORK OF BOOKMAKER

At a regular meeting of the city council this afternoon Councilman Sharkey introduced an ordinance to license bookmaking and poolselling in the city limits. Councilman Flegel objected, and a warm discussion followed. Councilman Sharkey stated that his purpose was to secure revenue for the city, as there was no state law prohibiting this form of gambling. Under suspension of the rules the ordinance passed by a vote of 9 to 2.

BELIEVE BABY WAS POISONED

VIALS OF LIQUID ARE FOUND IN ROOMS OF WOMAN UNDER SUSPICION—POISON ARE WORKING ON DIFFERENT CLEW—A SENSATION EXPECTED.

Sensational developments were brought to light late this afternoon by Detective Hartman in the case of the baby found dead in a grip at the Union depot Monday night. Two women, registered at a leading hotel, are under suspicion of having administered poison to the infant.

Suspicion was cast on the women by the finding of two bottles of some fluid, labels erased, and a nursing bottle in the room occupied by them. There was also a little stocking, which matched the one that was in the grip found at the depot. Some woman's clothing was also found and is in the possession of the police.

Monday night the two women took the hotel bus for the train, carrying the grip in which the infant was found. They returned on a car. When they left yesterday morning they met the chambermaid and told her not to enter the room as the baby was sleeping. They said they would return in time to care for it.

Detective Hartman says both women left Portland last night, but that he knows where they went. He took the bottles to City Physician Zan and will have their contents analyzed.

OFFICERS ELECTED AT W. C. T. U. CONVENTION

At the afternoon session of the W. C. T. U. county convention yesterday the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. L. H. Additon; vice-president, Mrs. E. Whitesides; recording secretary, Mrs. D. B. Lane; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Fulton; treasurer, Mrs. S. A. Peake; young women's department, Miss Frances Gotshall; Loyal Temperance legion, Mrs. Hard.

An important resolution was passed regarding the use of pictures of the unclothed figure for advertising purposes. It read:

"Resolved, That the innocence of youth, the purity of middle life and the sanctity of age are alike shocked and degraded by illustrations of the female figure unclothed, or partially and suggestively clothed, upon billboards and in other public places; we will use every proper means by striving to awaken public sentiment, by appeals to the city or state authorities and by legal measures, if need be, to have this menace to public morals and stumbling block to clean manhood and womanhood removed."

UNIFORM SALARIES FOR POSTAL CLERKS

E. W. Godfrey, delegate to the St. Louis convention, addressed the local branch of the postoffice clerks at Tuesday's meeting on national matters. The St. Louis convention was, he said, the most successful in the history of the association.

It is the desire of the clerks that congress give them a classification such as the carriers and other branches of the government service now enjoy. The present bill has been outgrown and clerks' salaries are, in their opinion, at present neither uniform nor just. The postoffice department has grown to enormous proportions and now employs an army of 25,000 clerks. Every recent postmaster-general has recommended to congress some action looking to uniform salaries for these clerks and the first class postmasters made a like recommendation at their last convention.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Spokane, Wash., Oct. 5.—Mrs. Amanda C. Poetz of this city has filed a claim against the city for $33,000 damages. The charges filed against the city officials, its agents, board of health and Superintendent E. W. Otis, are sensational in the extreme.

FIRST S. P. OFFICIAL RECEIVES PROMOTION

After 16 years of service Thomas McCusker yesterday retired from his position as contracting agent for the Southern Pacific Railway company. He assumed the duties of assistant general agent of he Southern Pacific, Oregon Railroad & Navigation company, Union Pacific and Oregon Short Line.

Mr. McCusker is the first of the old Southern Pacific officials to be promoted since the system of consolidation of the Harriman interests in this city was begun. He held the position of contracting agent for the past 16 years and in point of continuous service is one of the oldest railroad men in the city. His previous office has been abolished and freight solicitation business for the four lines will be conducted through the office of A. A. Morse, general agent. The offices of the two officials will be kept in the Failing building, giving the Harriman lines a downtown office.

Mr. McCusker enjoys the distinction of being one of the most capable and at the same time one of the most popular railroad men in the northwest. He began his railroad career with the Wabash at Danville, Ill. He worked in the freight office in that city. Later he took charge of the freight department in Danville and was in the service of the company for seven years.

Sixteen years ago he came to Portland and was foreman of the Albina dock for two months, when he was appointed contracting freight agent of the Southern Pacific. Mr. McCusker will be second in authority to Mr. Morse in transacting freight business of the Harriman lines in this territory.

"WESTERN LADY" IS WOMAN'S MAGAZINE

The first number of a new monthly magazine has just made its appearance in Portland under the title of "The Western Lady." It is published by J. Frank Lee, whose daughter, Miss Hasel Lee, will be managing editor.

As the title indicates, the publication caters to women, and the first copy of 16 pages is crowded with reading matter interesting to femininity. Topics of current interest are sensibly treated. The editorials are sombre, but effective; the contributions are of high literary merit and each department is carefully edited.

It is stated in the beginning that "The Western Lady" is published "for the purpose of helping woman in her struggle for a higher place in the world"—and it will, if the standard of the first issue is maintained.

PENDLETON GAMBLING HOUSES ARE CLOSED

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Pendleton, Or., Oct. 15.—Pendleton is a closed town so far as it relates to gambling, and many of the gamblers are leaving the city. Last night District Attorney Phelps notified the proprietors of the different gaming houses to close their games and his orders were complied with in every instance.

The reason assigned by the district attorney for his action is that gambling has been running with too free a hand and that numerous places of a dive character were springing up. It is understood that the gamblers will not attempt any fight, but will remain closed, as many of them assert that the business was overdone and there was no profit after heavy running expenses were deducted.

NEHALEM VALLEY FIRES.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Mist, Or., Oct. 4.—The forest fires have about died out, yet it is hard to estimate the damage done throughout the Nehalem valley. More timber has been destroyed this season than since the big fires of 1883. The Deep creek fire, which started in August, destroyed much of the valuable cedar belt on Deep creek. The timber losses in the valley reach into the millions.

IDAHO MAN TO BORE FOR OIL IN MALHEUR

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Baker City, Or., Oct. 5.—Renewed interest in the Malheur oil district, near Baker, has been caused by the bonding of a considerable tract of land. Recently one of Idaho's prominent oil operators, G. Blood, secured bonds on a large tract of land near Ontario, and has just taken another bond on 1,200 acres in the same field. He states that boring is to commence on this land within 30 days.

Three years ago there was considerable excitement over oil lands of Malheur, and two companies did some work. One headed by the Hirsches of Portland put a well down several hundred feet, but gave up the work later. The plans of Mr. Blood revive interest, especially as he intends to bore further to the south, where indications are said to be better.

A Foe to Rheumatism.

The "Woodlark" Home Medical Battery, sold and advertised by the enterprising druggists, Woodard, Clarke & Co., is attracting much attention and sufferers from rheumatism and kindred ailments find in it quick relief.

The following unsolicited testimonial clearly sets forth the relief which may be obtained by using this small apparatus:

"Three years ago I was greatly afflicted with rheumatism. I had tried many doctors and medicines but received no help. I was in despair. On the advice of a friend I purchased one of your Home Medical Batteries and after a few trials I began to gain rapidly and the fact that I am on my feet today, I owe to your battery.

"One of the serious features of my affliction was terrible sinking spells, which were liable to seize me at almost any moment, my heart would stop beating and I would think I was going to die. The battery never failed to conquer these spells and I feel only too glad to tell every one about the good it has done for me. Yours very truly,

BOND AND LEASE POPULAR.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Baker City, Or., Oct. 5.—Ex-County Commissioner William Gleason, one of the owners of the Buckeye property, stated while in Baker City today that there was unusual activity in the entire district. Claim owners seem to appreciate the necessity of meeting the investor half way, with easy bond and lease propositions, with the result that more men are willing to take hold of properties.

INTERESTING FACTS

For Nearly Every Man, Woman or Child.

A short time ago we published an article recommending to our readers the new discovery for the cure of dyspepsia, called Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and the claims then made regarding the wonderful curative properties of the remedy have been abundantly sustained by the facts. People who were cautious about trying new remedies advertised in the newspapers and were finally induced to give Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets a trial were surprised and delighted at the results. In many cases a single package costing but 50 cents at any drug store made a complete cure and in every instance the most beneficial results were reported. From a hundred or more received we have space to publish only a few of the latest, but assure our readers we receive so many commendatory letters that we shall publish each week a fresh list of genuine, unsolicited testimonials and never publish the same one twice.

From James Yemmeisler, La Crosse, Wis., Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are doing me more good than anything I ever tried and I was so pleased at results that I gave away several boxes to my friends who have also had the same benefits.

From Jacob Anthony, Portmurray, New Jersey: I have taken Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets with the best results. I had Dyspepsia for six years and had taken a great deal of medicine, but the tablets seem to take right a hold and I feel good. I am a farmer and lime burner and I heartily recommend to everyone who has any trouble with his stomach to use these Tablets.

From Mrs. M. K. West, Preston, Minn.: I have received surprisingly good effects from using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I gave one half of my last box to a friend who also suffered from indigestion and she had the same good results.

From Mrs. Agnes K. Ralston, Cadillac, Mich., I have been taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and I am very much better, and feel very grateful for the great benefit I have received in so short a time.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a certain cure for all forms of indigestion. They are not claimed to be a cure-all, but are prepared for stomach troubles only, and physicians and druggists everywhere recommend them to all persons suffering from nervous dyspepsia, sour or acid stomach, heartburn, bloating or wind on stomach and similar disorders.

STATE FORECLOSES ON FAIR GROUNDS

ATTORNEY CRAWFORD APPEARS BEFORE JUDGE GALLOWAY AND DEMANDS JUDGMENT UNDER HIS COMPLAINT—DECREE TO STAND TILL LEGISLATURE MEETS.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Salem, Or., Oct. 5.—The state of Oregon has taken advantage of the law and yesterday, after some delay, the state took a full foreclosure on the fair grounds property. Attorney General A. M. Crawford appeared before Judge Galloway, in department No. 2 of the circuit court for Marion county, yesterday and demanded judgment under his complaint against the state of Oregon in favor of the same state of Oregon, by which he secured an order of sale against the fair grounds, for the payment of the sum of, more or less, $19,000 due the irreducible school fund of the state, and which was secured by a mortgage on the grounds.

Attorney General Crawford says that the decree will be allowed to stand until the legislature meets and then if something is not done by that august body to pay the amount he will ask for the sale of the property to the highest bidder. There was no defense in the case and the state took judgment by default.

Report of Fish Warden.

H. G. Van Dusen, fish warden, has submitted his report to the state board of fish commissioners.

One of the principal things discussed at the meeting yesterday was the Alex Grant case wherein a justice of the peace at Astoria declared Grant, who was arrested for not complying with the state fishing laws, he being a resident of Washington, not guilty, stating that he had not been fishing in Oregon waters. The board decided that the case should be brought up again through the district attorney and a further test of it be made so that a decision may be arrived at from a court that has some power to pass on the legality of the act and the entire question.

The receipts of the office for the month of September were: For licenses issued to district No. 1, $305; for district No. 2, $619.35, and for fines and penalties in district No. 2, $28.25, making the total for both districts $924.25.

Several improvements have been made at the Ontario salmon hatchery during the past three months.

Disbursements.

The accounts against the department amount to the sum of $6,394.36, $3,013.77 of which is against hatchery fund district No. 1, $669.53 is against hatchery fund district No. 2, $346.01 is against the special fund for constructing hatcheries, coast streams (the Yaquina hatchery), $996 is against the special fund for operating and maintaining hatcheries, coast streams (the Umpqua river hatchery) and the South Coos river hatchery, and $1,270.05 is against the general fund.

Petition Filed.

A petition signed by more than 700 voters in the county was filed for the submission of local option to the legal voters of this county. If the petition is found correct the matter will be submitted at the regular election in November.

Talkington Will Appeal.

Yesterday Frank P. Talkington, charged with keeping a saloon open on Sunday was fined $25 and costs by Judge Turner, justice of the peace. Talkington will appeal to the higher court.

Asylum Report Filed.

Dr. J. F. Calbreath, superintendent of the state insane asylum, filed his report yesterday with the board of state asylum commissioners.

He reports the general health at the asylum as very good during the month of September. Among repairs and improvements he reports two new lavatories as completed and one more yet under way. This will exhaust the appropriation and leave four more to be provided for by general appropriation. Farm work is well up and everything except vegetables and apples are in and stored. The orchards will furnish between 4,000 and 5,000 bushels of apples.

Oregon's Negro Population.

The best reports and estimates obtainable place Oregon's negro population at 1,715, of which there are 744 males and 471 females. Two-thirds in Multnomah county, where many porters and cooks employed on the transcontinental lines reside. The illiteracy among the state's negro population is small.

Attempts have been made without success to substitute white labor in some sections with that of negro.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE

Many people who are neglecting symptoms of kidney trouble, hoping "it will wear away," are drifting towards Bright's Disease, which is kidney trouble in one of its worst forms.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE

stops irregularities, strengthens the urinary organs and builds up the worn-out tissues of the kidneys so they will perform their functions properly. Healthy kidneys strain out the impurities from the blood as it passes through them. Diseased kidneys do not, and the poisonous waste matter is carried by the circulation to every part of the body, causing dizziness, backache, stomach trouble, sluggish liver, irregular heart action, etc.

If you have any signs of Kidney or Bladder trouble commence taking FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE at once, as it will cure a slight disorder in a few days and prevent a fatal malady. It is pleasant to take and benefits the whole system.

How to Find Out.

You can easily determine if your kidneys are out of order by setting aside for 24 hours a bottle of the urine passed upon arising. If upon examination it is cloudy or milky or has a brick-dust sediment or small particles float about in it, your kidneys are diseased, and FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE should be taken at once.

C. E. Burbank Testifies After Four Years.

C. E. Burbank of Carlisle Center, N. Y., writes:

"About four years ago I wrote you stating that I had been entirely cured of a severe kidney trouble by taking less than two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. It entirely stopped the brick-dust sediment and pain and symptoms of kidney disease disappeared. I am glad to say that I have never had a return of any of those symptoms during the four years that have elapsed, and I am evidently cured to stay cured, and heartily recommend Foley's Kidney Cure to any one suffering from kidney or bladder trouble."
