

ATTACK ON BARBOUR IS UNWARRANTED

COMMISSIONER GENERAL OF IMMIGRATION BARBOUR'S REPUTATION AS A CHINESE INSPECTOR IS UNWARRANTED

The arrival of Frank P. Barbour, commissioner-general of immigration, in the city this morning was followed by the appointment of John S. Sawyer to be Chinese inspector and Robert E. Henry to be immigration inspector. They succeed inspectors Ryan and Gallagher. Against Major Ryan charges have been preferred at Washington. Information respecting which has already been furnished the commissioner-general by Inspector Barbour. The charges were not preferred by Mr. Barbour, it is said, until the facts in the case to the department by request.

As regards Inspector Gallagher, the appointment causes the fact to be made public that he resigned from the service of the department of justice, September 21. It is said by Mr. Barbour that his resignation was voluntary. What were the causes leading up to it he does not care to discuss.

Commissioner General Glavin. In his recent report to the department of justice, Commissioner Glavin has mentioned the case of a Chinaman on the charge of being illegally in the country, to accept in evidence a preliminary hearing made by the prisoner. It is said that the decision of Commissioner Glavin is antithetical to that of Federal Judge M. M. Estee in a similar case.

Decision Misses Much. "There is no appeal from the decision of a United States commissioner," said Mr. Barbour. "As regards Mr. Glavin's decision, I may express the opinion that the importation of Chinese women in large numbers might naturally follow under it. If the department should arrive at the conclusion that his verdict in the matter was erroneous, his attention will probably be called to the matter."

Leaving Washington September 15, he has spent time at St. Louis, New Orleans, Galveston, San Antonio, Laredo, Eagle Pass, El Paso, Tucson, San Diego, Los Angeles and San Francisco. He leaves Portland tonight for Tacoma, Seattle, Victoria and Vancouver, B. C., and Sumas, Wash. From the latter point he will go east over the Canadian Pacific.

For the first time the fact is also made public that Inspector Barbour took issue in his report with Commissioner Glavin for discharging from custody a Chinese woman of bad reputation who married a Canadian man after her arrest. The commissioner general says that the decision of Commissioner Glavin is antithetical to that of Federal Judge M. M. Estee in a similar case.

Barbour Charges False. "Complaints have been made against Mr. Barbour by Henry P. Ford, and others, through Attorney Charles F. Lord. The charges have been laid before the department and have been decided to be without foundation. We believe Mr. Barbour to be a careful, efficient and pains-taking official, and we find that the department so far as his district is concerned is in much better condition than prior to his being placed at this post."

Valuable Assistance. The commissioner general speaks highly of the efficient aid rendered the department by the steamship and railway companies on the coast. Their cooperation, he asserts, has proved most valuable in enforcing the exclusion laws. It is stated by the commissioner general

SERIOUS SPLIT IN PROHIBITION PARTY

TEMPERANCE WORKERS DO NOT WANT TO BRING LOCAL OPTION TO A VOTE IN THIS YEAR

All Portland advocates of temperance were not with the regular prohibition party this year. A difference has arisen in the ranks of anti-liquor people over the expediency of bringing local option to a vote in the coming county fall. Many prohibitionists insist upon such an issue being forced at once, while many temperance men who have voted the ticket in the past do not feel under obligation to do so this year because of the expediency of action in compelling a vote at once.

Prohibition temperance workers held a meeting yesterday afternoon to confer on the matter. Among those attending were W. Stone, E. Lee Page, F. McKeen, E. Quackenbush, J. Thorburn Ross and J. E. Lathrop. An impression prevailed at this meeting that a benefit to the cause would result from having separate and distinct precinct meetings on local option prior to a general county vote being taken. With this thought in mind all present agreed to withdraw the petition for a county vote this year and repaired to the court house to attend to the matter. Those delegates were joined by L. A. Amos, a prominent prohibitionist. By the time the committee reached the court house it was learned that no benefit was to be had from holding precinct meetings prior to a general county vote.

The expediency of bringing the question up this year at all was discussed. Mr. Amos favored doing so, while Mr. Stone argued for its postponement until next June. No promise has been made by the prohibitionist party men on local option. One way or the other, but there developed this divergence of views, and Mr. Amos and his adherents insisted upon not withdrawing the petition for a vote this fall. Temperance men viewing the situation as presented by Mr. Stone in the argument, believe prohibitionists indiscreet in forcing the issue now, and are in prospect of defection from the party vote.

"I have always voted for prohibition," said Mr. Stone today, "but do not feel bound to do so this year. It is for moral purity in the city of Portland, however it may be attained, and owing to the action of prohibitionists yesterday I am ready to work with any party that promises such reforms as we seek."

FAIRBANKS ON THE MORMON QUESTION

Brigham, Utah, Oct. 7.—Fairbanks put himself on record last night on the Mormon question in his Oregon speech. He referred to the subject, he said, in the final analysis of the American people. In the final analysis of the American people, he said, the home where parents are mother and where are gathered about the hearthstones loving hearts filled with love of the American flag and with admiration for the instructions of our fathers, which have been committed to our most loyal keeping.

The reference brought out a ripple of applause. There was an hour's meeting here at 9 o'clock this morning. Smoot and Kearns were with the party, and Fairbanks talked on Republican policies. A brief morning meeting was held in Farmington and a noon address in Salt Lake City.

WIFE SHOOTS FATHER. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Boise, Ida., Oct. 7.—Dr. J. W. S. Emerson, who was sentenced to serve two years for shooting his wife, has been granted a pardon. Emerson, who it is said was a hard drinker and gambled freely, was accused of shooting his wife about a year ago. She is a daughter of Frank R. Gooding, the Republican candidate for governor, and has stuck to the story she first told, that she accidentally shot herself. It was largely through her efforts that the pardon was issued.

HANGED AT FOLSOM. (Journal Special Service.) Folsom, Cal., Oct. 7.—Charles Lawrence, a half hanged this morning for the murder of an old man named J. C. McCarthy, near Elk Grove, Sacramento county, in September, 1894. Two other half breeds, Charles Padillo and A. Strandi, are serving life imprisonment for the same crime.

LEAVES HIS HOME; TIRED OF LIVING

ALBERT JANITS, BOOKSELLER, DEPARTS WITH WIFE THAT HE WILL TAKE HIS LIFE — HIS WIFE FRAID FOR HER OWN SAFETY.

Vowing he would secure a revolver and take his life because he was tired of living, Albert Janits left his home at Fourteenth and Burnside streets this morning and cannot be found. Fearing he would return and murder her, she appealed to Captain of Police Gritzmacher for protection, and Station Officer Quinlan was dispatched to the house. He remained until noon, when Policeman Circle relieved him. He has been on guard since.

According to the story of Mrs. Janits, her husband became angry because she demanded money with which to care for their six children. Janits replied that he had no money; that he had no way to secure any, and that rather than be harassed he would take his life.

"I fear my husband will not only take his life, but mine as well," said Mrs. Janits to Captain Gritzmacher. "He is a most determined man, and when he makes up his mind to do a thing he always does it."

Janits is proprietor of a book store at 428 Washington street. He is more than 20 years old. It is said that he threatened to kill himself 17 years ago. Although policemen are scarce in Portland, Captain Gritzmacher will have the home guarded until Janits is located.

SON OF RESPECTABLE PARENTS IMPLICATED

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Tacoma, Wash., Oct. 7.—The confession of Kid White, who was captured in Tacoma yesterday, that he was in the holdup of Coleman's saloon at Seattle, where Murphy was killed, implicates John Hilderbrand of Tacoma.

Hilderbrand's parents are respectable people, and were about to secure him a pardon when he turned the latest trick. It is known that White and Hilderbrand held up the Puget Sound beer hall and Expressman Niederhuser.

CIRCUIT JUDGE IS OUT ONE DIAMOND

Circuit Judge Alfred F. Sears, Jr., mourns the loss of a costly diamond pin, which was stolen from his residence several days ago. He has a suspicion as to the identity of the guilty person, and this morning placed the matter in the hands of city detectives.

The pin is said to have been left on a dresser, as was the usual custom of the judge. When it was missed a thorough search was made but it could not be located.

HONOR MEMORY OF HENRY C. PAYNE

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS AND REPRESENTATIVES OF FOREIGN POWERS GATHER AT ST. JOHN'S CHURCH—BODY WILL LEAVE ON SPECIAL TRAIN FOR MILWAUKEE

(Journal Special Service.) Washington, Oct. 7.—Officials of the government and representatives of the foreign powers gathered at St. John's church at 11 o'clock this morning to honor the memory of the late Postmaster General Henry C. Payne. The church was crowded to the utmost, and thousands, including many government employees, stood in the churchyard. The funeral party, consisting of the family, members of the cabinet and eight uniformed letter carriers who watched the casket, left the apartments at St. John's church shortly before the hour set for the ceremony and walked to the church a square distant. The president and Mrs. Roosevelt occupied a front pew opposite Mrs. Payne. Rev. Cotton Smith, and two assistants, Rev. Dunlap and Rev. Bigelow, conducted the services. Beautiful costly floral offerings surrounded the casket. Following the services, the hearse was escorted to the Pennsylvania station by the carriers of the Washington postoffice. A special train of three cars carrying the funeral party left for Milwaukee at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

SAYS HE HAS REMEDY TO BAFFLE OLD AGE

(Journal Special Service.) Paris, Oct. 7.—Professor Metchnikoff's new youth bacillus, based on Pasteur's theory of the existence of beneficent as well as malignant microbes, continues to excite half-derivative interest in the scientific world. Metchnikoff is indifferent to this feeling. He is certain that he has discovered the long-sought secret for indefinite longevity.

Metchnikoff said today: "For administering treatment I prefer a special kind of coagulated milk. A substitute of ordinary milk boiled and skimmed. To this is added a quantity of my Bulgarian bacillus, abounding throughout the Balkans. The taste is agreeable. Two bowls at a temperature of 73 degrees are taken daily. If taken regularly many years may be added to life, and it is a most certain cure for dyspepsia and anemia."

FRANCOISE IN BALANCE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Tacoma, Oct. 7.—A committee of 18 men, appointed by Mayor Wright to hear arguments for and against the granting of the Tacoma Railway & Power company franchise, held a secret meeting last night. On their report will probably depend the outcome of the proposed railway system.

FURNACE OF BARBOUR

(Journal Special Service.) Paris, Oct. 7.—Barthold, the German sculptor, was buried today at Montparnasse cemetery with literary honors. United States Ambassador Porter was present.
