New York, Oct. 8.—Herr Conreid of the Metropolitan opera house is in a state of distraction over the mysterious disappearance of Olive Fremstad, who is to sing Kundry at the second performance of "Parsifal." The time for rehearsals having arrived without the appearance of Mile, Fremstad, Conreid sought among her friends without result and cabled to her address in Europe without any better success, The answer received was to the effect that the opera singer had not been seen or heard of in Europe for the past 10 days. On the other hand, there is nothing to show that she had salled from Europe and no proof that she bas arrived in America. In his dilemma, Conreid has arranged to have agents meet all the incoming steamers from the sther side in the hope that Mile. Fremstad, is now approaching these shores.
