

CHING WO TO TAKE CARGO FROM HERE

CHINA COMMERCIAL COMPANY'S STEAMERS IN CHARTERED BY PORTLAND & ASIATIC COMPANY WILL NOT CARRY GOODS TO JAPANESE PORTS.

Final arrangements were completed this morning for the chartering of the oriental liner Ching Wo by the Portland & Asiatic Steamship company.

The Ching Wo is owned by the China Commercial Steamship company of Hongkong.

By not carrying goods consigned to ports in the Pacific coast it is thought to be probable that the Ching Wo will be forced to go out with considerably less than a full cargo.

The local representative of M. C. Harrison & Co. is of the opinion that the Russian warships are again going to prove a menace to commerce from the Pacific coast in the course of a very short time.

PROGRESS IS MADE IN WALLOWA COUNTY

Wallowa county's first annual fair, held last week at Enterprise, was a signal success and is likely to prove a strong factor in advertising the county's resources and industries.

The Wallowa county fair was inaugurated last week at Enterprise, with the idea of interesting the people of the county in the Lewis and Clark exposition.

The people of Wallowa county are all well off. Nearly everyone owns his own home.

LOG AND LUMBER DEMAND IS SMALL

There is a lull in the demand for logs and lumber at local mills and adjacent logging camps.

Peter Conacher, manager of the Twin Falls Lumber company, one of the subsidiary companies of the Weyerhaeuser Timber company, was in Portland today to confer with Secretary B. L. McCormick.

richest county per capita in the United States. All of the principal towns, Joseph, Enterprise, Lostine and Wallowa, are prosperous and appear to do a big business.

The Wallowa river and Wallowa lake furnish a magnificent supply of water for both power and irrigation.

The people of Wallowa county are deeply interested in the construction of the Columbia canal and the project road.

BELIEVES ORIENTAL LOVED IS GUILTY

MISS LORETTA WARD, NOW MRS. E. K. KELLEY, BLAMES MAN NAMED NAKES FOR HER HUSBAND'S TORTURE AND HER OWN UNCOMFORTABLE POSITION RECENTLY.

Two weeks ago, according to local police, a jilted lover wrote to Miss Loretta Ward of Astoria, who was attending school at Ellensburg, Wash.

The young woman came immediately. With her was another young woman, and they reached the city on the evening of October 10.

They went to a lodging-house, where they secured apartments and then went to dinner. On their return from dinner they were unable to find their apartment.

His disappearance was a mystery. On Friday several hunters were led into the woods by the peculiar actions of their dogs and found Kelley bounding and snarling at an unknown animal.

Not to be thwarted by the work of the assassins of her lover, Miss Ward went to Kalamazoo and secured the license that had been made out for Kelley.
