SMUGGLERS DOING VERY LITTLE HERE

CUSTOMS OFFICERS HAVE NOT MADE A SEIZURE IN MONTHS...

L. A. Pike, United States deputy of customs, reports that smuggling has dwindled down to next to nothing at this port.

The declaration is made that the smuggling evil received a great setback last spring when a gang that followed the business failed with a bang.

Several of them are now in the penitentiary. Mr. Pike asserts that there is no doubt in his mind that the members of the Seattle operators were responsible for the arrests of the shipmasters which have reached Portland in years past.

The opium smuggled in here almost invariably came in under some other pretext. At times the parcels or packages were designated tea, or some commodity exempt from taxation.

Mr. Pike is of the opinion that the smugglers have left Portland and the north Pacific coast for other fields.

Second Batch of Bids Inspected at Quartermaster's Office.

Proposals for supplying a second consignment of lumber for the Philippines were opened at noon in the office of Col. Jesse M. Baker, local disbursing quartermaster.

The order calls for $20,000 feet of rough timber, which will be used for completing the barracks now under construction at Manila.

In addition to this there will be supplied a big quantity of door, windows and other material not make a full cargo for the average sized ocean carrier.

ON THE SAFETY OF OVER-EATING. The Rule of Choosing the Lesser of Two Evils Applies to the Way You Eat.

I want to know how a man is to know when he has had enough? The Father of Truth believes, had a quaint saying to the effect that you should always rise from the table feeling as if you could eat some more.

It is inexact and unscientific. It is likely to lead to the dangerous habit of eating too little.

What is disease? It is simply uneven balance between waste and repair.

FAMES OVERBOARD.

First Officer Mason of the steamer George W. Elder, which arrived in port late yesterday afternoon from San Francisco, criticizes very severely the life-saving crew stationed at Cape Disappointment, near the mouth of the Columbia river.

Mr. Williams fell overboard shortly after the Elder had crossed the bar. A strong ebb tide was running at the time and he was quickly carried out to sea.
