"WHO?" THE WORLD WROTE.
From the Louisville Courier-Journal.
"When I started on my trip around the world," said a houseman, "to find out what was the word for 'who' in every language. I had a little book and in it I intended to make a long list of the various words for 'who.'"
"Do you know what I discovered? I discovered that 'who' is the same in all the languages. The Chinese says his horse with 'who,' the Chinaman says his 'who,' and the Dutchman his with 'who.'"
"And 'who,' I discovered, has been from the dawn of time the word to stop horses with. The Greeks and Romans used it in a slightly different form—'oh'—the old English 'who' was 'ho.'"
"A philologist told me the other day that many of our 'animal words'—the words we order our animals about with—are as old as or older than 'who.'"
"Take, for instance, 'go-hoos,' the soothing call to the 'Go-hoos' comes from the Sanscrit root 'gu,' meaning to low. Another cow word, 'moo, moo, moo,' which might be translated, 'Please seek still,' comes from the Sanscrit 'sooh,' meaning to stay motionless. And you know our chicken word—'chick, chick, chick'—the word spoken in a high key, wherever we summon our chickens to 'eat meals.' Well, that comes directly down to us from the Sanscrit, 'kuk,' a domestic fowl."

Satisfaction in It.
Old Gentleman (to gateman)—Your life, my young friend, I imagine, is a laborious one and full of trials?
Gateman—Yes, sir; but there are moments when it is filled with peace and happiness and joy.
Old Gentleman—When your wages are paid, I suppose?
Gateman—No, sir; when I slam the gate in the face of somebody who is in a great hurry.

MARVELOUS REVELATIONS BY PROFESSOR VAN CORTLAND

The World's Famous and Greatest Clairvoyant

Over Seven Years a Resident of Portland and Seattle—Fair and Square in All His Dealings with the Public—His Towers Above the Partially Developed Medium and is the Envy of All Pretenders.

His prices for readings are the same as those charged and is considered the best adviser of two continents. His equal cannot be found in Portland.

Read Carefully
No Charge Unless Satisfactory, You to be the Judge. Always Consult the Best

Crowds of people are thronging to see the wonderful demonstrations of the noted palmist and clairvoyant, Professor Van Cortland. The moment you enter his parlor he tells your name and what you called for without asking a question; will tell the name of your sweetheart, or availing yourself of his power, you will find him a much wiser and happier than when you called.

Realizing that many of the best citizens of this city would be only too anxious to consult a good, reliable clairvoyant and palmist if they were first assured of receiving some benefit, I therefore do hereby solemnly agree and guarantee that without any previous knowledge, and having no natural means of knowing who you are, whence or for what you came, I will tell your life better than you can tell it to me. I will call you by name or charge you not one penny. This is honest, is it not?

I will give you luck that wins success in love, marriage, divorce, speculation, business, health and transactions of all kinds; restore lost affections, cause speedy and happy marriage, reunite the separated; I will tell you how to gain the love of the one you desire, even though miles away; will tell who and when you will marry. I will tell you what sickness you are troubled with, and how to cure it.

I will tell you how to attract, control and change the thoughts, intentions, actions or habits of any one secretly; the controlling power implanted in your nature; I will improve your character so that you will reach the highest possible development of mental vigor, health, happiness and capacity to earn wealth; how to accumulate a fortune and be happy.

Extraordinary clairvoyant power, combined with his superior knowledge of occult forces, enables him to read human life with unerring accuracy from infancy to old age; his powers are wonderful and indisputable, his advice is reliable, his information clear, concise and to the point in love, marriage, divorce, sales, wills, patents, journeys, old estate investments, property, mortgages, hidden treasures, oil and mining, diseases, etc.

I will tell of your husband, wife, lover, friends or enemies; who is true and who is false; will tell your every hope, fear, ambition, better than you could tell it yourself; those that are unsuccessful are made prosperous and started on the road to wealth; tells you how to make your husband or wife, or any one, be kind and true to you.

SO GREAT ARE THE POWERS OF THIS man that he can bring together the sweetheart, husband or wife who have been estranged by slanderous enemies.

Do You Wish to Know

How you can have good luck?
How you can succeed in business?
How you can make your home happy?
How you can conquer your enemies?
How you can marry the one you choose?
How soon you will marry?
How you can conquer your rival?
How you can make any one love you?
How you can mend your family troubles?
How you can remove bad influence?
How you can control any one?
How you can make distant ones think of you?
How you can settle your quarrel?
How you can hold your husband's love?
How you can keep your wife's love?
Van Cortland tells all and never asks questions. Does everything go wrong?
Has fortune never smiled on you?
Have you tried and failed?
Has your life been full of ups and downs?
Have you ever attained your object in life or your heart's desire?
Are you happy and contented?
Have you the money you want?
Do you know what you are best adapted for?
How can I control any one?
Are you separated from the one you love?
How soon will my lover propose?
Do you desire a speedy and happy marriage?
How can I win my lawsuit?
How can I be successful in my new invention?
How can I be successful in my patents?
How can I conquer my rival?
Can I trust my partner?
Will my change be successful?
How soon shall I marry?
Should I make a change?
How can I marry well?
Will I take a journey?
How can I marry the one I choose?
When shall my absent friend return?
How can I conquer my enemies?
Why do I not receive a letter?
Am I loved in return?
How can I make my home happy?
Is there a rival in my love?
How can I succeed in business?
Can I trust my friends?
Have I enemies?
When shall I marry?
How often shall I marry?

Oldest in experience, richest in knowledge and skill. Crowned with twenty years of unparalleled success as a clairvoyant. His advice has saved and made thousands happy. IT WILL BENEFIT YOU. Occult wonder. Always consult the best. Positively no equal on earth in his profession. Your life is an open book to him.

REMARKABLE PRESENCE OF NOAH.
Noah Webster, the lexicographer, was, as might be supposed, a stickler for good English, and often reproved his wife's misuse of the language.
One occasion Webster happened to be alone in the dining-room with their very pretty housemaid, and being susceptible to such charms, put his arms around her and kissed her squarely on the mouth.
Just at this moment Mrs. Webster entered the room, gasped, stood agape, and in a tone of horror, exclaimed: "Why, Noah, I am surprised!"
Whereupon Mr. Webster, coolly and calmly, but with every evidence of disgust, turned upon her.
"How many times must I correct you on the use of simple words?" he remarked. "You mean, madam, that you are astonished. I, madam—I am the one who is surprised."
All the same.
Ho—There is no sense in the waiting here all this time.
Ho—There wouldn't be any sense unless in you if you didn't wait.
