The Latest

It is a most unique and pattern, in the French Gray Finish. The design-ers have never been more fully rewarded, and the heavy dye work will fea-ture it to the most observing as pleasing for pos-

We can furnish Toilet Sets of any number of pieces, cased or uncased, ind all beautifully engraved. You'll coincide with us that the price is extremely low for the weight, quality and style prevailing.

& C. Feldenheimer Cor. Third and Washington

IEWELERS OPTICIANS SILVERSMITHS

DEATH SUDDENLY CLAIMS PIONEER

YAWA SERBAR HE CHA ST

am W. Spaulding, the veteran acker of Portland, died suddenly nome, 1103 Kelly street, early this g. At 5:26 o'clock his serious illus made known to the family, and he had expired. Dr. R. J. Marsh mmoned, but found the patient used beyond hope of medical asse, as a blood vessel in the head an ruptured and unconsciousness a swift forerunner of the end. time Mr. Spaulding's wife was, no other members of the family here.

Oct. 18.

To the WOGGLEBUG EDITOR:

WHAT DID THE WOGGLE-BUG SAY?

IT'S WORTH $50 TO KNOW

Use this Coupon Only.

THE SUNDAY JOURNAL, PORTLAND, OREGON.

The answer to the question asked of the Wogglebug in the Maga-Section of the paper of SUNDAY, OCTOBER 16, is—

RULES OF THE CONTEST

JUST ONE INCIDENT

The above advertisement was inserted in The Journal last Saturday. Yesterday Mr. Piggott, the advertiser, stopped in The Journal business

"Gentlemen, I want to tell you what an excellent advertising medium your 'want' columns are. I inserted this advertisement in your paper last week and have had a large number of answers ever since its appearance. I rented the property almost immediately, but the people are still coming."

THE JOURNAL CAN DO AS MUCH FOR YOU

CHIEF HUNT DEALS IN UNIFORM CLOTH

Orders Police Officers to Buy From His Stock-Directs Men Where to Buy at Excessive Prices -Uniform Proposition Hard for Men.

Portland's patrolmen have ex-pended $122.50 apiece on uni-forms since Charles H. Hunt be-came chief of police, January 25, 1903. They are now ordered to spend $41 more for clothing. The following is a list of the uni-

$129.80

New clothing just ordered: Winter coat and vest....$22.00 Two pairs of trousers.... 19.00 $41.00

Mounted police are required to archase gloves costing $1.05

For the fourth time since Charles H. Hunt assumed the office of chief of police, the patrolmen under him have been ordered to buy new uniforms. Three times the patrolmen have been compelled to buy new clothes. They have been forced to buy capes from one certain firm, and have had to keep themselves stocked with white gloves.

Chief of Police Hunt took office January 23, 1963. A few mouths after taking charge of the department he ordered the men to buy new summer uniforms. They were told to purchase them at a local tailoring establishment. These uniforms, it is said, cost the men $25 each. About this time the men were told to go to a local man's furnishing store, where the chief informed them that they would find their helmets awaiting them, and for this headgear each patrolman had to pay $4. Another clothing firm, so patrolmen state, offered to supply the same sort of helmet for the sort of cloth necessary for the gar-ments. One or two of the more daring ones in the department, so it is stated, secured a sample of the cloth, took it to a local dry goods house and there pur-chased exactly the same sort of goods at a saving of 20 cents a yard. After the suits were made the patrolmen who purchased the cloth from the chief found that the coat and vest had cost $28 and the trousers $9.

But chief Hunt did not stop at the new suits. He stated that the men were in need of capes. These capes were to be made after an old-fashioned military pattern, were to be purchased from one firm and no other, and were to cost $16.

could take an examination for the posi-tion of detective. Hoesly took the ex-amination and passed with a good record. This was June 20, 1803. At the same time, a man now on the detective force failed to pass; nearly four months later he was allowed eight points, which placed him on the eligible list.

But Hoesly has not been appointed to the detective staff yet. His remark regarding the cost of the military capes was unfortunate.

regarding the cost of the military capes was unfortunate.

After ordering the patrolmen to purchase new suits and old style military capes, Chief Hunt decided that another 14 out of the pockets of the officers was a mere triffe, considering that they were getting the princely sum of $74.50 a month, so he told them that new helmets had been ordered for their use. The men were told to get them after the same manner that they had purchased their first headgear. And here another patrolman forgot that he was no longer a free American citizen. Smith Makes War.

When informed that the helmets would cost $4. Patrolman Smith, who later made such startling discoveries in uptown saloon boxes that led to the crusade for the removal of this evil, produced a helmet that he had purchased from an eastern furnishing house. The helmet was neat and looked exactly like those the chief had had ordered for the officers.

those the chief had had ordered for the officers.

"Will this helmet pass inspection?" asked Smith of the chief.

"It will," replied the chief, after carefully looking the headgear over.

"Well, sir," continued Smith, "I thought it would. I paid just $1.90 for it."

This surprised the chief. Since that thought it would. I paid just $1.99 for it."

This surprised the chief. Since that time Smith's path has not been a bed of flowers.

After the men had secured suits, capes and helimets, they were ordered to secure white gloves, the sort that would cost 20 cents a pair. They were told to get four pairs for a starter, and to keep them neat and clean. The mounted patrolmen were told to secure gaunties that had been selected for them. They

HELP THE OLD FOLKS

A Helping Hand Extended to Many Old People in Portland.

Be considerate of the aged.
Lend them a helping hand.
Make life easy for them.
The infirmities of age are many.
Most old people have a bad back.
The kidneys are weak.
Are worn out with years of work.
Backsche makes days of misery.
Urinary troubles, nights of unrest.
There's a ray of sunshine for the aged.
Doan's Kidney Pills will make life aster.

They are doing so for old and young Portland people are learning this. Many are testifying to it. Read the following local indorsement which can be purchased far cheaper than the price the mounted officers are forced to pay.

THE OREGON DAILY JOURNAL, PORTLAND, TUESDAY EVENING, OCT

This spring the patrolmen were again ordered to buy new uniforms. Part of them were to purchase the cloth from the chief, while others were told to go to a certain tailor's. These suits cost $30 each. New helmets were again ordered, which meant another $4 to be taken from the savings of the patrolmen. The men were informed that the glove order was still in effect.

And How How Duds for Winter.

Recently, the patrolmen have been told that all would be required to buy new winter suits, that is, all those whose present garments could not pass inspection. The patrolmen state that they know what this means, and they are beginning to wonder just how soon they will again feel the gentle caresses of a tailor doing the measuring act. All men have been ordered to secure at once new dress trousers. It is reported that a cost and vest of the new pattern will cast $22, while the two pairs of trousers will cost not less than $19. The cloth is to be purchased of Chief of Police Charles H. Hunt.

And it has been hinted very strongly about the central station that the mounted patrolmen will be required to secure a new style cape. As yet it is not known whether new helmets will be ordered for this winter or not.

During the time that the men have been required to purchase new clothing at nearly every change of the moon, the officers state that they have to buy clothes us they do not care to wear uniforms when off duty, which makes their clothing bills far higher than those of other city employes.

SECURES $9,450 AS RECOMPENSE FOR LEG

Circuit Judge Alfred P. Sears, Jr., this morning allowed Andrew Scremon $9,450 for the loss of the latter's left

A few weeks ago Sorenson, who sued the Oregon Water Power & Railway company for the loss of his limb, was allowed $15,000 damages by a jury sitting in Judge Sear's court. William T. Muir and Hogue & Wilbur, attorneys for the railway company, at once filed a motion for a new trial. It was in passing on this motion that Judge Bears placed a cash value upon Sorenson's lost leg.

But there is a condition upon which the money is allowed, and that is that the injured man agree to relinquish all claims to the remaining $5.550 that had been allowed him by the jury. If Sorenson will agree to do this, Judge Sears stated that the motion for a new trial

AGED CHARLESTON

WOMAN DIES HERE

Annette Walker Haskins, wife of J. G. Haskins, was buried this afternoon in Riverview cemetery. Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock at the J. P. Finley undertaking pariors, and were conducted by Dr. Edgar P. Hill, of the Presbyterian church, of which denomination Mrs. Haskins had for many years been a faithful member. Her death occurred Saturday, October 19, in the family's apartments at the Lincoln. She had come to Oregon only nine days before with her husband to join her daughter, who is the wife of C. D. Howell, head of the Howell Shingle company.

Mrs. Haskins was a native of Charleston, N. H., and became a resident of Wisconsin, where she was married to Mr. Haskins in 1855. They removed in 1872 to Iowa, and for more than 30 years Mr. Haskins engaged in the lumber and banking business at Winterset and Des Moines. Had she lived they would have celebrated their golden wedding in July of next year. She is survived by the husband and one daughter, Mrs. C. D. Howell.

DORCEY GETS LIMIT ON VAGRANCY CHARGE

On a charge of vagrancy, Municipal Judge Hogue this morning sent A. E. Dorcey to jail for 90 days and fined him $100. This is the limit for the charge. Dorcey was arrested yesterday by Policeman Anderson, at the request of Mrs. Lettle Warner, who followed the prisoner along Third street to Morrison and pointed him out to the officer. The woman said that while on a visit in Seattle, Dorcey stole her purse, containing $2.75.

SUBSCRIBERS' AID

To the Pacific States Telephone Company—We, the undersigned, business men of the city of Portland and subscribers to your telephone lines, would most earnestly and emphatically request that you immediately relinstate all of the exchange girls forced out of your employ by recent action, to the end that our business interests be no longer jeopardised."

signatures to a petition to the Pacific States Telephone company, demanding the reinstatement of the strikers. Every residence in the city into which stretches a telephode line will be visited and every business firm that uses a "hello" instrument will listen to the earnest pleadings of the strikers.

pleadings of the strikers.

The work was begun yesterday afternoon, though a systematic organization of the soliciting committees was effected only this morning. The strikers declare that they met with flattering success yesterday and that the company will be busy for several days removing instruments from houses where sympathy is felt for the girls. The entire city, including the suburbs has been divided into districts and committees have been assigned to each district.

Without pyrotechnical displays or spectacular features of any kind the battle between the company and 200 telespectacular features of any kind the battle between the company and 200 telephone girls has begun in real carnest.

Every tactic of warfare, whether a subtarfuge or an open move, is employed by both combatants. Pickets are constantly on duty near the east side and west side stations of the company. Through sunshine and rain, through wind and calm pretty girls patrol the streets near the stations and try to talk with those who have come to break the strike. A constant vigil is kept, though every effort is being made by the company to force them away.

them away.

Busy at Strike Residuarters.

At headquarters, in Salmon street, between Fourth and Fifth, there is a constant hum of busy expectancy. Committees and officers are laboring with petitions to business men and citizens generally for assistance in their fight. Other committees are listening to reports of pickets and outposts, while others still are giving orders and sending messengers in various directions. By means of the system they have established officials of the union at headquarters are notified almost instantly when a new girl applies to the company for work.

The new operator has scarcely completed her preliminary talk with Miss Cooper, service manager, before her name, address and past history are known at strikers' headquarters. Whill she is donning her headquarters whill she is donning her headquarter at the switchboard, committees are being appointed and plans being laid to secure a clandestine conversation with her for the purpose of inducing her to leave the company's service.

The company indeed, has resorted to the purpose of inducing her to leave the company's service.

The company, indeed, has resorted to even more drastic means of ascertaining inside information concerning the workings of the union. Spies in the service of the company are everywhere. Strangers who enter the hall in Salmon street are subjected to the most scrutinizing glances from the pickets posted at the door.

Company Becsives Information.

At every meeting of the union the most as soon as it adjourns what has transpired. It has obtained a complete list of the names of the members of the union. Officials of the company profess to have no desire for information concerning the movements and actions of the strikers. It is true, however, that a complete system of asplonage is maintained. The imported operators are practically prisoners. They are under the constant surveillance of servants of the company. A conversation between a striker and one of the imported girls and $150 a day to pay for their meals and the company tried to get reduced rates. The restaurant refused to make a reduction. Then the head cook at the restaurant announced that if the "scobs" were served with meals at that place to us." said Division Manager Thatcher. "The girls are gradually coming back to us." said Division Manager Thatcher. "We have re-employed a great many, but give employment only to those who would not be granted.

Sorenson was formerly an employe of the O. W. P. & R. company. On January 28, 1904, he was working with a construction gang near Lents. It was construction gang near Lents. It was on this date that he was injured. He stated that he was ordered to couple the air breaks between ballast cars, and while doing so orders were given to other employes to loosen the breaks. By the confusion of the two orders, Sorenson alleged, he was thrown to the ground and his left leg cut off.

Henry E. McGinn appeared as Sorenson's attorney.

Ilst of the names obtained a complete list of the names of the members of the underly profess to have no desire for information concerning the movements and actions of the strikers. It is true, however, that a complete was trained. The imported operators are practically prisoners. They are under the company. A conversation between a striker and one of the imported girls is impossible at any time, or under any a true was complete.

"The girls are gradually coming back to us," said Division Manager Thatcher. It is true, however, that complete to have no desire for information concerning the movements and actions of the strikers. It is true, however, that tained. The imported operators are practically prisoners. They are under the company. A conversation between a striker and one of the imported operators are practically prisoners. They are under the company. A conversation between a striker and one of the imported girls is impossible at any time, or under any and the company of the company. A conversation between a striker and one of the imported operators are practically prisoners. They are under the company. A conversation between a striker and one of the imported operators are practically prisoners. They are under the company. A conversation between the company. A conversation between a striker and one of the imported operators are practically prisoners.

The Sign of the Best Raincoat

"Aquaproof"

Stamped Inside the Cloth of Every Genuine "Aquaproof"

> For Sale in This City Exclusively by

Buffum & Pendleton

CLOTHIERS HATTERS FURNISHERS

311 Morrison Street, Opp. P. O.

Dry Fir SLAB Wood, $3.00 Per Cord Or Dry Fir CORDWOOD, .. $4.50 Per Cord-

Same kind of wood, so what's the difference? Only $1.50 per cord in favor of slab!

BANFIELD, VEYSEY FUEL CO.

Phone Main 353

80 THIRD ST., Cor. OAK

ributed to each member of the union.

"We are going about this fight systematically," said the president of the union. "We propose to win, but there will be no disturbance or disorder. We depend largely on the sympathy of the public that we are sure we deserve in public that we are sure we deserve in this struggle. Our committees have met with flattering success in obtaining met with flattering success in obtaining signatures to our petition. There has Thompson as general agent of the Canadian Pacific Course, where the course were and A. B. Cuider sucrements and the course of the canadian pacific course. The course of the canadian pacific cour

RAILWAY OFFICIALS ARE SHIFTED ABOUT

Every Fellow We Fit Points Us Out to His Friends!

Swell Suits

Even you'll tell your friends about us if you' see yourself in one of our SUITS.

WE ARE STILL GIVING AWAY Genuine Ingersoll Watches, Repeating Air Rifles and Foot Balls with our Famous Line of Boys' Durable

PORTLAND'S BEST QUALITY SHOP FOR MEN AND BOYS

