

QUARREL ENDS IN FATAL STABBING

CHARLES ALLEY AND JOHN HOWARD... AND BUSINESS OVER OWNERSHIP OF LAND AND HOWARD IS KILLED - MURDERER IN JAIL...

(Special Dispatch to the Journal.) Eugene, Or., Oct. 18.—Charles Alley and John Howard, loggers, quarreled over the ownership of a jump at Fall Creek, 20 miles east of Eugene, yesterday evening, with the result that Alley stabbed Howard, resulting in the latter's death several hours afterward.

The two men had been living together in a cabin. They had quit work preparatory to coming to the valley and were dividing their effects, when a dispute arose over the ownership of a jump. Excited words followed, the two men passed and Alley whipped out a pocket knife and commenced slashing at Howard. A terrific struggle ensued, as is evidenced by the blood-stained walls and wrecked condition of the interior of the cabin.

Alley cut his antagonist, who was unarmed, on the arms, chest and abdomen, severing the intestines, and when he saw that he had severely wounded him he left the place and informed the officers of what he had done and gave himself up to the local constable. Howard died in terrible agony last night. Physicians from Eugene attended him, but could not save his life. Deputy Sheriff H. L. Brown drove to the scene of the tragedy and brought Alley to Eugene and placed him in the county jail last night. His preliminary examination will probably be held tomorrow.

Coroner Day, Deputy District Attorney Harris and Deputy Sheriff Brown are holding an inquest today. Both men were middle-aged and Alley was a family man, coming here from Texas a year ago.

A Journal correspondent was allowed to interview Alley this morning. He was non-communicative. He stated that he would not talk until he had secured counsel and consulted with him. He stated, however, that Howard attacked him first.

IMPROVING COLUMBIA THEATRE. A coat of adamant plaster is being applied to the exterior of the Columbia theatre, as provided for in the original building contract. It will give the house an appearance similar to the exterior of the Portland hotel and will have other advantages, among them the deadening of the sounds from the street and additional protection against cold. The heating apparatus is finally installed and Manager Baker says he is ready for a good hard winter.

WELL KNOWN ON FAIR. At the request of the exposition officers, Tom Richardson will make several addresses in cities east of here within the next few weeks, using the fair as the text of his lectures. In Salt Lake he will deliver his address under the auspices of the Commercial club, and in Denver the chamber of commerce has the event in charge.

STRIKERS FEAST AT FRUIT WAGON WRECK

Quiseppe Bernadino had a banana wagon, but now he got only a horse, and a hundred or more telephone girls in chorus this morning as they rushed pell-mell into Salmon street and binged themselves to the bananas that were strewn over the street for several blocks. As soon as the load of bananas had been thrown into the street and the wagon scattered, the horse stopped and looked sadly behind.

WIFE BEATER IS HEAVILY FINED

CONVICTED ON ASSAULT AND BATTERY CHARGES, BRUTAL HUSBAND GETS OFF WITH TWENTY-FIVE DAYS IN JAIL IN DEFAULT OF FINE.

A fine of $50 or 25 days in the county jail was the first sentence imposed upon R. Miller for cruelly beating his frail wife and trampling her face with the heels of his heavy shoes.

Municipal Judge Hogue heard the remainder of the evidence this morning. The sentence was on the charge of assault and battery and was the limit of the law. There is a second charge of drunkenness, to which Miller pleaded guilty. On this, the court stated, he would sentence the prisoner when he had either paid the fine or served the county jail sentence.

DAVIS CONTINUES CAMPAIGN TOUR

SPECIAL MAKERS SUN TO REVUE FIELD, WERE BATS SPEECH-MAKING BEGINS - CANDIDATE SHOWS EXCEPTIONAL VOICE IN DIANA OUTLOOK BRIGHTEN.

(Journal Special Service.) Roanoke, Va., Oct. 18.—The Davis party made a dash into Virginia this morning, making a stop here. This special will next make a stop at Bluefield, W. Va., where the day's speech-making will begin. An all-night stop was made at Richmond. Nominee Davis is holding an exceptional well, and as yet has not exhibited the slightest evidence of a breakdown. His record yesterday was eight speeches, several of them quite lengthy. The meetings at Roanoke and Radford, Va., were addressed by Senator Daniel this forenoon.

The Indiana outlook has assumed an increased optimistic appearance to the campaign party on the Davis special. In view of numerous telegrams received from several leaders telling that indications for a Democratic victory in the Hoosier state are daily becoming brighter.

Immense crowds continue to greet the special train. Prominent politicians of both parties gather to listen to the views as expressed by the candidate, and even his opponents concede that the tour is conducive of much good to the Democratic party in the states through which the special has passed.

PARKER LEAVES BROOKLYN. Joins Wife and Daughter in New York at Hotel Sevilla.

New York, Oct. 18.—Parker arrived today and went to the Hotel Sevilla, where he was met by Mrs. Parker and their daughter, Mrs. Hall, who came to New York to attend the Democratic mass meeting at Madison Square Garden. He will probably return to Hoopus Thursday night, as next Friday a delegation of New Jersey Democrats is expected at Rosemont, and Judge Parker will respond to an address. Tonight former residents of Ulster county, who now reside in New York, will hold a meeting to further the nominee's political interests.

NATIONAL FIRE AGENTS. (Journal Special Service.) St. Louis, Oct. 18.—Prominent fire insurance men from every section of the country filled Recital hall this morning at the opening of the ninth annual convention of the National Association of Local Fire Insurance Agents. After the call to order, President Francis of the exposition welcomed the visitors, for whom a felicitous response was made by Frederick Guenther of Detroit. The remainder of the session was occupied with the appointment of committees, reports of officers and other business of a routine nature. The convention will be in session during the next three days.

DAVID B. HILL IN INDIANA.

(Journal Special Service.) Michigan City, Ind., Oct. 18.—Excursion trains from all points in this section have brought the visitors into the city for the Democratic rally tonight, at which ex-Senator David B. Hill of New York is to be the chief speaker. The meeting promises to be one of the largest demonstrations ever held by the Democrats in northern Indiana.

SHUT SOCIALISTS OUT.

(Journal Special Service.) Huntington, W. Va., Oct. 18.—The city council last night refused permission for the Socialists to hold a political meeting in the city hall tonight. The party may enjoin the city officials from interfering.

INJURED IN VESSEL'S HOLD; WANTS DAMAGES

Five thousand dollars is being sued for by C. W. Fredenthal because his foot was injured while loading lumber in the hold of the ship Eva. Fredenthal is suing the owners of the vessel, the Brown & McCabe Lumber Co., for the damages. The case is being tried today before Circuit Judge Cleland.

Fredenthal, who was a stevedore in the employ of Brown & McCabe, alleges that he was assisting in loading the ship Eva with lumber on June 21, 1903, while the vessel was lying alongside the Inman-Polish mill. He stated that he was working in the hold of the vessel, when a pile of lumber, improperly stowed, was let down from the wharf. On account of its improper stowage, boards were loosened and one fell and struck Fredenthal on the foot. He was thrown into the hold of the vessel.

Brown & McCabe, in their answer to the complaint, state that it is a well known fact that boards often slip from slings of lumber, and that all stevedores know of this and are warned of the danger. They state that Fredenthal knew of this danger, but got in the way of the sling in a reckless manner, not heeding the warning given.

OFFICERS ARREST BOYS BY MISTAKE

A party of boys who, with permission of their parents, attended a performance at one of the theatres Sunday evening, came to grief on their way home. In addition to their admission fees, they had been supposed to have a nickel apiece, with which to round out the evening with coffee or sandwiches after the performance. On their way home the boys stopped at a lunch counter near the corner of Third and Burnside streets, and lined up to invest their funds in refreshment and at this interesting juncture Officer Barty came along and arrested the entire party, under the mistaken impression that they belonged to the class of youngsters who have been frequenting north end dives. They were taken to the police station and kept all night in a cell. The boys were John Lewis, Ernest Struss, Miles Malone, Fred Zahn, Willie Payne, John Spranger, Stanley Phillips, Lloyd Mason and Ralph Parker.

WANT IMPORTANT CONVENTION HERE

An effort will be made by the Lewis and Clark management to secure for Portland the next annual meeting of the Interstate Commerce Commission. The convention consists of a representative body of eastern business men, who favor extending the power of the interstate commerce commission. They have never yet been able to secure the co-operation of Pacific coast commercial institutions for the reason that they have failed to recognize the coast to a further extent than promising to do so. It is pointed out that by having the convention meet here, the advantages of the northwest and the coast will be made clear to the easterners and accomplish good results. Portland will have a representative in the convention to present an invitation to convene here in 1905.

STREET RAILWAYS ARE INCORPORATED

ARTICLES ARE FILED AT OFFICE OF COUNTY CLERK TODAY FOR PORTLAND CONSOLIDATED RAILWAY COMPANY - UNIVERSAL TRANSFER SYSTEM.

Articles of incorporation of the Portland Consolidated Railway Company were filed this morning in the office of County Clerk Frank S. Fields by J. L. Mills, J. C. Almy and J. A. Delph. The capitalization of the new company is $5,000,000 which is divided into 50,000 shares.

When the merger was first decided upon it was decided to call the new corporation the Portland & Suburban Railway company; the question of the name had even gone so far as to have "Portland & Suburban Railway company" painted on some of the new cars. But it was recently discovered that this name had been used years ago by an old corporation so it was decided to call the new corporation the Portland Consolidated Railway company.

The purpose of the company, as set forth in the articles of incorporation, are to build and operate street railways in the city and suburbs of Portland and surrounding towns; to construct and operate power plants; to own and maintain parks and pleasure resorts; to construct and operate bridges; to own and maintain parks and pleasure resorts; to acquire and hold patents; and to do many other things connected with railways, bridges, power, plants, telegraph and telephone lines.

Several type-written pages of the articles filed were needed to give the list of the streets upon which the company operated, or has the power to run, transportation lines. But the articles state that "this corporation shall have the power and authority to extend and enlarge at any time all or any of the said lines of railway and to shorten and curtail the same." The contents of the articles covered 11 type-written pages.

It was stated that three directors shall constitute a quorum, and it is also made plain that a minority of the directors may reside outside of Oregon.

The articles were signed yesterday, and certified by Notary Public C. A. Maney. O. F. Paaton, president of the Portland Railway company, and C. A. Maney are witnesses.

The filing of the articles today will be followed immediately by a complete organization of the new company, and as soon as details can be arranged and new tickets printed the universal transfer system for passengers on all the lines in the city will be put into effect. The change will not be reached by November 1, as was at first expected, but will come some time during November—probably not before the last of the month. With the election of the new officers and the adoption of by-laws, the consolidated company will be ready to receive deeds from the two old companies transferring their entire properties to the new company. Minor details, such as the arrangements for interchangeable transfer tickets will then be taken up. An entire new issue of tickets will be printed, bearing the name of the Portland Consolidated railway, and old tickets will be done away with. By December 1 the consolidated street car system will be fully in operation with the tickets and transfers of the new company.

W. C. T. U. DELEGATES HERE FOR CONVENTION

The delegates to the state convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union began to arrive this morning and about 30 were on hand at the opening session at First and Commercial streets, near the church. No business was transacted. Mrs. Lucia F. H. Addison welcomed the visitors as chairwoman on general arrangements and Mrs. Helen D. Hartford, the state president, spoke briefly in reply. The new officers, Mrs. Harford, president, Mrs. Eva C. Wheeler, first vice-president, Mrs. Henrietta Brown, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Ida T. Masters, recording secretary, and Mrs. Joseph J. Shano, treasurer, then went into executive session at the home of Mrs. Pillsbury. They discussed the work of this convention and prepared their reports. The morning was spent in assigning the delegates to their places.

This afternoon the county presidents will meet with the general officers in executive session. The entire afternoon will be devoted to various committee meetings. The regular meetings begin this evening with an open session of music and addresses. The remaining delegates will arrive this evening and tomorrow morning.
