FIRST GAME GOES TO BUTLER'S MEN

UNDER THE NEW MANAGER THE REDS WERE UP AND TROUBLED THE SEALS—BING FITZGERALD ONE OF THE BEST GAMES OF THE SEASON.

Portland, 3; San Francisco, 1. Batteries: Iberg and Steelman; Barber and Wilson.

Iberg and Steelman released by Dugdale, yesterday, in the very first game under Manager Butler, did much to win the game.

The field was sloppy and the atmosphere chilly, which served to keep most of the fans away.

J. Ira Davis added his efforts toward cheering the local team to victory, and his gyrations on the coaching line were vastly amusing.

Lou Runkle was especially brilliant as several of his chances were quite difficult on account of the precarious footing.

Portland scored two earned runs in the second, when, with one out, Marshall batted one to left and Runkle followed suit to center.

Portland missed another in the sixth. Spencer, the first man up, flew out to Meany. Steelman went out at first.

Iberg waited and was passed on four wide ones, and trotted all the way home on Jack Drennon's corking double to left field.

HORSE GOSSIP FROM GOTHAM

THE WIND-UP OF THE RACING SEASON AT THE METROPOLITAN TRACKS AND NEWS OF THE THOROUGHBREDS AS TOLD BY MANHATTAN.

(Journal Special Service.)

New York, Oct. 19.—There were strong hopes in the early part of last week that the wind-up at Morris park would be made memorable by a special race between Sysonby, Tradition, Olseau and Artful at scale weight to determine which was the best 2-year-old.

Of these, Pirate of Pensance sired the greatest number of horses that figured in the money, 46; Lamplighter was a close second with 44.

Yesterday saw the opening of a two weeks' racing season at Jamaica, and then will follow a week at the Metropolitan which will be the wind-up of the Metropolitan racing season for 1904.

There are 17 stakes that are to be decided during the meeting at Jamaica, and each one has filled with the best horses in the country.

The opening event will be the Pierre point, for which some of the best horses in the country are engaged.

The announcement of the program for the California tracks this winter has largely increased interest among eastern horse men in the racing there.

There will be a good contingent of good eastern horses sent west after the close of the fall meeting at Hennisga.

J. L. Holland will take a considerable string of horses to Los Angeles the coming winter. Belle Dixon, purchased at the dispersal, has been released.

Another bit of gossip about the sale is that Joe Medler with his own list of breeders who would be likely to be able to have Medler at the head of their stud has been gossiped.

Medler leads the list of winning sires by a margin of more than $10,000. Tanya, Steward and Colonel Gie each is credited with winnings of more than $50,000.

The game of last Saturday against Willamette university, which the university won by a score of 16 to 6, has developed the fact that Oregon has the best general and in the best condition.

As to winning, Smith is non-committal but says that he likes the chances. Berkeley and Stanford outnumber the students here about 60 to 1.

October 23—With Hoquiam, place yet to be decided.

October 29—With Puget Sound university, at Tacoma.

November 5—With Albany college, at Astoria.

November 12—With Puget Sound university, at Astoria.

November 19—With Chemawa, at Astoria.

December 6—With Multnomah, at Astoria.

Negotiations are also under way for a contest with the Seattle Athletic club. The Commercial-Oregon game has been called off.

Now that the Tracey-McKeever fight is off, the only affair of interest to the local fight fans is the Muller-Queenan bout scheduled for Oregon City on November 11.

DIAMOND GLISTENINGS

(Journal Special Service.)

The Butler was generally congratulated last evening. His many friends were well pleased at the outcome of the first game, which augurs well for the new manager.

Hugh Kellackey will catch his first game in Portland this afternoon. He is a likely looking young chap and is said to be a comer in his profession.

Slats Davis helped considerably toward living up yesterday's game, and he says that he will be out every day and help the locals win. His coaching is of value to any club.

Joe Marshall played a splendid game at first base yesterday, accepting 16 chances without an error. Joe also made the first hit.

The locals bunched three hits on Barber in the fourth and yet could not score on account of the hits being short ones and the track so muddy that fast work on the bases was almost impossible.

The fans gave Van Buren and Andy Anderson the glad hand on their appearances. These two men are still red hot favorites in this city.

Joe Corbett is somewhat under the weather and did not go to the ball park yesterday. Joe expects to be all right when his turn at pitching arrives.

Holland of two clean cut hits yesterday. Hilly captured his drive in the fourth and another in the sixth, both of which were seemingly impossible chances.

The schedule of games as announced is as follows: October 23—With Hoquiam, place yet to be decided.

October 29—With Puget Sound university, at Tacoma.

November 5—With Albany college, at Astoria.

November 12—With Puget Sound university, at Astoria.

VARSAITY TEAM OFF FOR CALIFORNIA

(Journal Special Service.)

University of Oregon, Eugene, Oct. 19.—This afternoon 14 football players representing the State university left by train for Oakland, Cal., where they will go to Berkeley and there play a game with the University of California.

The men were accompanied by Coach Dick Smith and Manager Dave Graham and a few of the students, who also wished to make the trip.

The leaving of the little band of football players was made the occasion of much enthusiasm on the part of the students, who cheered the men as they left.

The 14 men who have been chosen to represent the university are in fine form and ready for the game of their lives. The team averages 142 pounds per man, which is six pounds heavier than the team that went south in 1900.

This team will be somewhat different from the 1900 team, in that it has different coaching and the eastern style of play has been adopted.

The game of last Saturday against Willamette university, which the university won by a score of 16 to 6, has developed the fact that Oregon has the best general and in the best condition.

As to winning, Smith is non-committal but says that he likes the chances. Berkeley and Stanford outnumber the students here about 60 to 1.
