

WHAT DID THE WOGGLE-BUG SAY? IT'S WORTH $50 TO KNOW

The Woggle Bug, who has been the party from Oregon, whose adventures are recounted in the color supplement of the Sunday Journal, answers our question every week. The reader is left to discover his answers. The questions are of the nature of a riddle and are given to the solution of the puzzle. The question admits of but one correct answer. For the largest number of correct or nearly correct answers the Journal offers $50 in prizes to be distributed as follows:

Oct. 23. Use this Coupon Only. No. 23. To the WOGGLEBUG EDITOR: THE SUNDAY JOURNAL, PORTLAND, OREGON. The answer to the question asked of the Wogglebug in the Magazine Section of the paper of SUNDAY, OCTOBER 23 is—

RULES OF THE CONTEST Fill out the above coupon, sign the coupon to be found daily in The Journal until Saturday, October 25. This gives you seven chances to answer the question which appears in The Sunday Journal of October 23. Each Sunday a fresh question is asked. The answer to the question appears in the coupon printed in the Journal of the six week days following. Each month begins a new contest. SAVE THE COUPONS and on the last day of the month send them to THE WOGGLEBUG EDITOR, The Journal, Portland, Or. Only coupons in THE OFFICE OF THE JOURNAL BY 10 A. M. OF THE THIRD DAY OF NOVEMBER will be counted in making the awards of October prizes.

PALOUSE FARMERS MAKE BIG PROFIT PROMINENT GRAIN MEN CONSIDER THAT FULLY 95 PER CENT OF THE CROPS IN THE INLAND EMPIRE HAVE BEEN MARKETED AT HIGH PRICES.

Palouse, Wash., Oct. 22.—The 16 local warehouses have been crowded to their almost capacity ever since this season's grain crop began coming in. Levi Archibald, of the Tacoma Grain company, said: "I consider that about 95 per cent of the wheat crop has been marketed. While the yield has not been a bumper crop, yet the average price of 70 cents has netted the Palouse farmer an unparalleled profit."

PHASANTS FLY, SWIM AND RUN Hood River, Or., Oct. 22.—A covey of Chinese pheasants was yesterday seen to fly from the Oregon shore near this city to White Salmon on the Washington side of the Columbia, a distance of a mile or more. The birds alighted in the water about 40 rods from the shore. They swam to the land and ran so rapidly to cover that but one pheasant was captured by J. P. Egan and his dog.

POLK IS TO HAVE A NEW TELEPHONE LINE Independence, Or., Oct. 22.—A joint stock company has been formed, the Independence Telephone company, with a capital stock of $500. The company will build a line to Monmouth, connect with the Lewisville, AirLa, Falls City and Dallas lines, will install a central office here, and co-operate with other rural lines now established. The promoters of the company are Dr. O. D. Butler, president of the Independence Improvement league, W. A. Messner and J. H. Craven. More than one half of the stock has been subscribed.

SAY WHEN And when you say it, it will be with a solid feeling of satisfaction if it is over a bottle of Neuberger's special old rye. Whether you are in the woods, on the water or in your cozy home, our liquors are always welcomed as a friend indeed.

FULL MEASURE HOUSE 100 SIXTH ST. 20 NORTH SIXTH ST.

KIDNAPS SON AND FLEES TO DENVER

WEALTHY COLORADO MAN, ACCOMPANYING LITTLE BOY AND WOMAN IN WHOSE CHARGE CHILD IS KEPT, LEAPS FROM CAR WITH CHILD AND DISAPPEARS.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Seattle, Oct. 22.—H. C. Clements kidnaped his 4-year-old son Harold from his boarding house in this city last Saturday afternoon and is now safely in Denver with the boy in his possession. More than a year ago Mr. and Mrs. Clements separated and she disappeared with their son. Since that time the father has advertised everywhere for some trace of the boy but could find none. Three weeks ago he received a letter telling him that his former wife was traveling for a Seattle firm. He came on. His wife was at Yakima and refused to see her husband, but agreed to write him the address of the child if he would agree not to molest it. This he agreed to, and the address was given—the home of Mrs. Tanner on Twenty-fourth avenue.

FEDERAL STOCK IS WORTH $18,000,000 (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Spokane, Wash., Oct. 22.—A. B. Campbell has sold his holdings in the Federal Mining and Smelting company to Charles Sweeney, president of the latter company. It is rumored that Mr. Campbell received 190 a share for his preferred stock, the par value being $100, and threw in his common stock as a bonus. On that basis the properties of the company are worth $18,000,000.

WILL TEACH ROYAL CHINESE AT PEKING (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Tacoma, Wash., Oct. 22.—Miss Mary Reynolds of Sidney, Iowa, who is on her way to Peking, where she will teach royal youngsters of the Chinese imperial household, today explained just what she expects to do. "Why," said Miss Reynolds, "the eastern papers have published a line of the most wonderful stories about me. Illustrated with pictures that make me smile. Here are the facts: I am sent to Peking by the Carleton mission, and was not selected by a committee of Chinese consuls. For one hour each day I am to instruct the children of the Duchess Ta in the English language and American methods. The children are held preparative to the Chinese throne and their education in English is at the command of the empress dowager. The Duchess Ta applied to the Carleton mission for a teacher, and I was selected."

MARRIED AT ROCKWOOD. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Gresham, Or., Oct. 22.—Andrew McMillan of Gresham and Miss Mary A. Grant of Rockwood were married Wednesday, Oct. 19, at the home of the bride's parents near Rockwood. After the ceremony by Right Rev. Father Anselm, the wedding dinner was served. Robert McMillan of Portland, brother of the groom, was groomsman. Those present were: Mr. Thomas Grant, father of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. D. McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Moll, Mr. and Mrs. J. Moll, Mr. and Mrs. P. Kronenberg, Mr. and Mrs. A. Grant, Messrs. Robert and Alex. McMillan, Henry Moll and Misses Agnes McMillan, Anna Moll, Lena Moll and Cecelia Moll.

CHARGED WITH ASSAULT. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Baker City, Or., Oct. 22.—Sheriff Brown arrested and held in jail here John Hand, a rancher living near Haines, charged with assault by the mother of Allie Bates, a 15-year-old girl near Haines. Hand has a wife and three children. His brother-in-law, another well-to-do farmer, James Maxwell, will go on his bonds for $2,000.

DIED OF HEART DISEASE. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) La Grande, Or., Oct. 22.—Miss Ora Eubanks died suddenly of heart disease in Walls, Walla, Wash., Thursday, aged 19 years. She left Summerville, 16 miles from here, a few days ago for Walla, Walla and was brought here for burial today. Her parents are residents of Summerville and have resided in Union county for many years.

SMELTER CLOSES CONTRACT. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Baker City, Oct. 22.—The Sumpter smelter today closed a two year contract with the Badley-Bilbings and Badger mine for the entire output.

HURLEY IS APPREHENDED. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Independence, Or., Oct. 22.—G. A. Hurley, an attorney residing at this place, has been appointed by J. H. McNary to be deputy prosecuting attorney for Polk county.

Monday Only Children's Underwear Pileed Lined Vests and Pants, 25c grades, all sizes to 28. 15c O.M.C. STORE NEWS Seventh Street, Between Morrison and Alder Monday and Tuesday Cotton Blankets 48c Tan or Grey, 65c Grade

The Week's Bargain Opportunities in Portland's Most Economical Store If the prices we quote were for cheap or inferior grades of merchandise, the goods could not be considered "bargains," perhaps. But the offerings presented are absolutely warrantable and warranted. Our strongest guarantee is back of every article. Each advertised item must be exactly as represented. "Money back or goods exchanged" in every instance desired, makes buyers safe. If a garment proves faulty in material or workmanship—even after being worn—bring it back! The only goods we sell are the kinds we can fully warrant. That we sell them cheaper is—well, "it's all in the buying." The week's sale—beginning tomorrow morning—is on warranted goods. If the price seems too low—don't feel afraid of the quality; we watch out for that. It's our loss if the article goes wrong. We invite shoppers. Come and make comparisons. We know our goods are of the best—that we can save you money—and we want you to know it.

Remember, O. M. Co. Goods are Warranted

$35 Tailormade Suits For $22.45

Ladies, this is positively the season's best offering. The most fashionable styles that are now being worn in New York, Philadelphia and Chicago are here displayed. Just such suits as even in those cities women are paying $35 to $40 for. So much for having "men right on the ground." Our eastern representative keeps us well supplied with the world's best products and these suits that go on sale tomorrow morning are some of their latest and best purchases. Stylish jackets, loose, belted, or tight fitting—with full box fronts. Marvelously handsome affairs. Skirts very full, some plain pleated effects, while others are trimmed with fancy or plain tailored strappings. Fancy Moorish mixtures in greys and browns—also plain colors of blue, brown, grey, and black. Not "just a few," but a splendid, big assortment—not many of a kind—but a great variety. Exclusive models. All sizes, 32 to 42. No extra charge for alterations.

Shirtwaists

Extra Special Offering for Monday and Tuesday (Not Wednesday) This bargain is on a par with the sale that caused the commotion last Friday and Saturday. Waists of granite cloth, flannel or flannelette in grades up to $2. Plain colors and figures—pleated fronts and backs, pretty sleeve, collar and cuff—sizes 32 to 42—choice$1.15

Tailormade Walking Skirts $6 Grades $3.45

Grey, blue, brown and oxford and mixtures in Melton, Kersey, Homespun, Chevots, Granite Cloth and Worsteds. Skirts with stylish flare—pleated, plain and trimmed with straps and buttons. A special offering for two days only.

NEED SHOES? These are BARGAINS not Found Every Day

Girls' $2 Shoes $1.59 Ladies' $3 Shoes $1.88 For School or Dress. The School Shoes are of box calf, rosy Telmor Kangaroo, or heavy kid—made with good, strong soles. Laced or buttoned. Medium and wide foot-form shapes for growing feet. These are all of sufficient weight to insure protection against dampness. The Dress Shoes are of same high grade—but of lighter weight.

Boys' $2 Shoes $1.65 Stout, serviceable Shoes for lively boys. Sizes 12 to 2. These shoes will stand any test—and the test that school boys give their shoes is usually sufficient. Although made for hard service, proper shape is not lost sight of. The shoes are made over neat lasts—easy fitting. Heavy Oak Soles—best quality calf and grain uppers—double tipped. These are first-class, sturdy, solid shoes that are building and holding trade for our shoe department. Larger sizes, 2 1/2 to 5 1/2; worth $2.50—at $1.85

Underwear Specials

These items are on special sale for the entire week. (Note the item for Monday only, at top of this Ad.) Ladies' Fleece Vests and Pants in cream color and grey. Good weight—the grade sold about town for 35c and 40c per garment. Here this week at ..22c Ladies' Non-Shrinking Woolen Underwear—ribbed—medium weight—especially desirable for Oregon's climate—form fitting vests—pant with long leg—cream and grey. Worth 90c the garment—price this week only, at68c Ladies' Grey Combination Suit—ribbed—form fitting—worth $1.50 and so priced in all Portland stores. Special at98c Misses' Combination Suits—priced according to size—at25c, 39c and 48c

Bedding for Cool Nights

Cotton Blankets of extra weight and thickness—for double bed—66x80 inches—white, tan or grey—fancy striped borders in blue, pink, red, and black. These are soft and fleecy and excellent value at $1.75 and $2. Special at$1.39 White, All-wool, Blankets—thick, warm and soft—striped borders—worth $7. This week$4.35 Cotton Comforters—full size—heavy satine covered—handsome patterns—securely stitched through and through—corded edges. Evenly and heavily filled with pure Sanitary Cotton. These are comforts selling in the ordinary today for $5 each—and worth it, too. Special this week, at$2.95 Silkline Covered Comforts—Worth $2 each—cotton filled—assorted patterns. This week only$1.33

Gems in Boys' Wearables

'Twill be one of the busiest places in the store—this growing Boys' Department. Knee Pants Suits in the newest fall styles—Norfolks—with box pleats front and back—belt with big buckle. Fancy mixtures in dark colors. Grades up to $4.98—this week$3.33 Little Boys' Overcoats—ages 4 to 8—handsome, dressy garments that boys will be proud to wear. Brown, blue, black and fancy mixtures—trimmed with brass buttons, velvet collars and heavy cord braids. Belts and strapped backs. $3.48, $4.95 and $6.50. Values a fourth more. Waists—sizes 3 to 10—years. Percale, fleeced and outing, in various styles. Samples—only one or two of a kind—to 7c grades. Choice35c Long Pants Suits—Values to $10.50—dark mixtures and plain colors—ages 14 to 20. Extra special for Monday and Tuesday, at$6.75

Note the Specials from Shoe Department

Hosiery with a Reputation: "Topsy"

We are Portland's Exclusive Agents The Week's Specials A Stocking worth 12 1/2c a pair for 6c! Ladies' plain fast black Hose—all sizes Ladies' 25c plain lisle, fast black, high spliced heel, double sole, full fashioned—at19c Ladies' fast black Cashmere Hose, worth 50c, at39c Boys' heavy ribbed Bicycle Hose—best wearing stocking made—worth 35c. Special this week at22c Girls' Cashmere Hose—heavy ribbed top—all sizes—worth 35c, at25c Girls' Cotton Ribbed Hose—double knee, worth 25c—at15c

All Remnants in Dress Goods, Silks and Domestics Go at Half-Price Monday and Tuesday Only

Each remnant has yardage and a heavily reduced price marked on the tag attached. Remnants are strewn along the counter. To make a quick clearance of every piece—the price for Monday and Tuesday will be exactly half what is marked on the tag.