TO PREPARE SCHOOL EXHIBIT AT FAIR

SUPERINTENDENT SIGLER APPOINTS CHAIRMAN OF THREE COMMITTEES AND THEY WILL COMMENCE WORK IMMEDIATELY—FEATURES OF THE WORK.

Plans are well under way for the exhibit to be made at the Lewis and Clark exposition by the public schools of this city. City Superintendent of Schools Frank Sigler has appointed the chairmen of three committees already and others will be named later.

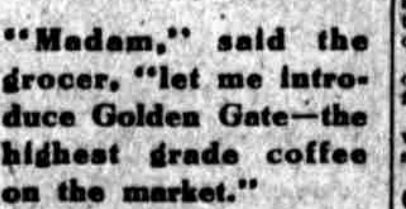

Robert Krohn will have charge of the committee on physical culture, and he will endeavor to make an interesting showing for his department. Photographs will be taken of the work required in all the grades and arranged in their order. These will be placed on exhibition.

W. J. Standley, principal of the manual training department will have charge of the exhibit to be made by his pupils. Specimens of work from the different grades will be on exhibition, together with photographs showing the work-rooms. As soon as the manual training classes are well started an art and crafts club of the most adept pupils in each center will be organized and they will work individually or jointly on the subjects to be used for exhibition purposes.

Mrs. Anna E. Knox, who has charge of the drawing, will furnish that exhibit, and will be able to make an elaborate exhibit. The heads of these committees will appoint others to assist them.

PANAMA CANAL LAW TEST CASE HEARING

(Journal Special Service.)
Washington, D. C., Oct. 25.—The case of Warren E. Wilson of Hinsdale, Ill., against Secretary of the Treasury Shaw, which was called for hearing today in the supreme court of the District of Columbia, has attracted keen attention from the fact that it involves the constitutionality of the Spooner act for the construction of the Panama canal and, in fact, the entire proceedings of the United States in the purchase of the canal and the work upon its construction. The suit is for the purpose of preventing Secretary Shaw from paying out any money for the construction of the canal or of issuing bonds for money to continue the construction.

It is asserted in the petition that the Spooner act is unconstitutional and invalid, both in Panama and the United States; that even if it were a valid and legal enactment, its terms and conditions have not been complied with, and do not purport to authorize the payments that are now being made; that the payments being made are unauthorized and unwarranted, violating the provisions of the constitution, which state that no money shall be drawn from the treasury except upon an appropriation made by law.

He was active in the campaign which resulted in the overthrow of the Tweed ring.

He served two terms as president of the board of fire commissioners, one term as state senator, and was appointed postmaster in 1897, where he served until 1923. He was again appointed postmaster in 1927, which position he held until his death.

Although she had never been there before she knew the room she wanted, which was convenient to the stairs leading to the floor below and the apartments of the landlord. The woman carried a large leather bag, which she refused to intrust to the care of the bellboys. (Journal Special Service.)
London, Oct. 25.—The Moscow press continues to publish painful stories of lunacy and mania at the front. The Sibirsky Vistnik prints the following story of a soldier driven mad by horror:

"Into the Tomsk municipal hospital is carried a wounded man of middle age. He is covered with knife-wounds—one in the chest, another in the side, and two in the stomach, the latter so deep that his internal organs are visible. Paying no attention to his injuries, he continues to relate triumphantly how he has destroyed a whole Japanese corps. Another madman thinks he is the czar and bestows decorations of tinfol on his keeper. During the earlier fighting around Liao Yang two lunatics escaped and went over to the Japanese. They were sent back next morning under the white flag."

ATHLETICS IN AMERICA.

From the Chicago Journal.
The United States for many years has had the champion prize-fighter of the world, while her athletes in other sports head the lists in almost every event in the last few years. This country carried off the championship for single-souled rowing at the Diamond Sculls in England, and has beaten England, Ireland and Scotland at their own special and particular games. As for rifle and pistol shooting, America holds the world's honors. On the turf our horses have won the Derby and the Grand Prix, while nobody has yet been able to lift the cup for yachting, held for nearly half a century.

This is the present record of a nation which at the time that Charles Dickens made his visit was looked upon as a land of dyspeptics, consumptives and overworked whisky-drinkers and tobacco users. The athletic spirit in the land today is everywhere noticeable. The idle wealthy are becoming a race of athletes. Those who are busy manage to spare an hour or two each day for recreation and physical exercise, and as a result our health, strength and vitality compare favorably with those of any civilized people.

TROWING RICE AT BRIDES.

The rice storm still rattles gayly about the shoulders of the newly married, in spite of the fact that rigorous efforts have been made to suppress it. Statisticians have counted up the thousands of bushels yearly wasted in the ceremony, and have urged that all this nutritious grain should be put into the mouths of the poor rather than down the backs of the opulent. Physicians speak of the eyes that have been injured or made permanently blind by the flying particles. Half of the people present secretly resent the stinging hail, and the departing couple are compelled to amuse the public at large for the next few days by shedding rice with every movement.

Somme Days in Russia.

Terrible accounts continue to be received from St. Petersburg of the horrors attendant upon the work of mobilization in the interior. Letters written from Charkoff, describe the situation there in the most sombre colors. Squads of reserves, who have made themselves half drunk for the sake of "Dutch courage," followed by crowds of waiting women, are daily seen, and the general attitude of the men enrolled is described as one of apathetic despair. They are only half fed, and often fall in the ranks from exhaustion. From this province alone 40,000 have been drawn.
