AID IS SOUGHT FOR OPEN RIVER

IDAHO AND WASHINGTON ARE INTERESTED IN WORK ON COLUMBIA AND BOVEE STATES ARE ASKED TO HELP EXPRESS ITS IMPORTANCE TO GOVERNMENT.

Since the work of deepening the mouth of the Columbia river is of interest to the state of Washington, now that the open river is an assured fact, the congressional delegation from that state has been asked to join with the Oregon delegation in securing an early appropriation from congress for carrying on this work.
Senator Ankeny, whose interests are primarily in eastern Washington, the section to be greatly benefited by the open river, has tacitly assured the navigation committee of the chamber of commerce of his support in this matter. The members of the Idaho delegation have also been asked to assist and there is no doubt that they will lend their united support, although no word has yet been received from them. Idaho will be benefited by the open river almost as much as Washington.
After an investigation the navigation committee of the chamber of commerce found that to insure early and continuous work on the jetty bar at the mouth of the Columbia river an early appropriation would be shooting itself in the sun. There is barely enough money on hand now to continue this work until the next appropriation is supposed to be made.
The Oregon delegation has been notified of the existing conditions and asked to act quickly. Senator Mitchell, who leaves for Washington within a week or so, said this morning that the matter should be given immediate attention.

FOG INTERFERES WITH MARKSMEN

SHOOTING IN GUARD COMPETITION IS MADE DIFFICULT BY HEAVY ATMOOSPHERE - SOME MEN HIGH AND POSSIBLE FEW AND FAR BETWEEN.

Fog interfered this morning in the military work above the City Park. When The Journal's special Artillery Division left the field a heavy haze hung over the scene. While operations continued, the mists materially interfered with the marksmen. All of the guard competitors in the annual shoot had not finished the slow-frag part of the contest at 1:30 p. m. but Maj. F. B. Baker stated that he believed the company contest would be finished by evening.
There are three ranges for the slow and two for the rapid firing. It is the purpose to finish both this afternoon, if possible, although the light will be worse from noonday on, and the targets set fairly toward the west from the shooting booths.
The scores are not as good as expected. Men who were practicing on the range yesterday were able to do a little better than today. This is accounted for by the haze that almost obscured the 500 and 600 targets in the early morning and rendered shooting difficult all day. The beautiful old gold and orange colors of the foliage on the hill around the targets also blend with such harmony that the bullets are made indistinguishable.
A list of the teams that had finished on the slow range up till 1:30 is given herewith, in which it is seen that Ira Cole, Company D, Roseburg, with a score of 10 at 500 yards, led in that class. At 600 yards, A. J. Royle and R. O. Scott, both of Company K, Portland, lead with scores of 23 each. On the 400 range, Harold Thomas of Company B, Ashland, and G. E. Bartlett of Company D, at The Dalles, are first, with scores of 23 each. There is a possible 25, each man shooting seven shots, rated at five points each.
In the following tables the scores are for 300, 500 and 600 yards, respectively:

BRIDGE BUILDING PREVENTS TRAFFIC

People residing on Willamette Heights are much exercised over the tearing up of the Thurman street bridge over Balch creek, for the purpose of constructing a new structure. As this is the only thoroughfare for traffic they will be practically cut off from the city while the new bridge is under construction, which will be at least 40 days.
Work has already been commenced on the bridge and tomorrow all streetcar and passenger travel will stop. The only way for the residents of Willamette Heights to reach the city will be a round-about one. Their greatest objection is that their children will be kept from school.
In order that his objection may be overcome the city engineer has been petitioned to ask the engineer in charge to keep a roadway open over the bridge so that foot passengers may cross. They thought this might be possible because the old woodwork will be used as a false structure for the old bridge.
Engineer Elliott states this is impossible. He is planning, however, to put a foot bridge across the creek to connect with trails on either side so that foot passengers will have but little further to walk to cross the gulch. The footpath leads to a point about 150 feet below the bridge and winds around so as to come out upon Thurman street again.

WILL DECIDE FATE OF SALOON BOXES

ARGUMENT OF DEMURRERS FILED AFTER GRANTING OF ORDER RESTRICING CITY FROM REFORMING BOX ORDINANCE WILL COME UP ON WEDNESDAY.

At last the date for argument on the demurrer to the complaint in the box ordinance case to restrain the city authorities from enforcing the saloons and restaurants to take out their private boxes has been set. After being postponed for nearly two weeks through the efforts of the attorneys for the plaintiffs it will come up on Monday.
The first suit against the city was filed by Harry Sandys of Rath & Sandys, restaurant men, and 11 others on September 16. A temporary restraining order was issued and 10 days were given the defendants to appear and show cause why the order should not be made permanent.
Meanwhile City Attorney McNary introduced a demurrer stating that the complaint did not contain facts sufficient to constitute a cause of suit against the city. Attorney McNary was anxious that the demurrer be argued at once, as the city authorities desire to have the matter settled.
Attorney Logan, for the plaintiffs, stated that he was not prepared to argue the matter and asked that the argument be postponed, as he desired to look up some data. His plan for the time being worked admirably and it was not until yesterday that City Attorney McNary succeeded in getting Attorney Logan to agree to take up the case next Monday.
It is said that on the granting of the restraining order the demurrer rests the decision of the whole case. If the demurrer is sustained the boxes will have to go. On the other hand, if the demurrer is overruled, the ordinance will be found by the court to be useless and saloons and restaurant keepers may continue business as of yore.

FIRST CARLOAD OF MEAT BLOCKS

Adolph A. Dekum has received the largest shipment of meat blocks in the city since the war.
Adolph A. Dekum, 121-123 First street, wholesale dealer in butchers' and packers' supplies, has received from the manufacturers one full carload of meat blocks, the largest shipment of this commodity ever made to Portland. The blocks are made of rock mops, are bolted together, handsomely polished and are ornamental. Indeed in appearance while Mr. Dekum carries a fine line of hardware, one of his specialties is butchers' supplies—blocks, hand and power choppers, butchers' knives and saws, hand coolers, hand presses, sausage stuffers, meat mixers, conservers, chilling powder, sausage seasoning, fillings, iceline, preservatives, pansetone, trays, baskets, scales, beams, etc. All things necessary for the complete equipment of fish markets and butchers' shops may be had at this store. Some of the smaller sizes of the blocks just received are especially adapted for the use of restaurants and boarding-houses.

WORKMEN CELEBRATE LODGE ANNIVERSARY

Today is the thirty-seventh anniversary of the founding of the Ancient Order of United Workmen. The different lodges of this city have been holding special events in honor of this occasion for the past week. Last night the Fort-Linn lodge of the Degree of Honor held an open-door session and many friends enjoyed the excellent program rendered. After the program there was a whist tournament, followed by refreshments. Tonight Fidelity lodge, Degree of Honor of the A. O. U. W., will celebrate the anniversary by holding an open meeting in their hall on the east side. The meeting will be an open one and elaborate entertainment has been prepared.
The A. O. U. W. was organized at Medford, Pa., October 27, 1868, by John J. Upchurch. For a few years the new order had a hard struggle but finally it became firmly established and spread very rapidly throughout the whole country. It has grand lodge organizations in every state of the union and is considered one of the strongest fraternal societies in the country. At the present time there are 325,000 members.

BOY BANDIT WALTON GUILTY AS CHARGED

Charles W. Walton has been found guilty of the charge of robbing Conductor Emanuel Johnson, while armed with a revolver. The jury hearing the evidence against him returned a verdict of guilty at 6 o'clock last night, after being out almost an hour. It was accompanied by a recommendation for mercy of the court, owing to the prisoner's age.
"Bandit Babe" remained in the court room in charge of Undersheriff Morden while the jury was out. His attorney, Henry St. Raymond, sat by his side and engaged him in conversation during this period. The lawyer had become imbued with hope just before the jury came in that there would be a disagreement. The prisoner received the verdict in silence, with no manifestation of emotion, but his attitude as he was taken back to the county jail was very depressed.
The maximum penalty for the offense is 20 years and for assaulting a person with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder 10 years. It is the common opinion that the boy will receive from 15 to 20 years imprisonment for the two crimes. Until the statutory time of notifying the court whether a motion for new trial will be made and argued, which is five days, his present sentence will not be pronounced by Circuit Judge Cleland.

PORTLAND JAPS ARE READY FOR SERVICE

A party of 16 Japanese, having been drafted by their native government for military service, will leave Portland on the next boat for Tokyo, there to don the uniforms of the solitary and the Flowery Kingdom. There are waiters, cooks and chamber men in the lot, and all are eager to help the sturdy little nation out of its difficulty, although at least three of his received notices from the home government have refused to go, a fact which bars them forever from Japanese soil.
The order commanding their return to Japan does not necessarily mean service at the front. The Japanese are merely ordered to hold themselves in readiness at any one of the principal seaports of Japan and if, after three months, they are not called upon to engage in the war, they are privileged to leave the country as they please.
About 25 Japanese have been drafted to Seattle.

SHORT CHANGE MEN FLEECE MERCHANTS

WELL-DRESSED MEN WITH ONLY YOUNG WORK OLD-STYLE TRICK SUGGESTION - GET SOME "BANK MONEY" - FOUR CASES ARE REPORTED.

Lightning change artists, known in police parlance as "rush-cut men," are working Portland. Five large stores have been victimized. Detective Welner has been assigned to the case. Thus far he has been unable to effect a capture. He believes several criminals are in the ring, and that they are operating in unison.
The following is a list of stores victimized, and amounts lost:
M. Sichel, dry goods, $16.
Sweetland Candy company, $5.
Andrew Gordon Confectionery company, $5.
D. C. Burns Grocery company, $5.
The success of the men operating the swindle depends upon their ability to keep cool and to work rapidly. They make a small purchase, hand the clerk a $10 or $15 gold piece or bill and when the change comes back make a quick trick of their pockets and find the exact change needed to pay for the goods. Then they explain that too much silver is a burden, offer to walk back to the cashier and pay the amount of the purchase, handing back the silver and receiving in return gold or bills. Before the cashier discovers the swindle, the person has left the store and escaped.
The man is an old one, according to the police, but is always easily worked by a clever appearing person and one who can talk glibly. Detective Welner believes that other firms have been made victims, but have failed to report the losses.
