

PORTLAND BOWLERS ORGANIZE LEAGUE

LOCAL THE TEN MEN WILL JOIN THE AMERICAN BOWLING CONGRESS—MOVES WILL ALLOW THE PORTLAND MEN TO ENTER THE NATIONAL TOURNAMENT.

Now that the fall season is here, the interest of the sport-loving public is being centered in one of the most popular of indoor winter sports, 10-pin bowling, and active steps are being taken for the organization of a league in Portland. At a meeting held yesterday at the Portland alley, the Portland Bowling Association was organized...

A FEW SCHEMERS

On December 3 the strong Astoria eleven will try once more to defeat Multnomah. The game will be played in this city and should be a hummer. Since the first game between these two teams early in the season, which was won by the home side...

Stubborn Coughs and Colds CURED BY FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR

Obstinate, racking Coughs that make your head ache, your throat and lungs sore and inflamed, that rob you of sleep until your system becomes so run down that you are in grave danger of Pneumonia or Consumption, are quickly cured by Foley's Honey and Tar.

Remember the name—Foley's Honey and Tar—and refuse substitutes that cost you the same as the genuine. Do not take chances with some unknown preparation.

C. Unger, 211 Maple St., Champaign, Ill., writes: "I was troubled with a hacking cough for a year and I thought I had consumption. I tried a great many remedies and I was under the care of physicians for several months. I used one bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar; it cured me, and I have not been troubled since."

GAWS FAVORITE IN TONIGHT'S BATTLE

COLORED STANFORD'S MORNAY BURNS AS 10 TO 8—CALIFORNIA FRIENDS CLAIM THAT THEIR MAN WILL DEFEAT THE BOYS—FIRST WILL BE SEEN IN THREE ENCLATURES.

Football has the stage for the rest of the year. Despite past season baseball games, golf tournaments or prize fights, the most interesting part of the season is at hand, and the surprises that have come during the past few weeks are of sufficient importance to keep the rosters talking for years to come. Forty years hence an admiral in the navy may recall the season of 1914, when the Annapolis midshipmen defeated Princeton Tiger, perhaps some famous general may be telling the boys about the 55-yard run he made that made Yale bow in humble submission to the craft and prowess of West Point.

It is hardly probable, however, that either of these will come to pass. Gans conditioned to the low notch nicely, and apparently is as strong as when he met Joe Walker and the Barbadoes Terror the battle of his life. While talk of a "job," as is customary in connection with San Francisco fights, has been in the air, it is extremely unlikely that Gans and his manager, Alf Herford, would dare to pull off a clean-up here. If they should, they would never be permitted to leave the city with whole skins. As for Britt, he is not in the clear-up business.

In the old days Pete Lohman, the California baseball magnate, played baseball at London, Canada and generally known that Canada was educated to our national game, and now some of the best baseball cities of the Eastern league are situated across the border line. But when Lohman played with London, which was then in the International league, the Canucks were not as well tutored as they are now.

AT THE THEATRES

"IN MINOURA" MAKES A HIT. "Atmosphere"—that's the word. "Atmosphere" might have been the discovery of everything he has written, he has displayed the same wonderful ability in preserving the locale of his work. His characters are genuine. They breathe and move in the very spot of the locality represented.

There have been many rural dramas on the American stage, but none that has come so near to nature or achieved such instantaneous success as George Ade's comedy drama, "The County Chairman," which Henry W. Savage will offer at the Marquam Grand theatre next Wednesday, Thursday, Friday nights, Saturday matinee, and Sunday afternoon.

CLAIRVOYAN

Never before in the history of occult science has a man of Professor Van Cortland's pre-eminence consented to his being shown at the disposal of the public for such a nominal consideration. Realizing that this city has been overrun with pretensions that many of its best citizens are anxious to visit a genuine clairvoyant...

Miller, blackface comedians and burlesque boxers, are far above the average blackface workers. Kate Rockwell knows as "The Girl in Flames," in which she dances the beautiful lily dance in a robe containing 300 yards of silk. Jumping DeOnzo has an original turn and Fickert and Whippin present an up-to-date sketch. Will C. Hoyt has another popular illustrated song and the Projectorscope a new set of films imported from New York.

Try hard as you may it is hard to beat the Bijou offering this week. Roscoe, the hypnotist, is a novelty for a vaudeville house; Newman, as Happy Hooligan, has an imitable monologue; Kelsey Moore is a true wire wonder, and Jerome and Lamont have a comedy musical act. O'Connell and Somers are top-notch singers and dancers. This and the new illustrated ballad singer all help to lift the standard of Bijou excellence.
