

POSSES ARE IN CLOSE PURSUIT

MICHELL SPEAKS AT CAPITOL CITY

VICTIM OF FIGHT IS UNCONSCIOUS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal)
Red Lodge, Mont., Nov. 2.—No report had been received up to a late hour this morning from the posse under Sheriff Jeff Champion, which is pursuing three robbers who yesterday afternoon in attempting to rob the Cody, Wyo., National Bank, corner of Court and G. L. Middaugh. The robbers entered the bank in broad daylight and ordered every one inside to throw up his hands. This command was refused and instead of complying the employes reached for their weapons and opened fire. The outlaws turned and fled. Many citizens who had been attracted to the scene by the shooting opened fire and the custer followed the bandits into the street, where after he emptied his gun he was shot and killed. The robbers were recognized as two cowboys who had been around the town several days. Despite all efforts, they escaped.

A telephone message from Meeteetee states that a posse that left there at midnight came upon the Cody bank robbers at daylight in a lonely spot on the Gray Bull river. The outlaws put up a fight and got away, one being injured.

In addition to the posse that started last night, word was received from Col. W. E. Cody that he was en route from Omaha in his special car to take the trail. Accompanying him are several English friends and the Sioux chief, Iron Tail.

SURVEYING CREW COMPLETES WORK

(Special Dispatch to The Journal)
Eugene, Or., Nov. 2.—Surveyors have completed a preliminary survey for the Willamette Valley Electric railroad's line from Eugene to the mouth of the Siuslaw river and returned to this city last evening. It took the party more than four weeks to make the distance of 76 or 80 miles.

It is announced that the American Pacific company, Minneapolis, a big concern, will move its headquarters to Eugene next spring. When it moves, the Prohibitionists of this city held a rally in the courthouse last night. The principal speaker was L. J. McAllister, of Portland.

A large number from Eugene Rebekah Lodge went to Creswell yesterday afternoon to help institute a new lodge of that order there last night. Mrs. G. N. Frazer, of this city, was instituting officer. The Eugene delegation returned home on this morning's early train.

WORKMAN'S NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH

Falling a distance of about 15 feet from a scaffold on the Morrison street bridge, Victor Joseph, a laborer, had a narrow escape from instant death last night. In his flight he struck on the back of a piling, breaking it—breaking his back. From there he plunged down into the river, and in his disabled condition he was forced to swim ashore or drown. Fortunately the land was only about 15 feet distant and he succeeded in reaching it without assistance.

Joseph states that he would not have been so badly hurt had it not been for another workman who fell from the scaffold at the same time. When he struck on the piling his companion lighted on top of him with both feet planted in the small of his back. Had it not been for his strong will power he states that the pain he suffered would have undoubtedly caused him to lose consciousness.

At the time of the accident the men were employed at mixing concrete, which was being placed in the center pier of the bridge. His companion escaped unharmed.

Mt. Vernon, N. Y., Nov. 2.—Two score of persons were injured and a property loss of $100,000 caused here this afternoon by the explosion of a quantity of dynamite. The dynamite had been stored under the Bond Street bridge and a passing train on the New Haven railway caused the disaster. The bridge was wrecked and several houses badly damaged. No one was killed, although many persons were in the vicinity. The dynamite was being used in construction work.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal)
Salem, Nov. 2.—Senator John H. Mitchell was the principal speaker at a Republican rally held yesterday last night, in which 500 men paraded at the music of three bands while bombs and fire crackers exploded and torches flared. The house was inadequate to seat those who wished to hear the senator's address. State Senator Kuykendall, of Lane county, preceded Senator Mitchell with a carefully worded speech, which was well received.

Mitchell's opening was apt. He referred to the fact that 44 years ago this month he made his first political speech in Salem; while Abraham Lincoln's campaign was in progress.

He paid considerable attention to the topic of race, and to foreign trade conditions, particularly in the orient. The Panama canal treaty he handled with brevity and the trust question he gave proportionately small attention.

National expenditures came in to the extent that the speaker denied statements regarding them made in a recent speech by Judge Parker, after which he took up imperialism at length.

In this connection he said:

"The Philippines are ours, ours by purchase, ours by treaty, as the result of a most successful war with Spain and by brilliant and statesmanlike diplomacy at the close of the war. The people of that archipelago, by every principle of international law, owe allegiance to the United States and to the American flag."

To have withdrawn, as suggested by the Democratic party, would have been moral and political cowardice; to have withdrawn could not best be described as a nation's basal with national questions, which the emergency of war had thrown upon us; to have withdrawn would have been to acknowledge that it is not the duty of the United States to suppress insurrection against its authority in a portion of its territory; to have withdrawn would have been to admit that the war that had been waged by our American soldiers in suppressing the Philippine insurrection was an unholy war, and a war of criminal aggression."

BASEBALL PLAYER IS PAID TO STAND ABUSE

A baseball player must stand all abuse hurled at him, short of actual profanity; must not retaliate at epithets hurled at him by those present during games, and if abused beyond his limit must, if desiring protection, call upon the police.

At least, such is the decision of Municipal Judge H. W. Hogue in the case against Catcher Henry Spies of the Los Angeles team, who was charged by Carl Orton with assault and battery. A fine of $25 was imposed.

Judge Hogue said that a ball player is paid to perform for the benefit of his employer and the enjoyment of the spectators; that he must control himself, no matter how hot the crowd may hoot and jeer him. The minor players, however, and tame matters in his own hand, said Judge Hogue, is acting illegally and must stand the consequences.

Spies' trouble occurred at the ball game last Saturday.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal)

Salem, Nov. 2.—Sheriff W. J. Culver returned to this city on the 10:30 train last night having in custody Carl Long of Butteville, who is accused of assault with intent to kill Henry Cameron, a laborer. Cameron, who has not yet recovered consciousness, was brought to Salem hospital. The story of the trouble, which occurred at Butteville Monday afternoon, as nearly as can be ascertained is as follows:

Carl Long, aged about 19 and Henry Cameron, a laborer of middle age, became involved in a dispute over a dice game in a saloon at Butteville. The proposed fight was adjourned until later, when it was informed by J. J. Ryan, one of the aldermen of Butteville, that they would have to go outside of the city limits if they wished to fight. They went to the public school grounds on a hill east of the town where Long says he struck Cameron over the head with a club after the latter had struck at him with his fist. Two eye witnesses say that Cameron was struck while he was removing his coat and that after he fell Long stamped on his face.

Long went to Oregon City where he was arrested.

Walton L. Toole of Woodburn yesterday denied that he had joined a hop pool. He says there are no more than 50 bales of hops left unsold in the Woodburn district. He favors a pool, however, if there are hops enough to warrant one. As chief of the bureau of hops appointed by the county court of Marion county to aid in making the exhibit fair for the county at the Lewis and Clark fair, he yesterday met with his colleagues, W. H. Egan of Brooks, Julius Wolf of Silverton, H. J. Ottensheimer of Salem and T. A. Bivenslay of Salem.

ROBBERS HOLD UP WHOLE TRAIN CREW

(Journal Special Service)

Berkeley, Cal., Nov. 2.—A story was brought here by the Wells Fargo messenger on the Southern Pacific's Oregon express of a desperate hold-up of a freight crew on the section between Chico and Biggs.

The crew discovered two men in a car and ordered them to get out. Instead of obeying the men drew revolvers and compelled the conductor, brakeman and the rest of the crew to throw up their hands, after which they went through their pockets.

The robbers then fired into the sides of the car and made their escape, leaving behind three sticks of dynamite.

It is believed the men were riding north to get near some favorite place to hold up the Oregon Express.

ACCUSED OF USING MAILED TO DEFRAUD

(Journal Special Service)

Omaha, Nov. 2.—Henry Haufaire, recording secretary, and John Cushing, president of the South Omaha Trade and Labor council, are under arrest charged with using the mails to defraud.

It is alleged they sent out circulars asking for money to pay the fines of men convicted on the recent meat strike, the money to be paid Haufaire, who had no authority to receive it.

GLENCOE BOARD IN FIGHT WITH DISEASE

Discovering that a child named Evans, attending school at Glencoe, had contracted smallpox, Chairman Dailey of the board of school directors, for that district, acting for the board, ordered the school closed yesterday and sent for County Health Officer Evans. The schoolroom was fumigated by Mr. Evans and the Evans family of Glencoe quarantined.

THE HEART OF CHICAGO.

Commencing tomorrow Cordray & Russell take pleasure in submitting Lincoln J. Carter's masterpiece of stage realism, "The Heart of Chicago," for an engagement of three nights and a Saturday matinee.

The story is one of the most thrilling ones ever written, it is cleverly connected and mounted with the most perfect display of scenic beauty and stagecraft which has ever marked a production in this country. It never fails to hold the interest from start to finish and the unusual talent of the company seen in the play this year insures its correct interpretation.

CHAMPION TENNIS JEFFRIES.

From the prize ring to the stage is a jump that many have attempted, but missing their footing, have landed in ignominious defeat. Not so with James J. Jeffries, the world's greatest champion, who is now touring the United States at the head of his own company, producing that sterilized drama of the west by Frank Mayo, "Davy Crockett." Jeffries will appear in this city Tuesday night, November 8, at the Marquam Grand theater. The advance sale of seats will open next Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

THE CLOCK AT CORDRAY'S.

The brilliant engagement of Theodore Kramer's successful metropolitan melodrama, "The Fatal Wedding," takes place this evening at Cordray's. No attraction which has visited Portland during the present season has drawn such unanimous satisfaction as has this one. Much of the interest of the production centers in the work of little Gusie Shires, the child star, one of the youngest and undoubtedly the most remarkable child actress on the American stage.

THE REJOICE WAY.

A hypnotist is a popular priced vaudeville house is a big novelty. And among the best hypnotists, Roscoe, the Bijou's spellbinder, is a novelty. Every day he gives some new display of his wonderful power. To hear Newman, the Happy Hooligan, who is the real thing, means good soul-stirring laugh. The other acts are of the best; that is the Bijou way.

PRINCE IS COMING.

Honolulu, Nov. 2.—Prince Fushimi, a cousin of the emperor of Japan, arrived on the steamer Manchuria, today en route to the United States. He was given a great demonstration.

When Your Cold Catches You Just There

There is No Time to Wait.

It is not a "little thing." It's a deadly thing. It will not "get well by itself" if you let it alone. Whiskey and quinine and such things brace you up for the time, but they don't cure you.

Ask any intelligent doctor why you catch cold so easily. He will say, "Because you are a bit run down." He means that the force which nature placed in your body to keep out disease germs—the resistive force—is weakened. The door is open a little way toward disease.

There is not a gravestone in any cemetery in the world caused by consumption or pneumonia or any lung trouble whatever, which did not start with what you call "Nothing but a cold."

A cold should not be beaten back or drugged over—it should be cured, and the general health should be built up.

ACKER'S ENGLISH REMEDY

should be taken at the first symptoms of cold. It is a tonic for the whole body, a specific for sudden colds, coughs or sore throats. It doesn't matter where the cold is or how it got there, we know that Acker's English Remedy will reach it and cure it. It is sold on a positive guarantee.

NO CURE NO PAY. If you have a cold—no matter how slight—it means something. Take Acker's English Remedy at once. Keep it in the house. If it does not relieve you almost instantly, we will refund you the price paid.

"Acker's English Remedy saved my life. A cough, slight at first, grew constantly worse and I finally had to give up my work in the Knoll's Factory at Walden. I had frequent bleeding spells. Was examined by local doctors, prominent physicians in New York and at a Medical College. They all pronounced me hopelessly ill. I began using Acker's English Remedy and a few bottles cured me. I
