MANAGER THATCHER OF TELEPHONE COMPANY TO DISMISSE OPERATORS FROM STRIKE BECAUSE OF DISSENT

Efforts are being made by the management of the Pacific Telephone company to dissuade the operators from striking because of their dissatisfaction with the overtime salaries that were paid Thursday. The strike has not been declared up to this time, though the girls declare themselves to be ready for such action in case the company refuses to make good its promises in regard to overtime pay.

Division Manager Thatcher recently made the trip to San Francisco for the purpose, it is said, of inducing the company to increase the salaries as he had promised. The result of his attempt has been made known. The operators, however, believe that the company cannot fail to make the promised increase.

Girls who are working at the switchboard in the places of the union girls who are out on strike are warned to have no communications with the strikers. It is seen talking with the girls who are on strike or if detected in giving out information concerning the rules or regulations of the company immediately allowed. As a consequence the girls who are working shun the strikers as they would a pestilence. They cross the street rather than meet them.

The strikers are arranging to give a ball at the armory Wednesday night. The proceeds will be applied to paying the salaries of those who are on strike. They are being paid the same amounts they would receive if they were still in the service of the company.

HONEY FOR BOYS

There is a lot of money to be made in the Oregon country, and the boys who are working at the switchboard in the places of the union girls who are out on strike are warned to have no communications with the strikers. It is seen talking with the girls who are on strike or if detected in giving out information concerning the rules or regulations of the company immediately allowed. As a consequence the girls who are working shun the strikers as they would a pestilence. They cross the street rather than meet them.

CHICAGO OFFERS MAXIMUM CONTRACT

TWO PORTLAND BIDDERS FOR CONTRACT TO FURNISH STEEL SPIKES AND NAILS FOR JETTY WORK AT MOUTH OF COLUMBIA RIVER

The work of replacing the damaged portion of the jetty at the mouth of the Columbia river will be begun as soon as the material can be placed on the ground. A contract for furnishing 110 tons of steel railroad spikes was awarded yesterday afternoon by Maj. W. C. Langitt to the Illinois Steel company of Chicago. According to the terms of the contract this material is to be shipped within a week.

Bids for supplying the material named were opened yesterday in the office of Major Langitt. The following five firms submitted proposals: The Illinois Steel company, Chicago, $1,391,221; J. R. Bowles, Portland, $1,388,500; Charles F. Beebe company, Portland, $1,387,585; A. J. McCabe, Tacoma, $1,382,800; and C. J. Tallon, San Francisco, $1,381,000.

Two Portland concerns offered to supply the steel and spikes at figures a trifle less than the Chicago house, but they wanted from 40 to 60 days from the time of the award of the contract before delivering the order. As it is desired by the United States engineers to begin work upon the improvement just as quickly as possible, the time of delivery of the material is an important feature which was taken into consideration.

There were also bids opened at the same time for furnishing piling and other timbers, but it has not been determined as yet who will be given this contract. A decision will probably be reached today. The United States engineers state that the work of repairing the jetty will begin just as soon as the material can be got down there. They explain that their intention is to get the jetty fixed up so that rock can be delivered early in the spring for its extension.

OREGONIANS TO SEE BULL FIGHT

IS ON PROGRAM OF NATIONAL IRRIGATION CONGRESS TO BE HELD AT EL PASO, TEXAS, AND WILL BE PULLED OFF ACROSS THE BOUNDARY LINE AT JUAREZ.

A bull fight will be one of the features of entertainment to be witnessed by Portland delegates to the national irrigation congress at El Paso November 15-18. While not so large a number of Oregon men as at first announced will make the trip to the metropolis of the Rio Grande country, there will be a representative delegation, including A. King Wilson, A. H. Devers, E. M. Brannick, Tom Richardson and other Portlanders and E. L. Smith of Hood River, Judge Lowell and T. G. Halley of Pendleton and others from eastern Oregon who are not expected to go by way of Portland. The leaders of the movement expect to have ten or a dozen men who are capable of pulling a strong ox in the race for the convention city of 1935.

It is generally conceded that Portland now has a strong lead for the next convention. A. W. Gifford, secretary of the El Paso committee on arrangements, writing to the Portland Commercial club, says he is "getting thoroughly posted on Oregon preparatory to making a visit to Portland next year to attend the irrigation congress and the Lewis and Clark fair."

The Portland delegation to El Paso will start about November 9. During their stay at El Paso they will be entertained by the Texas with many diversions, among which will be a visit to the famous El Paso smelter and the cornerstone where Texas, New Mexico and Mexico meet; a trip down the Rio Grande valley; a Mexican bull fight across the international boundary line at Juarez by trolley from Spain and the City of Mexico. A Mexican band will give daily concerts during the congress. At the close of the session a reception and ball will be given in honor of the visitors.

REVENUE A THIRD OF THE ESTIMATES

According to City Auditor Devlin, the estimates of expenses for 1935, which have been handed in by the heads of the different departments, are three times greater than the sum at the disposal of the city. What makes the total of the estimates so great is the proposed increase in the police and fire departments. Mayor Williams will call a special meeting of the executive board and the ways and means committee of the city council some time next week when the matter of finances will be taken up and the estimates reduced, so that they will fall within the amount of revenues which will be derived by the city from various sources. It is desired by the mayor to get this matter settled as soon as possible as he is anxious to make up his budget for the coming year.

BAILEY DOES HAIL FROM WALLA WALLA

He pleaded guilty to peddling without a license, and in the municipal court this morning R. L. Bailey was sent to jail for 30 days by Judge Hogue. Bailey was arrested by Detective Hartman on suspicion of being the local agent for a big band of clothing and shoe robbers, for evidence obtained showed him to have been selling lots of new shoes and clothing to local second-hand merchants. He says he is from Walla Walla, Wash., and word from the chief of police there bears out his statement. During his imprisonment his record will be gathered, and a more serious charge may be placed against him.

HEAVILY FINED FOR BEATING HIS WIFE

"To knock a woman over a wash-tub and jump on her costs $50 for the first offense and repetitions will come higher," says Municipal Judge H. W. Hogue. R. Mantello was fined $50 this morning for the offense and went to jail in default of payment. His wife was his victim. Mantello pleaded guilty to the charge, which was assault and battery. He threw himself on the mercy of the court, explaining that he was drunk. Judge Hogue severely lectured him. His past offenses were briefly told by Attorney Ferraris.

THE very thing to heat ALL the house at the cost of operating a heating stove to heat ONE room. This is a good thing to know. Few people think of this important feature of house warming. to load in November the Niocomedia will be the only vessel that will clear for the far east this month. As enough freight is in sight to more than fill two steamers, the non-arrival of the Elteric will prove a great disappointment to the shippers, who have contracted for space on her. In the meantime the company's Portland representatives are patiently waiting for some word concerning the belated steamer.

Next month the exporters do not believe there will be any very heavy shipments to the orient, all the big orders coming now when they are unable to fill them on account of inadequate transportation facilities. It is believed, however, that if Port Arthur should fall, as now seems certain, that orders for grain and flour will come pouring in from that quarter at a more rapid rate than ever before known. In that event it is stated to be probable that several cargoes will be dispatched from Portland in December if tonnage could be secured. It is supposed that nearly all the supplies in the beleaguered city have been exhausted, and as the Japanese land forces will be in that vicinity in great numbers, they will probably make it their base of operations. Business is then expected to boom with the transportation lines operating from the Pacific coast.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT.
Cargo is being taken from the Italian ship S. Celeste which is lying at the Coloma dock. Late this afternoon the steamer Columbia is expected to arrive in the harbor from San Francisco. Local United States Inspectors Edwards and Fuller inspected the steamer No Wonder today.

PLEA FOR WALTON FAILS IN COURT
Circuit Judge Cleland this morning denied the motion of Attorney St. Raymond to direct judgment in the case of Charles W. ("Babe") Walton, convicted of murderously assaulting Policeman Nelson and of holding up a Willamette heights car and robbing Conductor Emanuel Johnson. The application to strike the affidavits of the state from the files was also denied but may come up Monday along different lines.

The court stated that he had arrived at the conclusion that the motion to arrest judgment was not warranted by the failure of Walton to plead, as shown by the records, without regard to the affidavits filed.

It was pointed out that the laws of California, Washington and other states in this particular are similar to Oregon laws. While no decision bearing directly on the point is to be found in Oregon court records, those of the other states show that when a demurrer is overruled the defendant may elect to enter a plea, but that if he fails to do so and go to trial a plea of not guilty is entered for him.

It is anticipated that Judge Cleland will pass sentence on Walton on Monday. Attorney St. Raymond, the prisoner's counsel, will then have five days in which to file a notice of appeal to the supreme court and additional time in which to prepare a bill of exceptions.
