Poets Sing of Pumpkin Pies
What moistens the lips and what brightens the eye? What calls back the past like the rich Pumpkin Pie?
Try one of ours and you'll be adding to the list who are singing their praise. They're not easy to make with the proper blending of aromatic spices, and to bake to just the right brown. That's the way we make them. Generous size and every ingredient the very best obtainable - not a bakery pie. Delivered to your home or served in our luncheon room with a glass of pure milk and a cut of cream cheese.
Ask for an Oregon wood souvenir postal card. They're free.
