Enthusiasm Over This "American Week's" Leading Feature, the Gigantic "Comparison Sales," Has Reached Fever Heat

Not even a Presidential contest can hold a candle to it. Not half the talk over election that there is over the matchless values that have jammed the store to repletion, Saturday and yesterday. More triumphs today and tomorrow, and all week. Watch this "COMPARISON SALE"—follow its meaning—compare Olds, Wortman & King VALUES, QUALITIES AND PRICES, with elsewhere bargains (?). COMPARE—this "COMPARISON SALE" that sets a hot pace for rivals this "AMERICAN WEEK," as our country sets the nations of the world in progress.

The News Stirred the Town and Country Round!

FAST AS TRAINS COULD CARRY THE PAPERS THE TIDINGS SPREAD! AND PORTLAND WOMEN FOLK TALKED OF LITTLE ELSE YESTERDAY BUT THE

Sensational One-Half Price Sale

OF OLDS, WORTMAN & KING'S MAGNIFICENT STOCK OF

Theatre and Evening Wraps, Calling and Carriage Gowns, Evening Gowns and Party Costumes.

THE SALE LASTS ALL WEEK, and is reinforced by other special values each day during the week, selected from the matchless stock of exclusive, magnificent creations contained in the peerless Second Floor Salons—THE FASHION CENTER OF THE WESTERN GARMENT WORLD. This matchless collection of Gowns, Costumes and Wraps is one in which merit and value combine to win the approval of best-dressed women. In them you'll recognize the master touch of the famous Parisians who dominate the world of fashion, as well as leading Berlin, Vienna, London and New York designers, among the latter that world-famous fashion-moulder and creator, Miss Schroeder, herself noted as "New York's best-dressed woman," and whose creations are not shown on the Pacific Coast outside this great Style Show. Wash, Paquin, Sars, Meyer, Douillet, Raudwitz, Francais, de Cio, Doucet, Gustave Bear, Mme. Agnes and other famous Parisian designers' models are represented here. In smartness and style paint is left to be desired. It would be invidious to pick out any garment or fabric for particular description as being more beautiful than another. The finest of fabrics—silks, velvets and broadcloths, in combination with real lace, ribbons, handsome spangled nets, rich jet ornaments, etc.—have been lavishly yet tastefully used to obtain desired charming effects. It's a sale that vibrates with vital interest and holds forth the greatest buying opportunities to every woman who wants the latest and most authoritative expression of Fashion's later ideas in Theatre and Evening Wraps—$50 to $250—Now 1/2-Price, $25 to $125.

Calling and Carriage Gowns—$75 to $250—Now 1/2-Price, $37.50 to $125.
Costumes and Evening Gowns—$85 to $500—Now 1/2-Price, $42.50 to $250.

Out-of-town patrons are urged to hasten their visit for selection during this great sale, as our home folk will surely pick their share early. THE GREATEST SALE OF HIGH-ART GARMENTS EVER ATTEMPTED OR CONDUCTED BY ANY WESTERN HOUSE! NOTE OTHER SPECIAL SALES IN THIS SECTION TOMORROW—WALKING SKIRTS AND WAISTS.

A Drastic Sale of Textiles—Silks and Dress Goods Slaughtered

Movings necessary to the alterations and expansions now going on necessitate this wholesale slaughter of these stocks. 'Twill pay the prudent woman to buy now for months to come of these new fabrics.
