TOWN TOPICS 15

was filed in the circuit cou by by Frank Hobers to recov from the Southern Oregon con He sileges that this apount a commission on the sale any. He sileges that this amount is us as a commission on the sale of ands in Coos county. According to the omplaint, filed through Attorney Idlins Hughes, Hoberg antered into a con-ract with the company in last Japusly, y the terms of which he was to re-sive a commission of 3% per cent on ending it a purchaser for the property. Is declares that he sent it a purchaser, ad that the sale was consummated, the act date being unknown, for $500,000. Is has demanded his commission, he meets, on numerous occasions, but has ceeived no consideration at the hands f the company.

The Bailey Gatseri's the beat you want to take If you're going to The Dalles or iny way point. This handsome craft is the stanchest, most reliable and most confortable plying between Portland and The Dalles: undeniably the boat for a comfortable and safe journey. Ask iny of your friends who have taken the trip on the Gatsert and they'll tell you what a delightful one it was. Steamer oaves Alder-street whirf at T a. m. Nerry Monday, Wednesday and Friday, Beamer Regulator, another swift boat, eaves same hour on alternating days. Take either boat with assurance of a safe, speedy, comfortable trip. Phone Main 1.4.

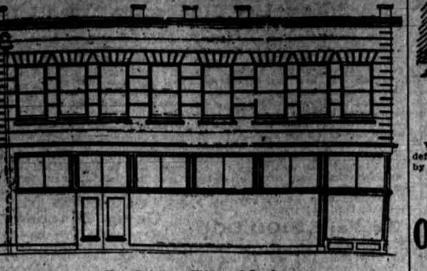

He sells the "World Book of Knowl-edge," and therefore J. F. Morrison was not long in learning how some main was beating him out of considerable money by gathering in installments which he had no right to collegt. For that res-son, Morrison last night caused the ar-rest of Guy Wilson, charging him with obtaining money by false pretenses. Morrison is local agent for the book named, and for some time has heard of another man making collections with-out his consent. Developments drew Wilson into the affair. He was locked in the city jail, in default of bonds.

In the city jail, in default of bonds. Driving recklessly through the prowded streets at 7 o'clock last night, a 16-year-old boy almost caused the beath of a 6-year-old girl who was crossing Morrison street at Fifth. The child was some little distance in front of her mother. The boy was driving a horse hitched to a buggy and drove rap-dly round the corner. It struck the child, who was thrown in front of the child, who may the child was saved from being trampled on. The child'a injuries were painful, but are not con-idered serious. For Signs see W. P. Berger & 384 Yamhill; phone Red 1003.

Seventeen Chinese pheasants were ob-ined yesterday near Molalla, called the bheasants' paradise," by T. M. Yoder d J. Wesley Yoder. Included in the source is a free two large roosters, which t fush, and by dodging and back track-t fush, and by dodging and back track-t fush and by dodging and back track-t after taking to the timber will out-t fush and by dodging and back track-t after taking to the timber will out-t fush an ordinary dog at any time. "We t these two with a 23-special rife at distance of 100 yards," said T. M. "That man's got on my overcost," ex-chaimed Goehring, as he surveyed Leo-nard. Goehring was right. The prisoner, al-ready charged with theft, was wearing a total overcost. It has was booked on two Goehring was right. The prisoner, al-ready charged with theft, was wearing a stolen overcoat. He was booked on two charges of larceny.

At the monthly assembly of teachers of larceny."
From the woman the prisoner took a club for the Lewis and Clark exposition were discussed. Organisation of a club for the general discussed. Organisation of a club for the general mere man end Miss Laura Northrup was transfer to the police and whether he the purpose of outlining plans for a perman end Miss Laura Northrup was checked chairs.
Leonard was intoxicated. He is a the purpose of outlining plans for a perman end Miss Laura Northrup was checked chairs.
Leonard was intoxicated. He is a the purpose of outlining plans for a perman end Miss Laura Northrup was checked chairs.
Leonard was intoxicated. He matter to Munleipal Judge Hogue tomorrow morning.

A SIX-STORY BRICK

MRS.LOEB WILL BUILD

New Brick at . Fifth and Stark. After some deliberation Mrs. Eliza Loeb has decided to begin building oper-ations on har new six-story brick struc-ture on the northeast corner of Fifth and Stark streets." As she was unable to secure the full ground necessary for such a structure until next year. Mrs. Loeb will construct a two-story building on the corner site at once. Her property facing on Stark street

Portland February 14, 1877. Mrs. O'Don-ald, whose maiden name was Kirby, as-serts that she was deserted August 3. 1901. She petitions the court to restore her the right to use her maiden name. DR. O'CONNOR'S SUIT SETTLED AMICABLY

W. L. Fisher was arrested last night on complaint of F. R. Thomas, who con-ducts a rooming house at 329 Front street. Fisher is accused of being drunk and disorderly. It is alleged he demol-ished all of the furniture in his room. White Winged Peace Now Broods Over the North Pacific Dental College.

Wa-Hoo Tonic. The great blood puri-fler, nerve tonic and liver regulator. Just what you need these days. For sale by all druggists. On the gable of the North Pacific Dental college the dove of peace sits again and preens its snowy feathers, secure from further disturbance by the noise of sanguinary domestic conflict. By stipulation of interested counsel A. King Wilson and O. A. Neal have moved their law offices from 14 Wor-cester block to $21 Chamber of Com-suit for an accounting and the ap pointment of a receiver, brought by Director H. P. O'Connor against Dr. Chew Den-Tal-Gum, have pearly teeth and prevent decay. For sale every-where Dr. Skiff has returned. Over Stein-bach's, Fourth and Morrison.

ON THE THIEF'S BACK

pointment of a receiver, brought by Director H. P. O'Connor against Dr. Herbert C. Miller, the president and dean of the faculty; Dr. John Welch, vice-president and director, the college and the Title Guarantee and Trust com-pany as trustee, has been diamissed. The order of dismissal was entered by Presiding Judge George in the circuit court yesterday afternoon. In his suit Dr. O'Connor declared that faise entries had been made in the min-utes of meetings, resulting in his being deprived of his rights. He socused Dr. Miller and Dr. Welch of voting them-selves salaries for sinecures and of squandering the funds of the institution, which he contended was in a bad finan-cial condition. In his petition he asked the court for more than $60,000 of the noilege funds, and to place a receiver in charge.

nie Smith.

OregonOptical Co HIS MONEY IS GONE HE IS NOW A PAUPER

T JOURNAL, PORTLAND, SUNDAY HORNING, NOVEMBER

PYDSIGHT

SPECIALISTS

BRANINATION FRAD

John Lindstrom to Become an Inmate of the County Hospital.

LOSES POWER OF SPEECH -CANNOT HELP HIMSELF

Case Such as to Require an Investigation on the Part of the Authorities.

Bick and neglected, a paralytic, who has entirely lost the power of speech. John Lindstrom lies in a small room lo-John Lindstrom lies in a small room lo-cated in the rear of a barn at 411 Fourth street. Through what the county court believes was poor judgment on the part of those having charge of his wel-fare the man is now a pauper. Lindstrom is 83 years of age. He be-came belpiess about 20 months ago, at which time he owned a house and lot at Mt Tabor worth $2,000. On this property was a mortgage held by K. W. Wilkins for $700. The county court appointed J. Freiburg guerdian of the appointed J. Freiburg guardian of the old man. . Wilkins uprchased the Mt. Tabor prop-erty for $2,000, paying $1,300 in cash after the mortgage had been satisfied. At that time he offered to take the property and care for the aged owner during his life in payment, but Attor-ney George P. Lent. representing the guardian, thought this plan not for Lindstrom's best interests, and so the house and lot were purchased by Wil-kins.

kins. An arrangement, it is claimed, was afterwards entered into by which Wil-kins took Lindstrom to his home and was to take care of him at the rate of $2 per day which he was too ill to help himself in any manner, and $1 a day, when he should be able to be upon his feet. Twenty, months have elapsed and the moncy is gone. Wilkins received $20, as his receipts given Freiburg show, and the remainder was expended in attorney's and guardian's fees and the purchase of clothing and other neces-saries.

ing will be called to perfect the or

Mr. and Mrs. Wing B. Allen of Salt Lake are at the Portland. They will leave tonight for San Francisco. J. Gordon Smith. correspondent for the Morning Post of London. is at the Portland hotäl. accompanied by his wife. John H. Scott of Salem is in town. E. G. Miller and wife of Astoria are at the Important A proposition advanced by the public bodies of Portland favoring purchase of the Oregon City locks by the United States government is being seriously considered in many quarters. Senator C. W. Fulton and others of the Oregon delegation at Washington have written to the Portland Chamber of Commerce saying they favor the suggestion and will do all in their power to secure the passage of a measure at the next sea-sion of congress authorizing the pur-chase and appropriating money for it.

at the Imperial.

Policeman Foster, who was discharged by Chief Hunt and later reinstated by the civil service commission, called at the central station yesterday afternoon and asked for orders. He was instructed to report for duty this morning at 13:30 and uid so. He was off duty 45 days.

4

Irishmen and women should not fall to be at the meeting of the Gaelic League at their hall. Second and Stark streets, tonight, 5 o'clock. Admission free, C, CURRAN, president. erly United States commissioner of Skaguay, and at one time a member of the Oregon legislature, is at the Im-perial.

Walp M. O'Donald filed suit for di-vorce from W. H. O'Donald in the circuit who was a member of the last legis-court yesterday. They were married in lature, is at the Imperial.

That has been the even tenor of everybody's song for the past six months. That's all over now (as the farmer said when he peeped out of his cyclone cellar), but the CALAMITY HOWL-ERS are busy arranging a few new verses for their winter anthem

"WHEN BUSINESS PICKS UP AGAIN"

In the meantime the long headed fellows are getting ready to do the biggest business that ever shook up the great northwest. That means that all of them need a little machinery, most of them a lot of it, which brings the argument down to our garden gate.

CHINFLY PERSONAL

LOST OVERCOAT FOUND

A desperate attack was made last night on Belle Baker and Jennie Smith, colored, by two white men and a negro, in a room in a north end house. In the encounter the Baker woman was choked almost into insensibility, while her companion was knocked to the floor by a vicious blow from the negro assailant, who was ar-rested later. John M. Moore came in from Salem last evening.

rested later. While the Smith woman was prostrate on the floor the two white men tried to tear a valuable diamond ring from the Baker woman's finger, but failed. The pegro took a $5 gold piece from her purse, however, and then the trio fled from the premises inter inter James S. McQuade, advance agent for "Candida." is at the Imperial. "Candida." Is at the Imperial. E. H. Davis of Corvallis is a visitor in Portland. Charles Butler, the sheep man, is here' from Port Townsend, Wash. Representative B. F. Jones of Lincoln county is at the Perkins. L. R. Stinson, the well-known K. of P. official, is in from Salem for a brief purse, however, and then the trio fied from the premises. Down north Third street they raced with the Baker woman in pursuit, bare-headed and coatless. At the top of her voice she was screaming to pedestrians to stop the thieves, but no one did so, and they escaped across the steel bridge. Captain Moore was notified at police Beadquarters and sent Detective Weiner to the scene of the daring robbery. A quick search in the neighborhood resulted in the arrest of the negro, who gave his name as Charles Wilson. He is in jail, charged with larceny and assault and battery.

charged with largenty and accepted with largenty in the police believe that a desperate gang of criminals, whose object is to plunder by attacks such as the one last night, has come here. Efforts were made to capture the two white men, but the police were unable to locate them. The women who were so brutally attacked declare they will be able to identify the men.

PUSHING WORK AT THE FAIR GROUNDS

ment Building, and the Trail Laid Out.

They have started work on the gov-remment building on the peninsula at the lewis and Clark fair grounds. A build-ag has been put up for the use of the workmen and dirt is flying from the bottom of the post holes, under the di-tection of Contractor J. E. Bennett. There are probably 50 men employed in the work at this time and within a short while the number will be in-reased to 200. Within one month it is expected that the walls will be ready for he plasterers.

court house and insisted that the aged man be taken to the hospital immedi-ately. He declared that if the wagon had left for that institution on the day in question he would take Lindstrom out in his buggy. Pending an investigation of the ac-counts, as not everything appeared sat-isfactory to the court, no order sending Lindstrom to the hospital was adopted. It is the opinion of the court that he should have been sent there before his last cent of money was dissipated. Mrs. Wilson, a member of the city board of charities. Informed County Judge Webster yesterday afternoon that Lindstrom is in a pitlable condition. "He lies in a rear room of a barn at Wilkins' place," said Mrs. Wilson. "His shoes and clothing have not been re-moved. The old man is powerless to move."

Received by the Chamber of Commerce.

In response to a request from San bigo, Cal; the Portland chamber of commerce yesterday sent several boxes of Oregon literature to that point. The sent asking for the matter wrote: "Many people comeshere from the east and buy property, and our people who self about government land. We have may uses for Oregon literature. Al-ready there is a large list of our people who are preparing to attend the Lowis and Clark fair." The Rock failand Railway company has to the distributed through its agents in the country to make a study of the self shout your for the boxes of Oregon literature. A Verdier, a Frenchman, who is sent for the country to make a study of the self section of this subject in connec-tion the clamber of commerce of Bor-damber of commerces for all available information on this subject in connec-tion with Portland and as an export point. He wants data regarding the de-ptoring storing, railway failities, and ports of destination abroad. The cham-ber forwarded the information desired.

LITTLE SYNDICATE

expected that the walls will be ready for the plasterers. William Myors, a may of wide expe-tience, has been engaged to "staff" the building, and the house in which the material for the other beautiful struc-tures was prepared has been torn down and reset near the site, in order to expedite matters. The piles are about all driven for the Trail and Bridge of Nations and it is now possible to walk across the board path from the main land on the body, which is 2,000 feet across.

Labor Started on the Govern-