constitution recommended several minor changes, among which were giving the president of the association the chair-manship ex-officio of the executive com-mittee, and altering the membership fees. The fee before was $2 a year, but under the new provision the fees are $2, $10 and $20, respectively, for lay members, individual operators and min-ing corporations. The purpose of this was to provide something of a revenue to prosecute such work as the asso-clation might find it necessary to do.

SEVENTEEN TONS OF ORE FOR EXHIBIT AT THE FAIR

FUR EXHIBIT AT THE FAIR (Special Dispatch to The Journal) Contage Grove, Or, Nov, 15.—D. H. Weyant, state commission representa-tive, gathering minerals for the Lewis and Clark fair, is here for the purpose of receiving and forwarding the dona-tion of Bohemia ores which have been brought together through the efforts of the Mine Owners' association of the dis-trict. About seven tons of the typical ores of the camp have been secured and delivered at the track of the Oregon a Southern railroad. Mr. Weyant will new take charge of it and will prop-erly label, classify and ship it to the ex-position for storage until the state min-reral building is completed. This mag-nificent lot of quartz samples from Bo-hemia has been gathered this early be-cause the roads and trails are in good to the hills, Mr. Weyant says Bohemia will have the first shipment for the fair. ## TWO NEW MILLS WILL MAKE BOHEMIA HAPPY

"Manager C. C. Mathews expects to begin milling with the 30-stamp plant recently finished, some time this month," said W. B. Hartley this morning, when referring to the progress of work in Bohemia. "The Oregon Securities man-ager said to me a short time ago that ager said to me a short time ago that he was about ready to begin operations along this line. The drift on the Ex-celsior vein is being driven rapidly, two shifts with a powerful drill being at work there, while the face of the big crosscut is going into the mountain with still greater speed. Minera state that the 10-stamp plant on the Veguvius is running full time, with two shifts, and that the new ae-rial tram is delivering ore more rapidly than it can be reduced. When these new mills are pounding out gold, Bohemia will begin to attract more attention, and another season will find the camp in very prosperous condition."

GREENHORN CAMP BUSY PROVING MANY MINES

W. D. McMillan of Greenhorn, Bake county, who is in the city to attend the annual meeting of the Miners' associa-tion, says that when he departed from the new camp work was active on many properties. There has been no cessa-

Jackson county, on Bummer guich. A cross-cut was driven about 80 feet to catch the vein, and drifts were extended in both directions. Mr. Schaeffer says that good ore was encountered in both the north and south tunnels, in one small vein specimens showing free gold to the naked eye. Another vein was cut in one of the tunnels, which the miner said he understood was good rock.
